

Herr James Champollion

The Keeper of the Faculty of Foreign Languages

- Let us introduce you Herr James Champollion. He is a personification of our faculty.
- He is friendly to everybody.
- James takes part in different spheres of faculty's life. Now he'll show you how it is all works.

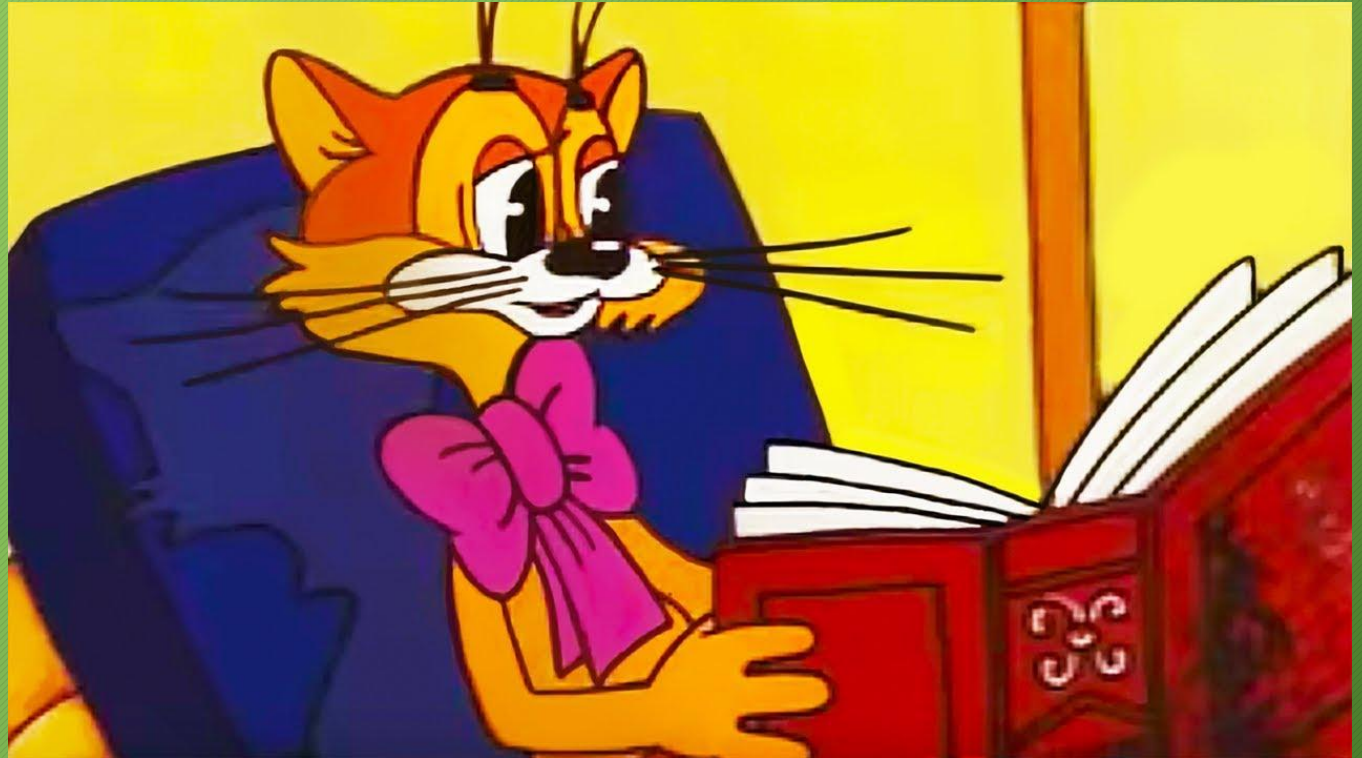

Sphere of Activities

- Evince your intelligence
- Display your talent
- Demonstrate tenacity
- Show generosity
- Make new friends

Reach Your Aims

- Our students are bright and gifted
- You should be hard-working to reach your goals, and our wise lecturers help you with it

“

”

They have attained success. Now it is your turn!

Your High Point

- Our students take part in different competitions
- The most popular among them is phonetic contest, where students show their drama and phonetic skills
- The most active students participate in the interfaculty occasions. For example, To Light Up the Stars, «KBH» and Mr/Mrs of Leningrad State University named after Pushkin.
- Furthermore, we've got special and marvelous celebration - New Year

Meetings with Friends

- On our faculty you can enjoy meetings with your friends and even with foreign guests.
- It can help you to improve your language skills and, moreover, to make new acquaintance of many interesting people.

One of Our Meetings

Useful and Helpful Languages

- Moreover, our students are open-hearted.
- They come forward with different initiatives and always ready to give anybody a helping hand.

Our Friends

- In our university students from different faculties are friends.
- They support each other, compete with each other and take part in different activities together.

Happy Anniversary!

- Recently our university has celebrated a 25 year anniversary. It is important event for our faculty.
- Our university has become a center of high education and science in our region.
- We wish our university development, diligent and bright student and to achieve success in different scientific contests.

