

1943

ЮУрГУ

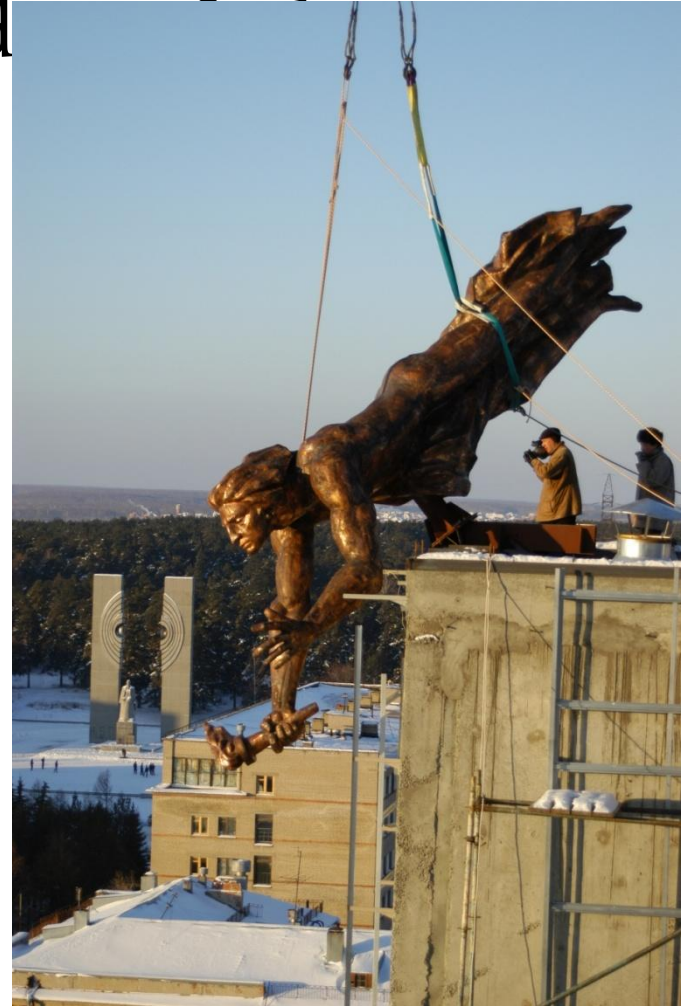

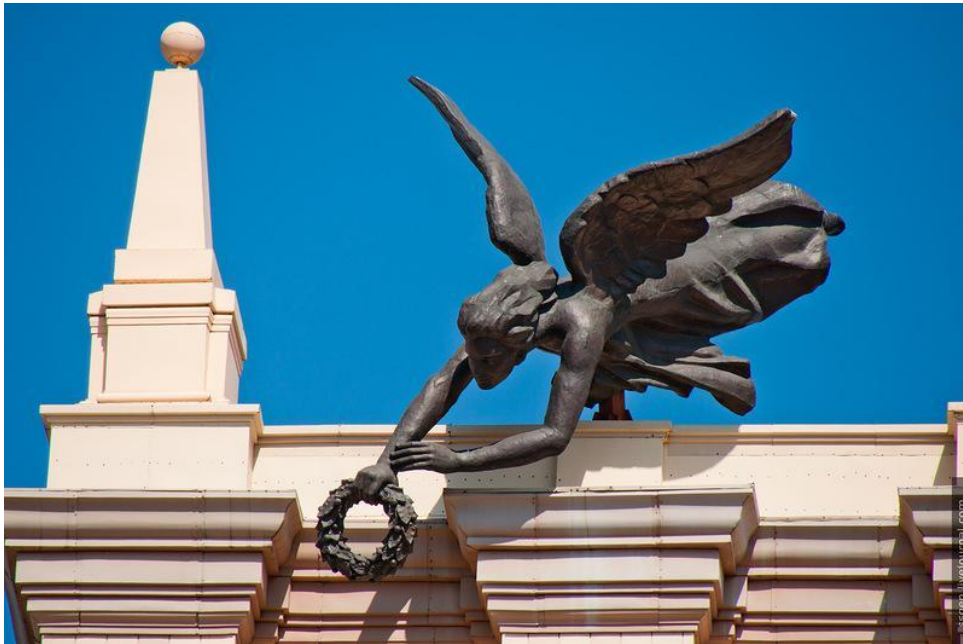

building

- The university was founded in 1943. It was created from the institute, evacuated to Chelyabinsk from Stalingrad. In 1952, two floors were built on, a tower and a spire.

- The main building is the second tallest building in the city. On the roof of the building there are 2 copper sculptures: Prometheus and the goddess route

- The university can be reached from different parts of the city by public transport. You can also arrive in your car and leave it in a large parking lot.

SUSU in numbers

- Today SUSU is the center of the educational, scientific, cultural and sports life of the Southern Urals. About 30 thousand students and about 2 thousand teachers

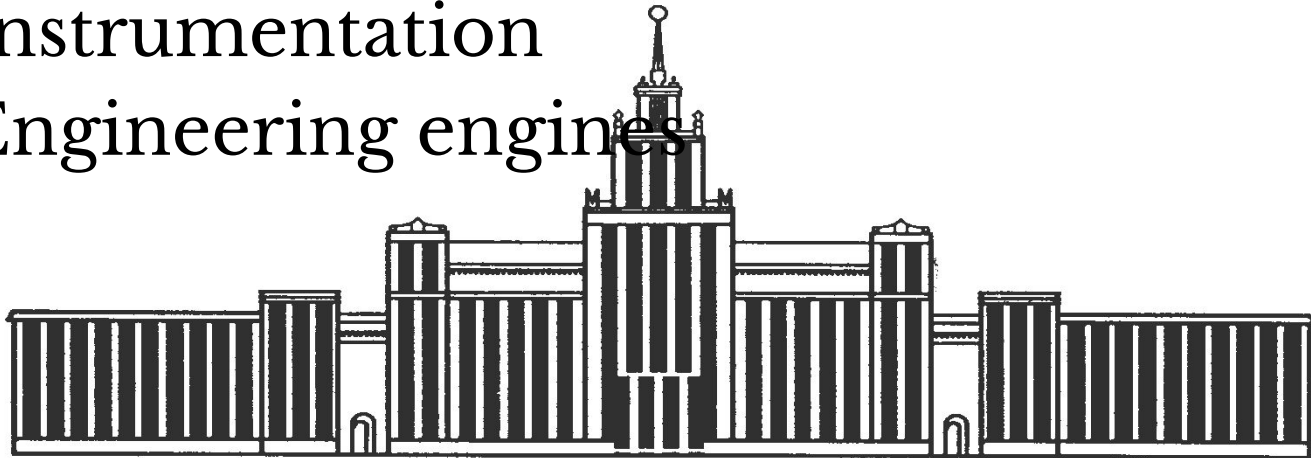

- SUSU includes 10 institutes and higher educational institutions, the Institute of Continuing Education and the Institute of Open and Distance Education, 2 faculties, as well as 5 branches directions

- The main areas of
- Supercomputing (data mining)
- Engineering
- Natural sciences
- Human sciences
- Microelectromechanical systems
- Instrumentation
- Engineering engines

creation

The center of creativity of SUSU began its activity as a student club. After that, he became an independent structural unit of the university.

Over the years student groups have been created.

Among them are famous theater-studio "mannequin", a ballroom dance ensemble, Primavera Choir, Deep Vision dance group, folk-tone folk theater and others..

- SUSU has many traditions, including creative ones. Theater festivals "dedication to students", "university's birthday", "Tatiana's day", "graduates", "New Year's journey", "Step Ball" library

- The Scientific Library of the South Ural State University is one of the largest university libraries in the Urals.
- The library consists of 11 reading rooms, two museums

History Museum of SUSU

- Part of the exhibition is devoted to the creation of the university and its transformation. Also in the museum is the layout of the building of the main block, the E

Museum "Peoples and Technologies of the Southern Urals" SUSU

It contains exhibits found on the territory of the Southern Urals by teachers and students of the Faculty of History of SUSU. Exhibits cover a wide time range. The museum contains a variety of household items, jewelry, weapons, objects of art.

- Geological Museum
- The exhibition presents rocks and minerals of the Ural region. A total of about a thousand exhibits in the museum.

- Hall of Arts
- The exposition of the Russian Academy of Arts and the State Russian Museum deserve special attention. There is also a university's own art collection, based on art...

canteens

- In the buildings of the university there are buffets. For students presented a wide variety of products. The service is polite. Also near the university there are fast food cafes

Interesting Facts

- Did you know that these bumps on the railing are made so that no one rolls over them?

- From the windows facing east, you can see the rows of tanks of the military training department.

- The pink building behind the pipe is the first campus of SUSU in its history. Now there are laboratories and audiences.

