Childhood and youth

He was born on October 7, 1952 in Leningrad. According to his own answer during the census, the Russian nationality.

Father, Vladimir Spiridonovich Putin (23.2.1911 - 2.8.1999) - a participant in the Great Patriotic War.

Mother, Maria Ivanovna Shelomova (1911-1998), also worked at the plant, survived the blockade of Leningrad.

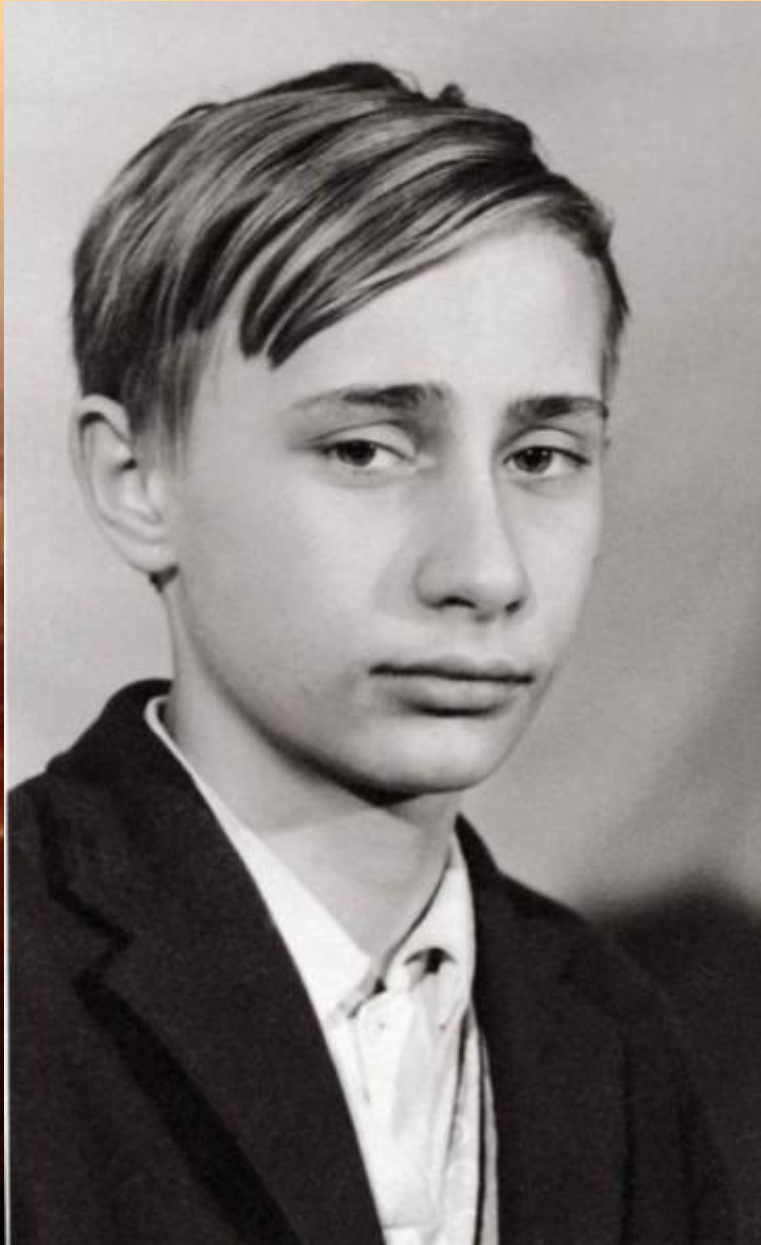

Grandfather, Spiridon Ivanovich Putin, was a famous chef, he had to cook for Lenin and Stalin.

Vladimir was the third son in the family - he had two older brothers who were born and died before his birth: Victor (died of diphtheria during the siege of Leningrad and was buried at Piskarevsky cemetery) and Albert (died before the Great Patriotic War).

In 1960 - 1965, Vladimir Putin studied at the eight-year school. Then he entered a special school with a chemical bias on the basis of a technological institute, which he graduated in 1970. In 1970 - 1975 he studied at the international department of the law faculty of the Leningrad State University.

Already becoming president, Putin told me that since childhood he was fond of Soviet films about scouts and dreamed of working in state security bodies.

Putin is an athlete

Putin is a master of sports in sambo and judo. President of Russia Vladimir Putin became the owner of a belt and a diploma on conferring him the honorable 9th dan in Korean traditional martial art taekwondo. In the world, only a few people were awarded the honorary belt of the 9th dan
