England ●

Let's travel through London

First, let's travel in London on a doubledecker bus.

Big Ben is a famous 316 foot tower that has a clock on it. It was named after a man called Sir Benjamin Hall. He was in charge of building it.

The London Tower Bridge is a very famous bridge.

Outside of the Buckingham Palace, there are guards that act like soldiers. The guards are very serious about their job. They are not allowed to talk to anyone. Every day at the same time they change places with a new set of guards. This is done very neatly and organized. People come from all over to watch this happen....

Buckingham Palace is where the Queen of England lives. It has many rooms and is decorated with lots of expensive things.

Trafalgar Square is a famous place where people gather to meet. There are large fountains, waterfalls, and big statues to see.

At Last.... London is famous for Cadbury Chocolate bars and eggs. Take a break from traveling and have a delicious candy bar!

Beauties of Scotland

"Let's see the gardens of Scotland"

The Climate in Scotland is Cool and Rainy. Gardens grow well here. Many people in Scotland are so interested in gardening that they form clubs and travel together to visit famous ones.

This is the most famous Instrument of Scotland

This instrument is called Bagpipes. It is a combination instrument that can make more than one note at once. Bagpipes are often used in parades in America because a marcher can play them and they are loud!
