

The image shows the main building of the Humboldt University of Berlin, a grand neoclassical structure with a curved facade, multiple stories of windows, and a decorative roofline with statues. The building is set against a blue sky with light clouds. In the foreground, there is a cobblestone plaza with a white grid pattern. To the left, a street sign is visible. The text 'The Humboldt University of Berlin' is overlaid in a blue, italicized font across the center of the image.

The Humboldt University of Berlin

- The Humboldt University of Berlin is Berlin's oldest university, founded in 1810 as the University of Berlin by the liberal Prussian educational reformer and linguist Wilhelm von Humboldt, whose university model has strongly influenced other European and Western universities.

- Today, Humboldt University is a state university with a large number of students -36.986 in 2014, among them more than 4,662 foreign students

- The University maintains partnerships with more than 170 academic institutions worldwide

the university library contains about 6.5 million volumes and 9000 held magazines and journals and is one of the biggest university libraries in Germany.

- In 2016 QS World University Rankings ranked Humboldt University 126th overall in the world. Its subject rankings were: 27th in Arts & Humanities and 14th in Philosophy.
The Times Higher Education World University Ranking 2016 listed Humboldt-University as the 49th best university in the world and 3rd best in Germany.

- HU Berlin Sport and Recreation offers students and staff a varied programmer of courses. In addition to traditional sports such as football, volleyball and basketball, you can also try trendy sports such as Zumba, climbing or kickboxing. The Sport and Recreation programmer also includes workshops, advanced training and competitive events.

Thank you for your attention

