

Jeffrey
Skoll

- Born January 16, 1965.
- He was born to a Jewish family in Montreal, Quebec.
- He graduated with a BAsC with honors in 1987 from The University of Toronto's electrical engineering program.
- He graduated from Stanford Business School's Masters of Business Administration.
- Occupation: engineer, internet entrepreneur and film producer.
- With an estimated net worth of $ US 3.8 billion (as of September 2013).
- Was ranked by Forbes as the 7th wealthiest Canadian and 347th in the world.

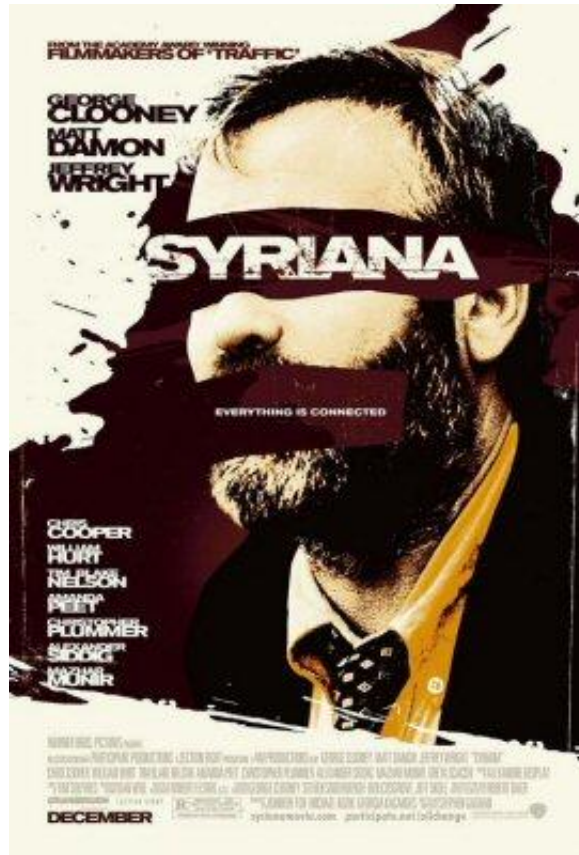

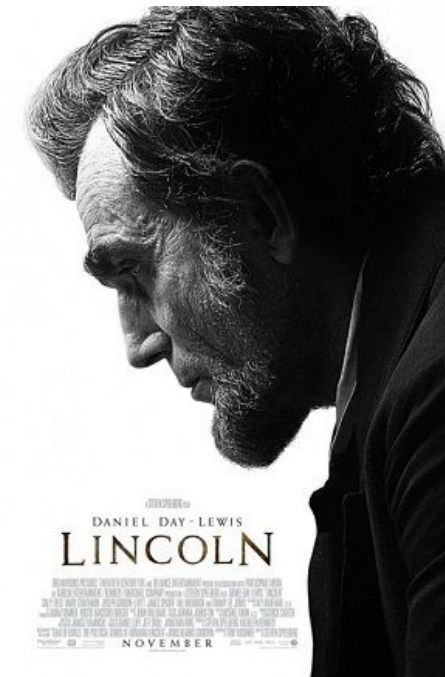

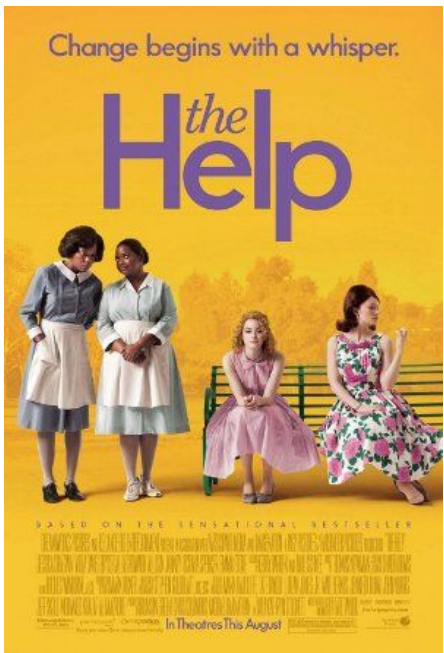

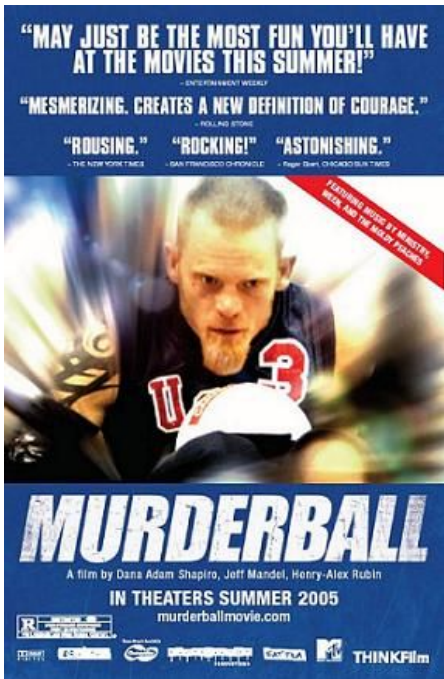

Pierre Omidyar hired to Skoll as the Company's first president and first full-time employee.

Skoll wrote the business plan that eBay followed from its emergence as a start-up to a great success.

Films and documentaries that promote social values while still being commercially viable

He has given the eponymous Skoll Foundation approximately $1 billion of eBay stock since its formation in 1999. The Foundation supports "social entrepreneurship". Skoll chairs the Foundation and today makes grants in excess of $80 million per year. The Skoll Foundation's assets rank it as the largest foundation for social entrepreneurship in the world.