Calming Brits (and Irishfolk)

Okay, so last semester, this guy broke my heart. I got over it, and forgave him, though I didn't forget what he did to me. Now, he's flirting with me like he did before the incident. I'm wary: is he putting the past behind us, or is he seeing if he's trying to use me again. Perhaps some Calming Brits to assure me that whatever happens, I can handle it?

Calming Brits (& Irishfolk)

Keep Calm And Let These Fine British and Irish Folks Soothe Your Nerves. None of our calming men or women actually utter the phrases that we accompany with their image. We just wish they did. Yes, we are aware that Irish people are not in fact British, we are...

Hello! I really like your blog and the calming brits, they are really helpful! Right now I am having some kind of nervous breakdown because I'm really afraid of what my future brings and especially nervous about a doctors appointment next week, so I humbly ask you for some calming brits to help me deal with all this.. I'm happy about everyone, I don't have specific requests.. Kind regards, Sabrina

Sorry this is so late - I hope your appointment went well. hugs

I posted earlier in the year about my cat. She'd had a series of seizures that pointed toward a brain tumor. After surgery in April and a course of radiation therapy in June, I'm ecstatic to report that her recent CT scan shows no recurrence of tumor! I sometimes look at her and burst into tears of gratitude that she's still here with me (she turned 14 in July). Thank you for your kindness. It means so much
