

Los Angeles

Dallas

Chicago

New York

Washington

The US President lives and works in the White House

Baseball

The most popular game in the USA

basic tools of baseball are the ball

the bat

the glove

The Statue of Liberty

The statue is the symbol of freedom and greatness

The statue is in the Liberty Island

Statue of Liberty

For many years the statue welcomes all ships that enter the
New York Harbour

Perhaps the most famous place in the world – the centre of the American cinema

In Hollywood there's The Kodak Theatre

It is the home of the annual Academy Award ceremonies

Academy Award Gala

Oscars Alley

Chinese Theatre

The home to many movie
premieres

Walk of Fame

It has 3 000 stars with the names of famous actors, directors and even fictional characters

MICKEY MOUSE

And movie studios

©JackSpence2009

Hot dog and hamburger

American cars

American cars

American cars

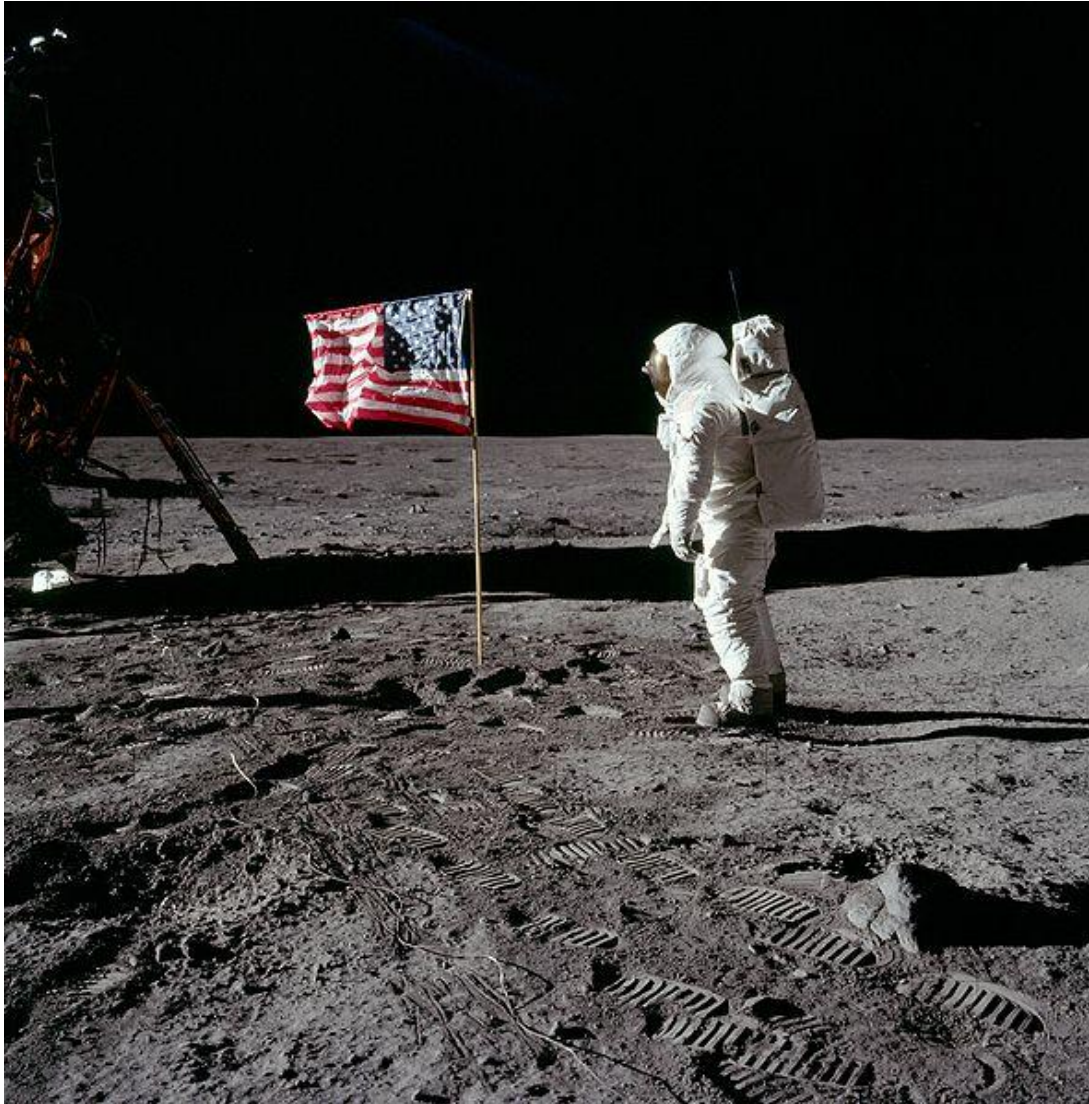

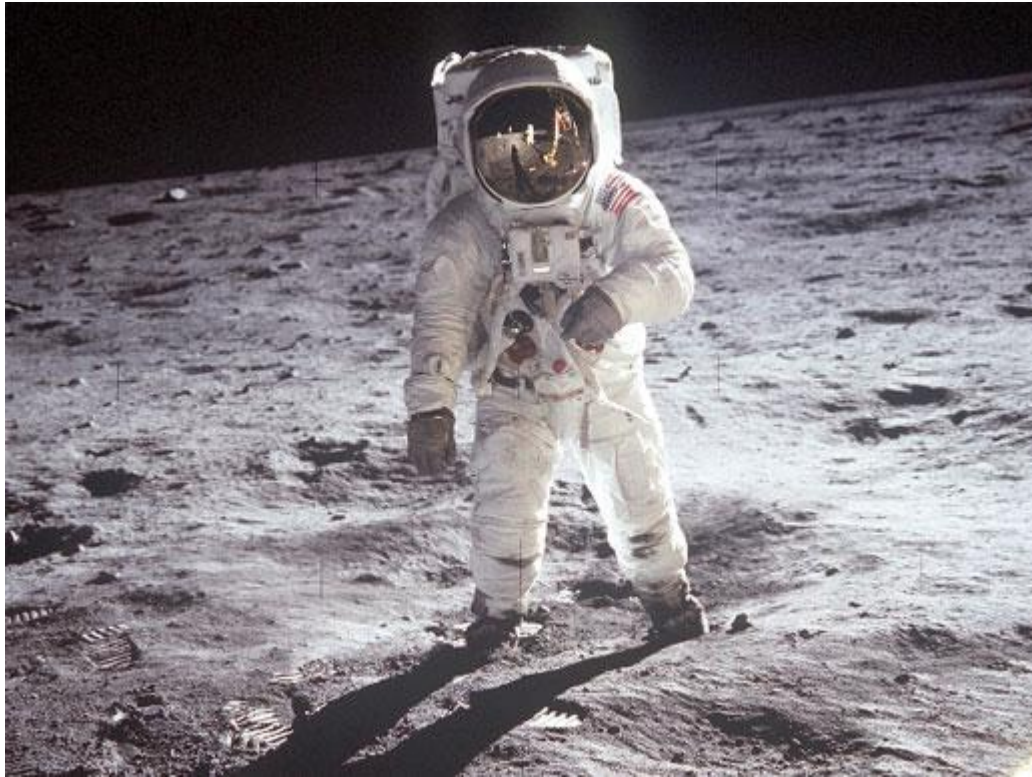

Microsoft – the biggest producer of software in the world

The Americans on the Moon

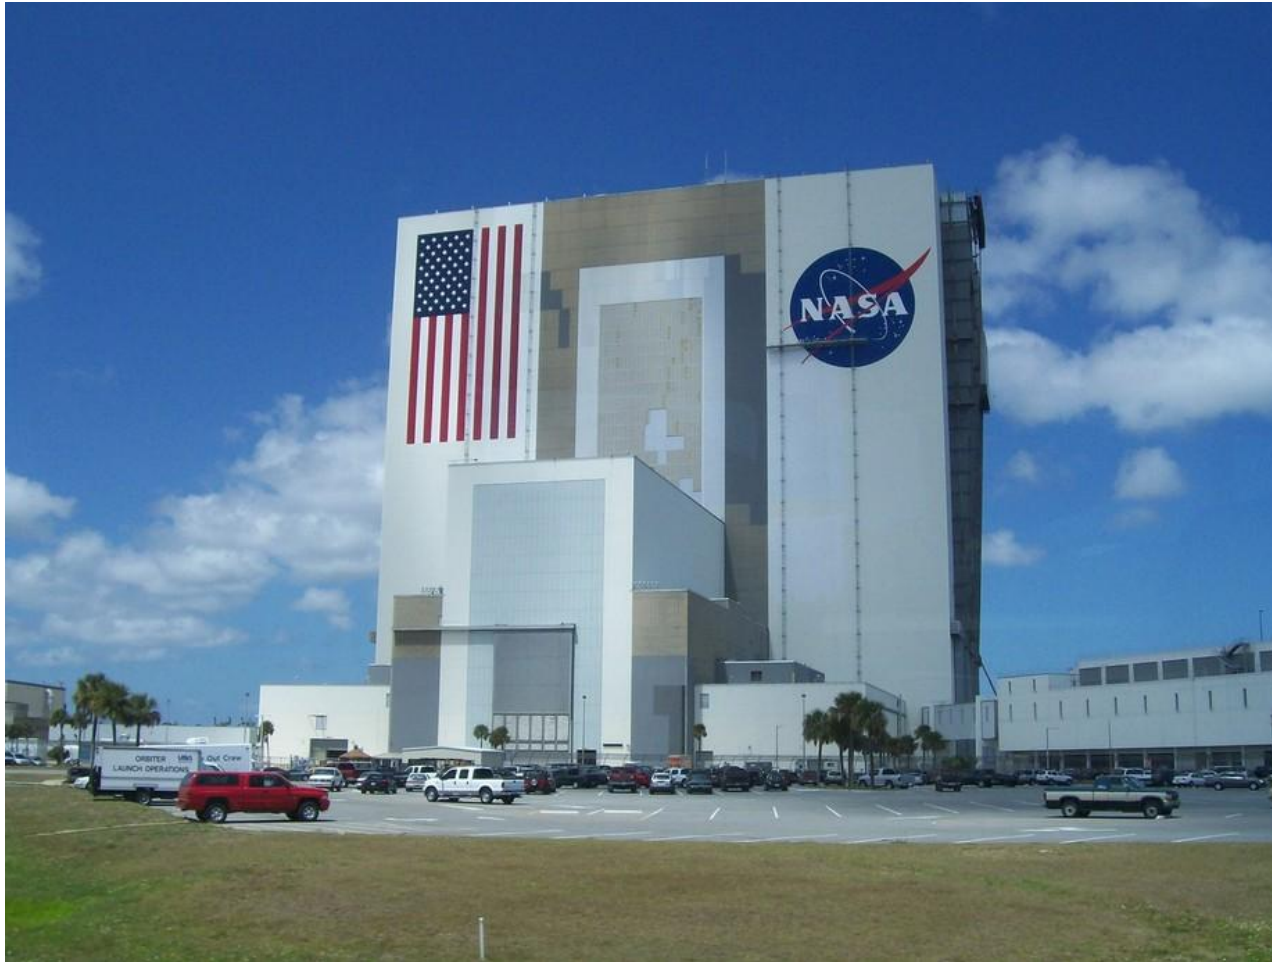

The Americans on the Moon

On July 21,
1969 astronaut
Neil Armstrong set his foot on the Moon

Cape Canaveral

Cape Canaveral

The country of skyscrapers

The Willis Tower

It has 108 stories and is the tallest building in the USA

The Willis Tower is famous for its glass balconies the girl in the glass balcony on the 98th story

American houses

A typical street in a typical American town

