

MY SPORT IDOL

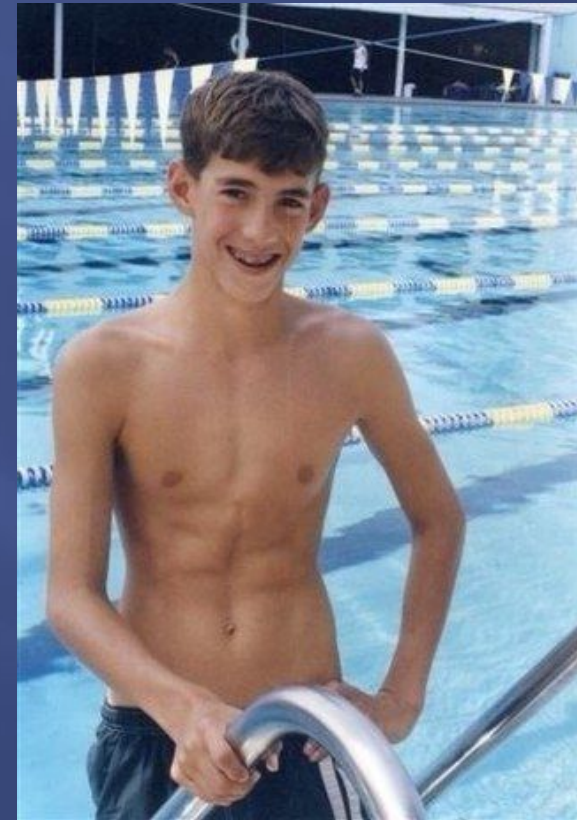

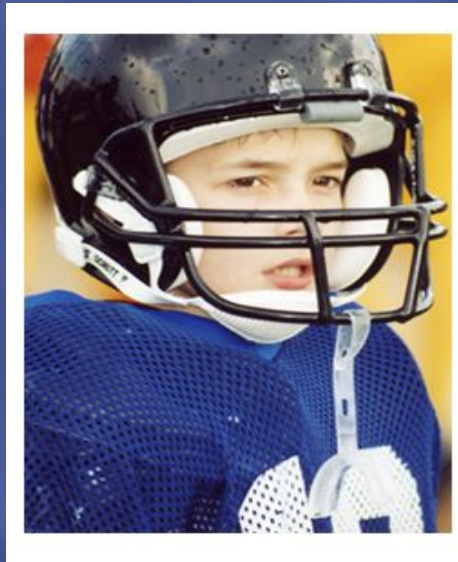

Michael Fred Phelps is an Olympic champion, was born on the 30th of June in 1985 in Baltimore (Maryland, USA).

He is an American retired competitive swimmer and the most successful and most decorated Olympian of all time, with a total of 28 medals. Phelps also holds the all-time records for Olympic gold medals (23), Olympic gold medals in individual events (13) and Olympic medals in individual events (16). In Summer Olympics in Rio de Janeiro he won five gold medals and one silver. This made him the most successful athlete of the Games for the fourth Olympics in a row.

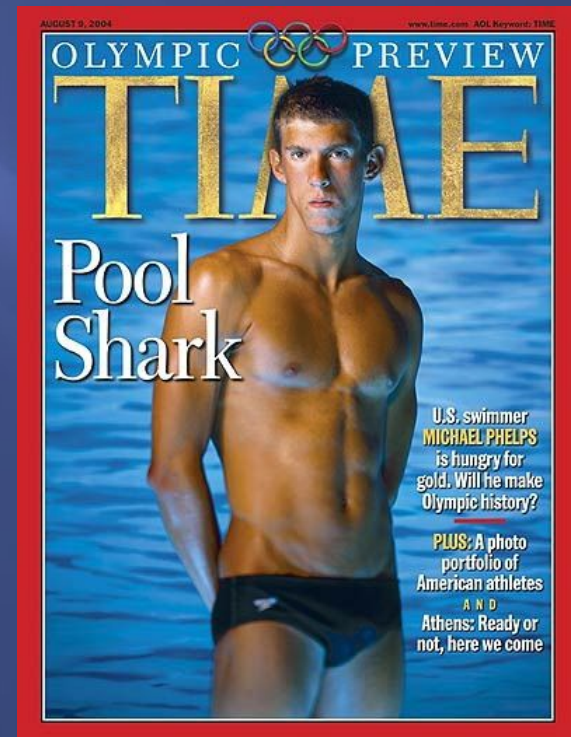

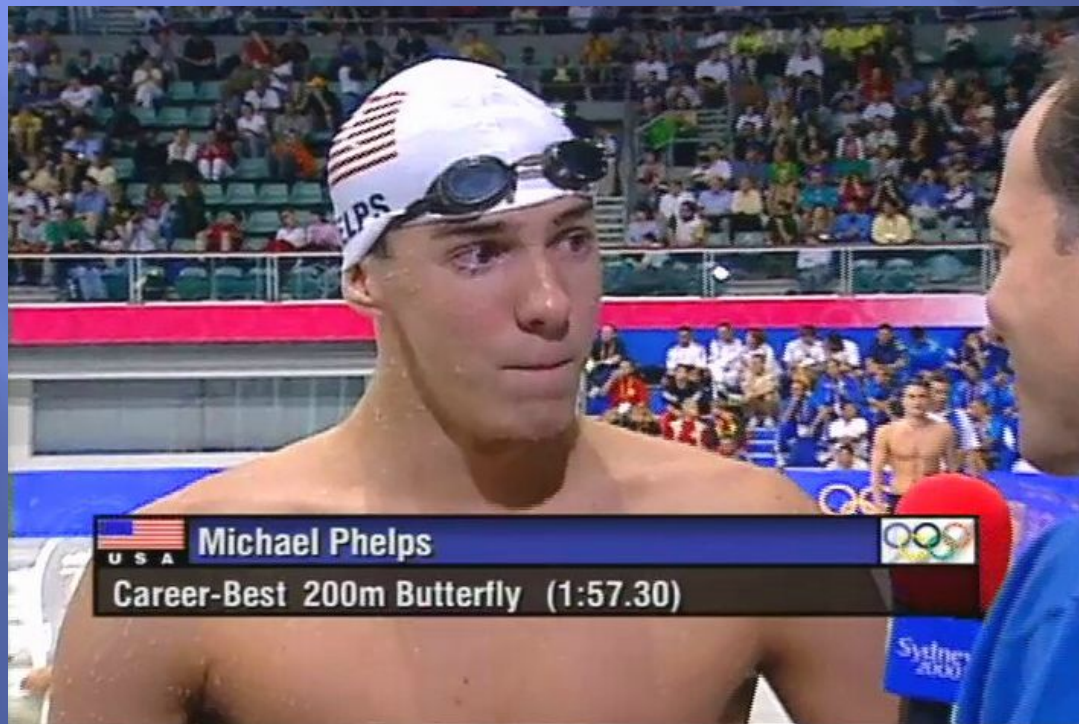

Phelps began swimming at the age of seven because he was a sick child. He also told :"The only reason I ever got in the water was my mom wanted me to just learn how to swim. My sisters and myself fell in love with the sport, and we decided to swim". Until 12 years in parallel playing baseball and American football.

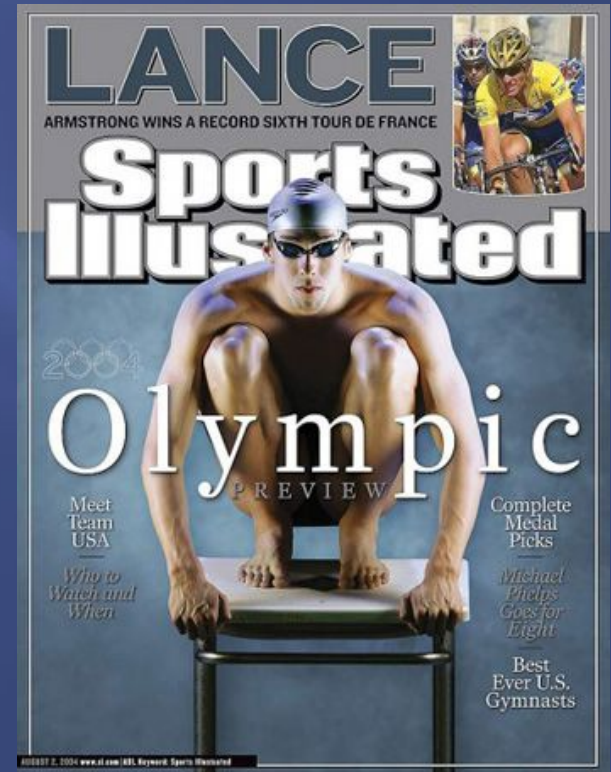

In a swimming club in North Baltimore, Michael met his trainer Bob Bowman, who trains him now. Michael is most strong in swimming freestyle and butterfly, and also successfully performs in a complex voyage.

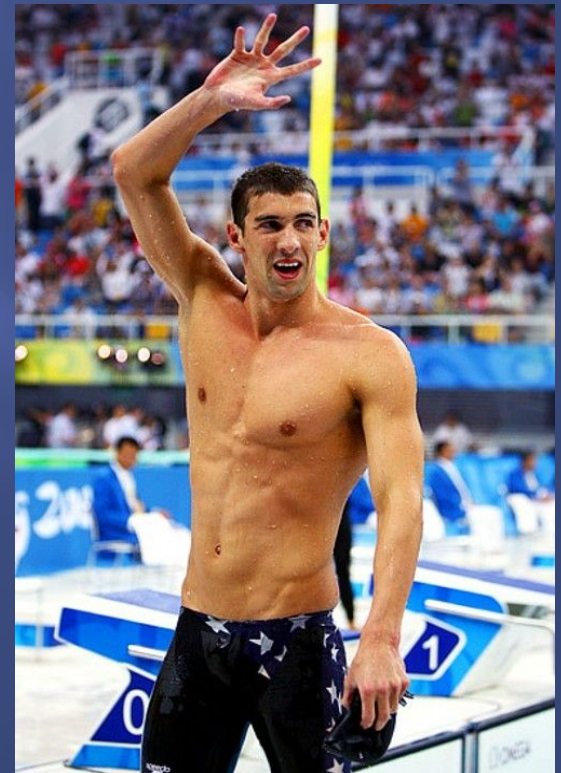

At the age of 15, Michael Phelps became the youngest participant in the Olympic Games in the history of American swimming. He participated with the US team at the Olympic Games in Sydney (2000), although he finished only fifth. In the spring of 2001 Phelps set a world record at a distance of 200 meters butterfly and became the youngest swimmer in history, set a world record. Later, he broke his record at the 2001 World Swimming Championships with a score of 1:54:58.

Phelps became a celebrity after the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, where he earned eight medals (six of them gold). He repeated the record of the Russian gymnast Alexander Dityatin for the total number of medals received for one Olympics, established in 1980.

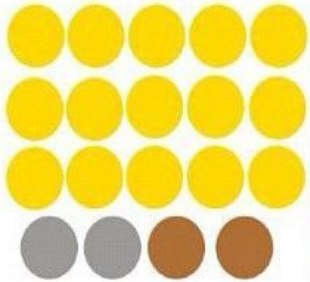

Having won eight gold medals at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, Phelps became the most titled among all sportsmen in all sports, in terms of gold; In addition, he broke the record of American swimmer Mark Spitz on the number of gold medals won at one Olympics.

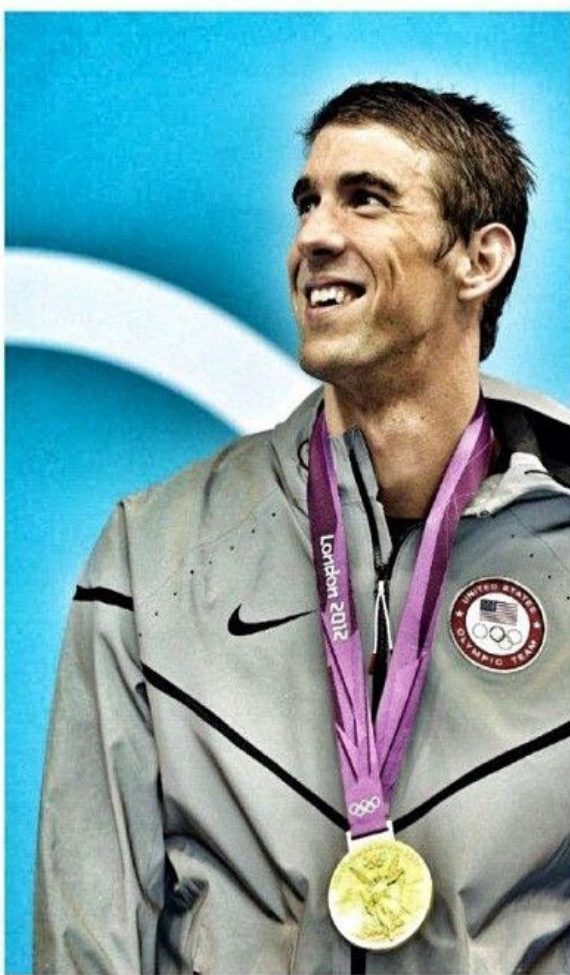

At the 2012 Olympics in London, Michael Phelps set a record of all times in the number of medals won at the Olympic Games, updating the achievement of the outstanding Soviet gymnast Larisa Latynina, which lasted 48 years.

CONGRATS
MICHAEL PHELPS

THE MOST DECORATED
OLYMPIAN
OF ALL TIME

The sports biography of Michael Phelps is a series of real triumphs. During his career, the American champion won 19 gold Olympic medals and beat world records 32 times - most of the swimmers of the world can only dream about this result.

In addition to the Olympic gold medals, Phelps scored 26 victories in world championships, nine world records, the gold of the world championship in short water in Indianapolis (2004), 16 victories in the Pacific championships. He was recognized six times as the best swimmer of the year in the world and eight times in the USA.

Excellent developed not only a sports career, but also the personal life of Michael Phelps. He has a happy marriage with the model of Nicole Johnson, who received the title "Miss California" in 2010.

He has a happy marriage with Nicole.

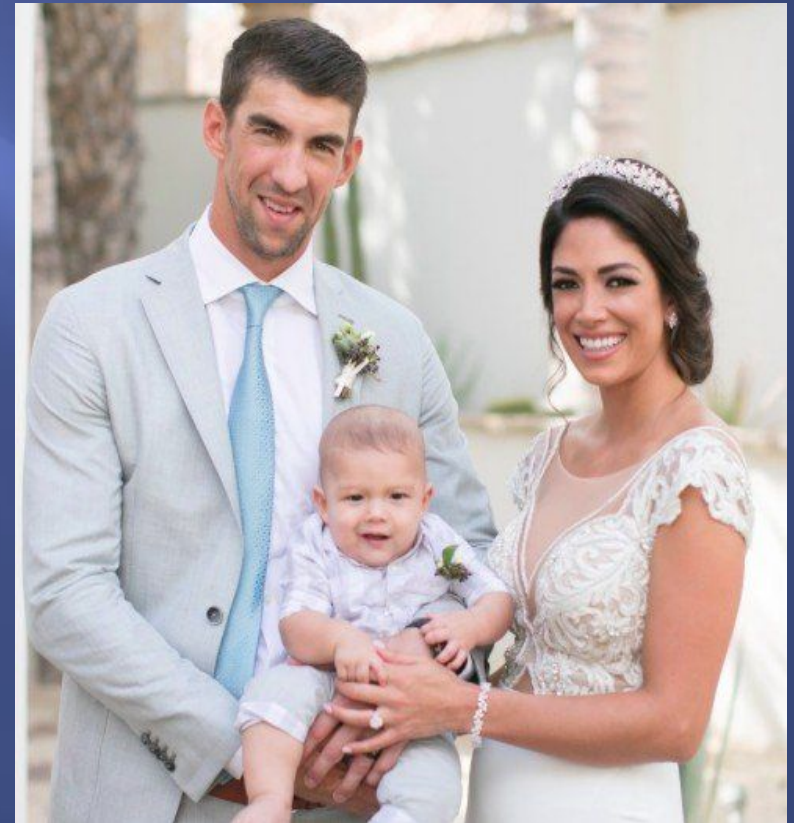

In May 2016, Nicole gave birth to a happy wife of the first-born, whom the couple called Robert.

«Welcome to this world, Boomer Robert Phelps!
You were born on May 5 - healthy and happy.
This is the best feeling I've experienced in my life!» - wrote Phelps , having published a snapshot of the newborn son.

They are very beautiful family

Thank you for attention!

