

My favourite actor

My favourite actor
is Brad Pitt.

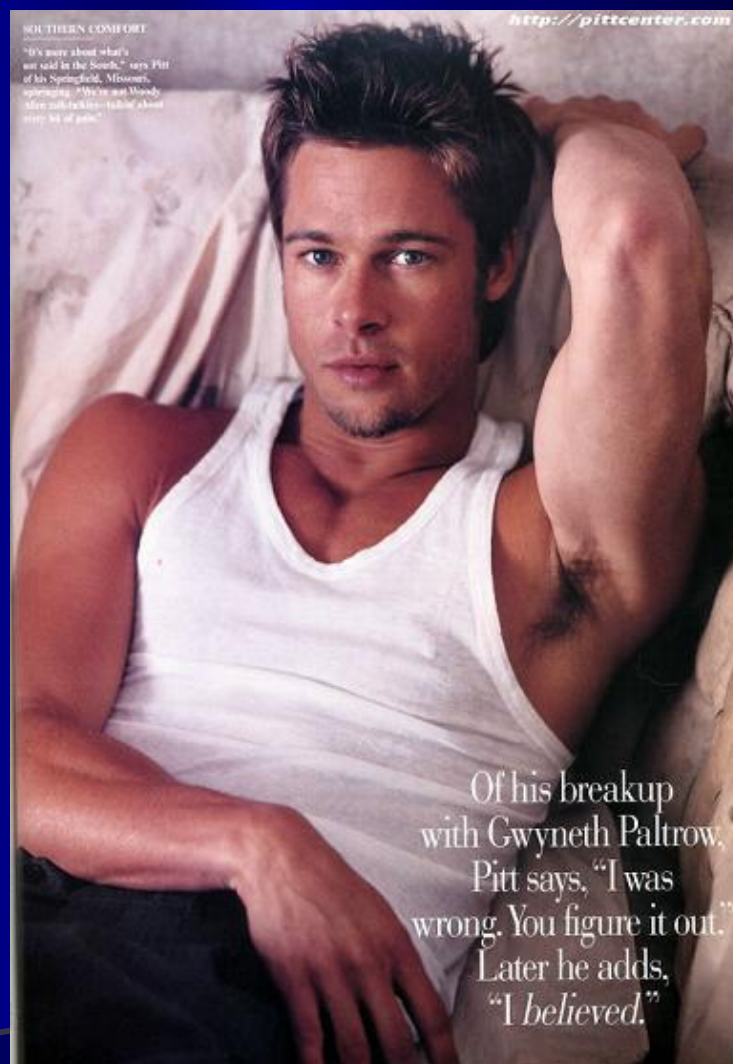

How did it all begin?

William Bradley Pitt was born on the 18th of December 1963 in Shony, USA, in a religious family.

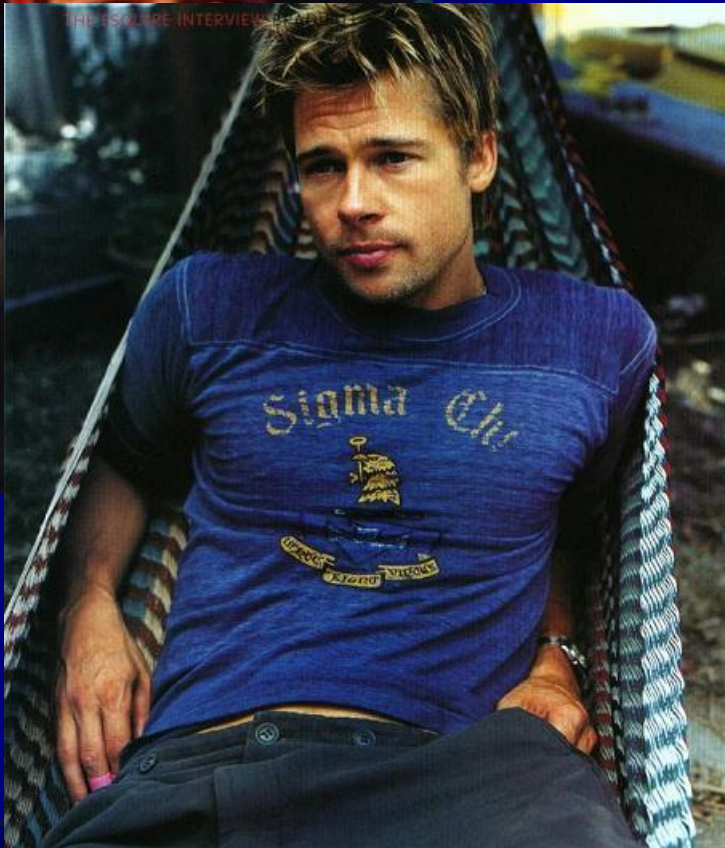

His Family

His father was a manager and his mother was a teacher at a local school.

What did he want to be?

After finishing school Bradley entered the Missouri university to become a journalist. But gave it up and went to Hollywood to start a career of an actor.

Bradley was a driver? Oh, no!

He didn't succeed at first.
He had to work as a driver
and even at the restaurant!
But Brad (now he was called so) attended the actor's courses.
Then he took part in the serial "Dallas".
It was the beginning.
