A: I would like to go to a nice open-air cafe where we can just relax and talk. How about you?

B: Well, I don't know about that. I like to have a good meal on Saturday evenings and you can't do that in a cafe. They only serve snacks.

A: You've got a point there. So where would you prefer to go? A fast food place or a smart restaurant?

B: I would prefer a restaurant because I love good food. It doesn't have to be expensive, but it must have a varied menu.

A: An end-of-year school party is very important and the food needs to be just right. What do you think about a cold stand-up buffet? I think it's a good opportunity to circulate and meet people.

B: It is and it could be cheap, but isn't it awkward trying to hold your food. What's your opinion of fast food? Most of our classmates like fast food.

A: That's true, but they eat that kind of food every day and it's very unhealthy.

B: OK. A three-course dinner is a nourishing meal, but is probably too formal for a school party.

A: Definitely. What about a barbecue? Barbecues are fun and the food is really tasty.

B: I like that idea. The only problem is that a barbecue depends on the weather. If it rains, we can't cook.

A: It is an end-of-year party so it will be early summer.

I think the barbecue is the best idea.

B: I agree. Let's just hope it stays dry!

B 6 b p 51

Listen-answer

What type of food do they decide on?

What reasons do they give?

They decide on the cold stand-up buffet because there's a variety of choice to suit everyone and they can select their own food. It is also cheap and it will give everyone the opportunity to circulate and meet each other.
