

Dimethyl Ether

This data is just reference to be obtained from the result of the initial measurement by TKK.
We don't design the catalyst using operation temperature in less than 100% of purification rate, because the catalyst lose purification the organic matter soon when the catalyst deteriorates during the operation.
We recommend operation temperature is 300 C in your case.