EASTER SYMBOLS

- ❑ Easter symbols in Britain are Bunnies, chicks, lambs and flowers (especially daffodils and lilies).
- ❑ The cross and colored eggs are also well-known Easter

*Easter is a great spring holiday in Britain.
The British like it very much!*

A lot of people lined the streets waving palm branches to welcome him. The people were very excited. They shouted 'Save us Now!' They waved palm branches.

Sallow, or pussy willow, was used in many places as a palm branch.

They give each other Easter eggs. But eggs are chocolate! Or they give each other Easter presents (souvenirs).

Last Friday
before Easter is Good Friday.
They eat hot cross buns – a tasty sweet bread for Easter.

At Easter Day they go to the church and take Easter basket. There are eggs, bread and other food in it.

At Easter Day they go to the church and take Easter basket.

There are eggs, bread and other food in it.

They leave this basket in the church.

At Easter Day they think that Easter Bunny hides the Easter eggs. And the children have to find them.

“EGG HUNT”

- On Sunday morning children hunt colored eggs and put them into their Easter baskets. Someone who finds the largest number of them will get a prize.
- The legend says an ‘Easter Bunny Rabbit’ hides eggs in the garden and children have to find them.

Englishmen play football at this day.

They have Easter rolling eggs competitions.
