

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

The University of Cambridge is the second-oldest university in the English-speaking world and the seventh-oldest in the world.

The university was formed in 1209.

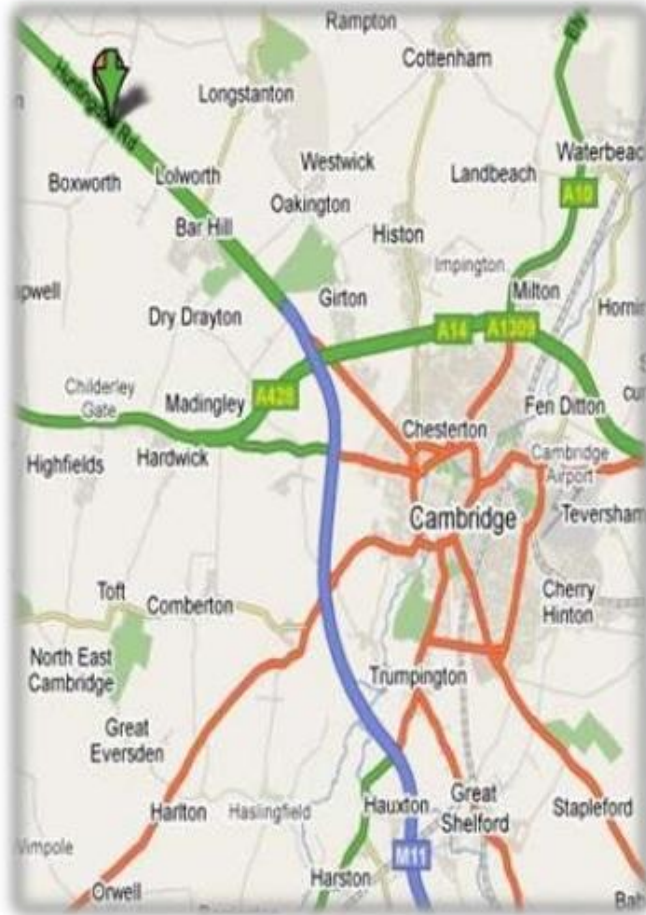

Newton, Byron, Darwin,
Rutherford and many other scientists and writers were educated at Cambridge

The Geography:

Cambridge - an old-time university city. The University noted 800 jubilee in 2009. Cambridge is one of the most popular places in Great Britain. It's possible easy get round on foot.

Cambridge is one of the loveliest towns of England.

It is not modern industrial city and looks much more like a country town

History

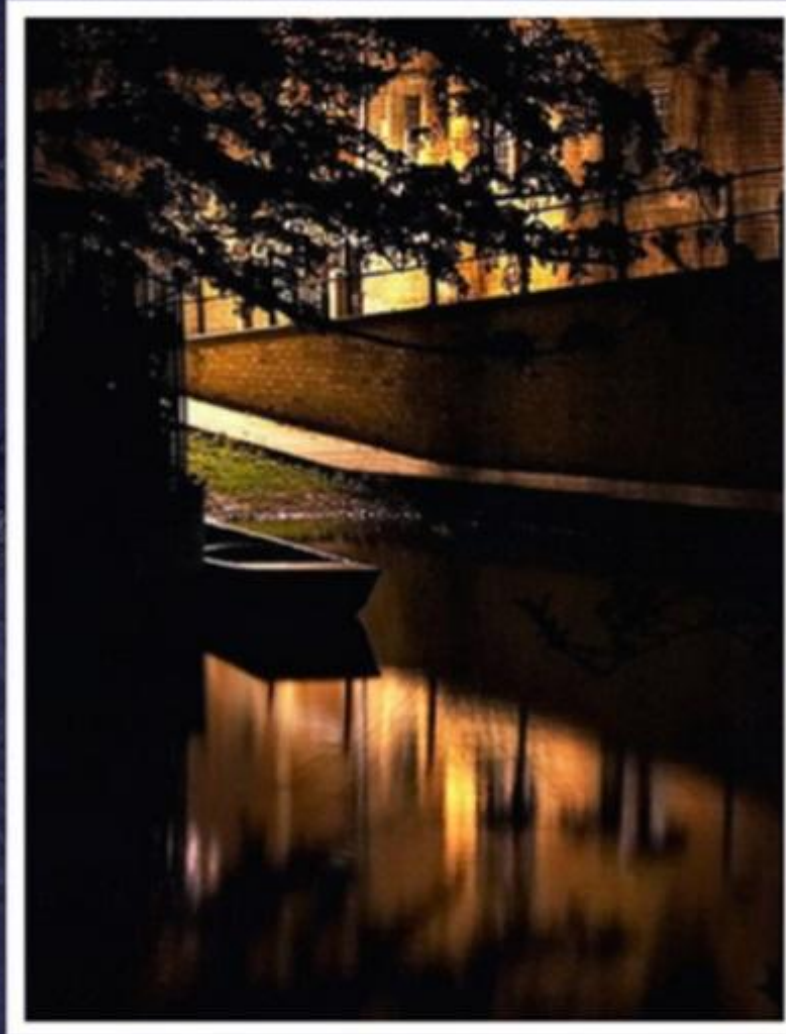

- © Cambridge's status was enhanced by a charter in 1231 from King Henry III of England

A "School" in the University of Cambridge is a broad administrative grouping of related faculties and other units. There are six schools:

- Arts and Humanities
- Biological Sciences
- Clinical Medicine
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Physical Sciences
- Technology

Do you know?...

- ▶ On street Cambridge is forbidden to play tennis.
- ▶ New students in Cambridge must pass the circle "beginner", which consists of ten Cambridge's beer. In each you must drink the pint a beer. The Beginner must do this as quickly as possible.
- ▶ Wittgenstein buried in Cambridge on graveyard St Giles Churchyard, not far from Churchill College.
- ▶ In Cambridge were opened Structure DNK and created method of the artificial insemination.
- ▶ Archeologists from university Cambridge have found southward from city remains english-saxon princess, lived in VII age of our era.

References:

- 1) Staley, Oliver (30 June 2014). "Accounts of colleges". Cambridge university. Retrieved 4 September 2015.
- 2) Leedham-Green, Elisabeth (1996). A Concise History of the University of Cambridge. Cambridge University Press.
- 3) "Special No 19". Cambridge University Reporter. Retrieved 8 September 2008.
- 4) <https://en.wikipedia.org/>