

USYK OLEKSANDR

Prepared by student
I rate
Aloyna Sobol

Oleksandr Usyk
(born. January 17,
1987, Simferopol) - Ukrainian
professional boxer.
World champion in the first Heavyweight
WBO, Olympic
champion (2012),
world champion (2011), European champion (2008), a multiple champion of Ukraine. Honored
Master of Sports of Ukraine.

Parents hailing from northern Ukraine: the mother was born in Chernihiv region (Rybotyn village Korop district), and father originally from Sumy region. Since childhood, Alexander attended school football club Simferopol "Tavria" Alexander football career but not developed. In 15 years started boxing. 2]

Graduated: school number 34 in Simferopol (where he studied with his future wife Catherine) and Lviv State University of Physical Culture (then - graduate student of the university).

Career

In 2006 he took part in the European Amateur Boxing Championships, reached the semifinals, where Russian citizen lost Matthew Korobov in the weight category up to 75 kg.

Usyk then moved to the light heavyweight weight class in 2008 and won the Bulgarian Cup Strange.

In February 2008, was sent Olympic Committee in Roseto degli Abruzzi, replacing Dennis Poyatsyku. There he beat world-class fighters, Azerbaijani Elchana Alizalde and Briton Danny Price.

Took part in the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. In the first round Alexander easily defeated a boxer from China Yushana Niyati (23: 4), and in the second round, lost to future silver medalist, Italian Clemente Russo (4: 7). After the defeat at the Olympics, Alexander descended into Light weight and won the 2008 European Championship, then moved to heavyweight category. Took the silver medal in the championship of the World Cup 2008.

In 2009 he took part in the world championship boxing. It won the bronze medal, losing in the semifinals Russian citizen Yegor mekhontsev.

In 2011, the world championship won Russian Beterbiyeva Arthur and the final boxer from Azerbaijan Taimur Mammedova, winning the gold medal.

Gold Medal August 11,
2012

Professional career

September 25, 2013 Usyk Alexander signed a contract with the promotion company «K2 Promotions» Nov. 9 and has spent his first fight on a professional ring in the first heavy weight (weight category "to 91 kg"). Alexander became trainer James Ali Bashir American who works as a team Wladimir Klitschko

According to promoter Alexander Krasyuk, the goal is to break the record Usyk lehenarnoho Evander Holyfield, who became world champion in the first heavyweight champion in his 12th match in the professional ring.

October 4, 2014, Alexander spent his first title fight for the vacant belt Intercontinental champion WBO, which won the South African Daniel Brewer knockout in round 7

Fight Andrei Knyazev

Sport achievements

Professional

2016 - The world champion of the WBO heavyweight (up to 90.72 kg)

Professional regional

2014 -2016 Intercontinental champion of the WBO heavyweight (up to 90.72 kg)

Semi

2013 - Silver Cup Ukrainian team chiefs WSB 2012-2013 season of the year

2013 - individual competition season WSB 2012-2013 years

International amateur

2012 - Champion XXX Olympic heavyweight (up to 91kg)

2011 - World Champion in heavy weight (up to 91kg)

2009 - Bronze medalist of the World Heavyweight Champion (under 91 kg)

2008 - European champion in the light heavyweight (81 kg)

2006 - Bronze medalist of the European Championships in middle weight (75 kg)

Regional amateur

2011 - Champion of Ukraine in heavy weight (up to 91kg)

2010 - Champion of Ukraine in heavy weight (up to 91kg)

2009 - Champion of Ukraine in heavy weight (up to 91kg)

2006 - Champion of Ukraine in the middleweight (75 kg)

"The best sportsman of Ukraine 2012"

Thank you for viewing