We can try different logo and navigation positions. Top right seems to fit this photo well.

This document is to show a direction for layout. I am not fixed on any font style.

Sample bar of benefits (icon and text)

The site immediately goes into the table. It will two columns, each one with a buy no button at the bottom. This is a sample table, it does not have to look like this.

Content description about the two product choices above – Conversion Driver and Content Booster. I don't have a thought yet about how this is structured.
