An aerial photograph of Valaam Island, a small island in the Gulf of Bothnia. The island is covered in dense green forest and features a prominent white church with a green roof and a golden dome. A small white tower is visible on the left side of the island. The surrounding water is a deep blue, and a small motorboat is seen moving across the water in the lower right quadrant, leaving a white wake. In the background, other islands and a larger building with a golden dome are visible across the water.
