

MY FAVORITE BOOK

Prepared by a student of class 8-A

THE INVISIBLE MAN

- ◉ Author: Herbert George Wells
- ◉ Genre: novel
- ◉ General Features: Priklyuchenchiskoe, psychological
- ◉ Plot lines: Inventions and scientific research
- ◉ The linearity of the plot: Linear
- ◉ The characters of the novel: Griffin - the scientist and the protagonist of the story, Dr. Kemp, a drifter Marvel

A LITTLE ABOUT THE BOOK

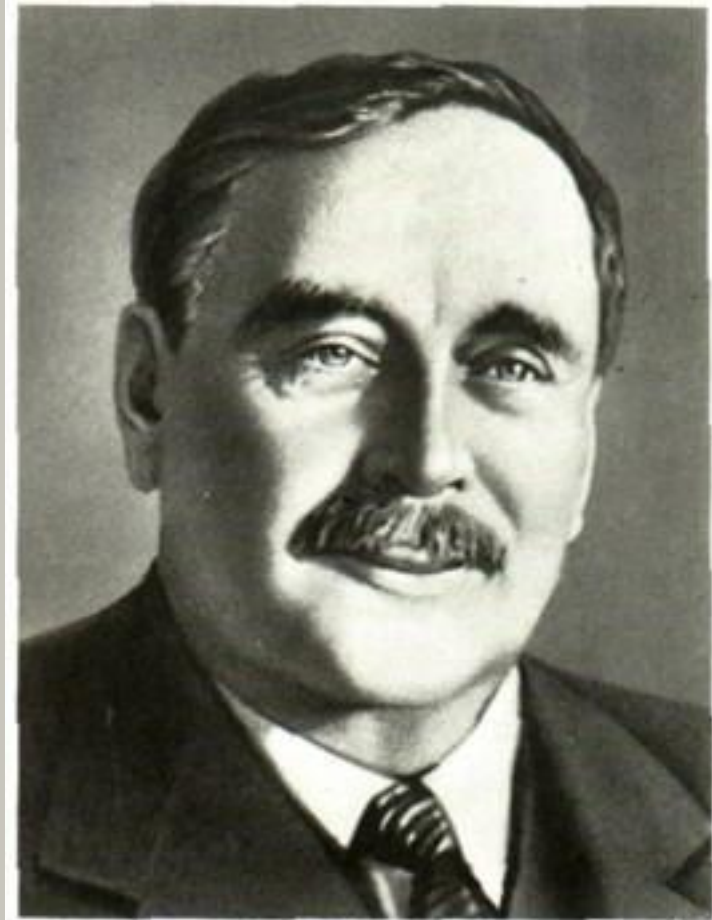

Griffin's career develops not the best way. The brilliant scientist, he discovered a way of becoming invisible. But the fear that his discovery will appropriate Griffin keep it a secret . However, the lack of money soon pushes it on the first offense . He robs his father took away his people's money . Because of that, his father commits suicide . Griffin decides to run for it and it becomes invisible . Becoming invisible , Griffin feels a lot of inconvenience . But his eye falls shop that sells make-up accessories . Its owner - the hunchback , whose Invisible ties in a sheet and makes it impossible to escape. Then Griffin ignites house, destroying all their products , then leaves . Now we must learn to move from the invisible into the visible condition that can not be invisible.

AUTHOR OF THE BOOK

Herbert George Wells English writer, a classic of science fiction. He was born on September 21, 1866 in Bromley. 1888 - graduated from the London universitet. Vo the 2-nd World War, spoke in support of the Soviet Union. 1942 - Doctor of Biology. Died August 13, 1946 in London.

Among the works - novels, novellas, short stories, articles - "The Time Machine" (1895, an attempt to prove that the development of society in the framework of the bourgeois system will end the degeneration and death of mankind), "The Island of Dr. Moreau" (1896), "Wheel of Fortune" (1896), "The Invisible Man" (1897), "War of the Worlds" (1898).

I really enjoyed this book

