

Motor Sich

By Alexey Vasilenko
13a group student

Motor Sich is one of the leading enterprises in the world manufacturing of engines for airplanes as well as industrial gas turbine installations.

The enterprise history began in 1907 and extends back over 100 years. Company manufactures aircraft engines and gas turbine power plants which considered to be among the best in the world market. Enterprise production operates on aircrafts and helicopters of various applications in more than 100 countries worldwide.

Vyacheslav A. Boguslayev

President of Motor Sich JSC, General Designer.

Date of Birth: October 28, 1938

In 1966 he graduated from Zaporozhye Machine-Building Institute, speciality 'Aviation engines', PhD (engineering), Professor, Academician of Academy of Engineering Sciences of Ukraine.

Through thirty-year-old work in Motor Sich, he was awarded with Title 'Hero of Ukraine'

and

'Prince Yaroslav the Wise' Order grade III.

The most famous aircraft of the company is AN-225 “Mriya” – the biggest plane in the world

However, Motor Sich isn't totally focused on aircrafts and details for them. The company also produces chainsaws, separators and other agricultural equipment

Thanks for your attention!