WEATHER IN RUSSIA

Everyone knows that there are four seasons in a year: spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Winter in Russia is very cold

People's activities

People's activities depends on physical geography. So in northern regions cattle-breeding is widespread. For example reindeer breeding and dog breeding in Siberia

Russian cuisine

To my mind, delicious food is one of the greatest pleasures in Russian life. Traditional foods of Russian cuisine have some common ingredients, such as potatoes, wheat and rye bread, dairy products like butter, cottage cheese, cheese and sour cream; meat (most commonly pork and beef) and grain crops. The most popular traditional Russian dishes are borsch, rassolnik (meat or fish soup with pickled cucumbers), okroshka (cold kvass soup with chopped vegetables and meat), pancakes, meat, fish and vegetable pies, variety of porridges, pelmeny and others.

People in Russia

Russian people have always loved their country. People in Russia are sociable, hospitable, cheerful and friendly!
