Teachers?

1. Tell something amazing about your quarantine life.
2. Ask the questions to each other. (10--5)(1--6)(2--1)(3--8)(4--9)
3. Discuss and choose the question for Miss Irene to answer in video format!

Texts:

-She wasn't successful when she got older.

- Not all child stars are successful adult actors.

-Child actors have to sign contracts like adult actors, but they can't work long hours and they can't do dangerous activities.

-They can have a private teacher instead.

-Successful child actors earn a lot of money.

-Now there is a law.

Challenges-2 -Easy dictation p. 54

1.She wasn't _____ when she _____ older.	2.Not all child stars are successful _____ actors.
3.Child actors have to _____ contracts like _____ actors,	4.but they can't work _____ hours and they can't do dangerous _____.
5.They can have a _____ teacher _____.	6.Successful child actors _____ a lot of money.
7.Now there is a _____.

Reading

2 Read the texts. Match these titles with the paragraphs (a–c).

- A Hard Life
- Getting Rich
- Childhood Fame

34. Äîðíæêà 34.mp3

a

Shirley Temple was a famous child star. She won an Oscar in 1935 when she was five years old, but she wasn't successful when she got older. There are many stories like this. Not all child stars are successful adult actors.

Child actors have to sign contracts like adult actors, but they can't work long hours and they can't do dangerous activities. And just like you, they have to study. But they don't have to go to school – they can have a private teacher instead.

c

Successful child actors earn a lot of money. In the early days of Hollywood, a boy called Jackie Cougan starred in many silent films. He earned millions of dollars, but his parents spent all his money! Now there is a law: their money has to go into a special bank account until they are eighteen.

Challenges-2 -cards p. 57

Discuss the situations:

Guess the Performers

Read the descriptions and guess the performer.

a 'I work in a circus but I don't have to do anything dangerous. I have to be fit because I run around and fall over in my performance. I have to be funny and make people laugh. That's more difficult than you think!'

3-Guess the riddle

b

'You have to be fit and every day I have to practise for five hours. I also have to be very careful about food. I can't eat fatty foods or chocolate. It's a hard job but when the music starts I forget everything!'

c

'I do this outside so I can't work when it's cold or raining. I usually work in the main square because there are always tourists there. I specialise in people from the past like an Egyptian queen or a Chinese princess. I can't move in my performances.'

Circus OZ

-A group of performers got together and went on tour.

-They performed in a Palestinian refugee camp, in the Australian desert, and also in the Brazilian rainforest!

-They are a big success and they tour across Australia and the world every year.

-Mason is an acrobat who can climb a vertical pole and stand on lots of rolling drums.

- Rowan can swing from a trapeze and she is very strong.

-Hazel can juggle a table with her feet!

Challenges-2 –s.b-p.56

-Circus Oz has excitement, danger and humour.

-He talks to the audience below and doesn't get down during the whole show.

-At the end of the show nine of the performers get on the same bike at the same time!

14 Circus Oz

Circus Oz

Circus Oz started in Australia in 1978. A group of performers got together and went on tour. They performed in a Palestinian refugee camp, in the Australian desert, and also in the Brazilian rainforest! They are a big success and they tour across Australia and the world every year.

Their shows are very exciting. There are trapeze artists, jugglers, acrobats and a strong woman. They play their own music too. Before each show they all get into their costumes.

There isn't a 'star of the show', just an amazing group of characters. Mason is an acrobat who can climb a vertical pole and stand on lots of rolling drums. Rowan can swing from a trapeze and she is very strong. Hazel can juggle a table with her feet! In Circus Oz the performers do funny things all the time. Tim is a clown. He's very unusual. At first you think: 'Why are people looking up?' And then you see – Tim is on the ceiling! He talks to the audience below and doesn't get down during the whole show.

At the end of the show nine of the performers get on the same bike at the same time! Circus Oz has excitement, danger and humour. I took my kids, Oliver (15) and Josh (13), and we really enjoyed it. So what are you waiting for? Buy a ticket for the show!

4 Read the text again. Match the names (1–5) and the descriptions (a–e).

- | | | |
|---|-------|------------------------|
| 1 | Mason | a) one of the audience |
| 2 | Rowan | b) juggler |
| 3 | Hazel | c) clown |
| 4 | Tim | d) acrobat |
| 5 | Josh | e) trapeze artist |

5 Answer these questions.

- 1 Would you like to see Circus Oz? Why/Why not?
- 2 Which parts of the show would you like to see?
- 3 How is Circus Oz different from traditional circuses?

Can you see the egg?

about the last film you saw and whether you enjoyed it.

- Now write a letter to your friend.
- Write your letter in about 100 words on your answer sheet.

Hi, mate!!

How's it going? I was very busy this week. But. You know that I love films. I saw the film with the name of 'Bend it like Beckham' It's a very interesting film about football. An indian girl who wanted to play football was the main story. Her parents don't let her play. But she's a very good football player, she's better than a boy who doesn't know how to play football. Finally, she went to America for proffesional League. Santa Barbara. I'm not sure of the team name. Anyway, it's a happy ending for her and for her family.

I recomended the film to Mike and Mike saw the film. He loved it. So I do recomend to you the film 'Bend it like Beckham'.

If I were you, I'd go the cinema right now. Have a good weekend. See you soon.

Bye.

The Death Certificates

The Dailys invited me to stay with them for a few days. I agreed thankfully. After a few days, I would go straight back to London. Not to Eel Marsh House. I would never go back there again.

But I was angry. I had not finished my work. The woman in black had stopped me.

Then I remembered the papers I had brought with me from Eel Marsh House. The letters told a sad story. I wanted to know how the story ended.

I read the letters again. Poor Jennet! She had loved her child so much. But she was unmarried. She could not keep her boy. She had to give him to her sister, Mrs Drablow. The child had lived at Eel Marsh House. What had happened to him?

I picked up the other papers and looked at them. They were death certificates.

The first was for a boy. Name: Nathaniel Drablow. Age: six years. Cause of death: drowning.

I looked at the second certificate. Rosa Judd – nursemaid. Cause of death: drowning.

On both certificates, the date of death was the same.

I held the death certificates tightly in my hand. I felt myself grow cold. I got up and walked about the room.

Then I looked at the last piece of paper. It was another death certificate. This time, the date was twelve years later.

The certificate was for Jennet Humfrye, unmarried. Age: thirty-six years. Cause of death: heart failure.

I sat down in my chair. One thing was clear – the woman in black was Jennet Humfrye or her ghost. I did not believe in ghosts, but I had seen her.

And now I knew something else. Long, long ago, a pony and trap had left the causeway. It had sunk down in the mud of the marshes. A child and a nursemaid had been drowned.

Jennet, the boy's mother, had died twelve years after her son. I knew where they were buried. They were buried in the old graveyard behind Eel Marsh House.

Nathaniel had slept in that bedroom. For sixty years the bedroom had stayed the same. Those clothes, those toys, were his.

Jennet Humfrye was the woman in black. Her hatred had never left her. Her ghost followed anyone who went near Eel Marsh House.

What power did Jennet Humfrye have? Could the dead harm the living? I did not know the answer. I wanted to find out the answer.
