

Diplomatic protocol between states

-
- Word " protocol" results from Greek protokollon (protos - first иkolla - to glue),
 - that meant the rules of processing of documents,
 - then rules of conduct of archives in Middle ages.
 - In course of time this word began to be used to the rules of conduct of diplomatic businesses.

Each Ministry of Foreign Affairs
writes its own
diplomatic protocol

The diplomatic protocol is a set of rules, norms, traditions, developed for business communication.

Diplomatic Protocol... 1

Personal diplomacy

- attitude
- manners
- self-presentation
- dressing code
- speaking culture
- social etiquette
- faux pas / fəʊ pa: /

The main types of protocol activities:

- negotiations;
- visits;
- the reception of delegations;
- signing ceremony;
- meetings.

Important Elements of the Diplomatic Protocol

- Ceremony
- Etiquette
- Titles
- Correspondence
- Savoir-vivre

Elements of etiquette

- Treat other people the way you would like to be treated
- Respect other people's privacy and do not comment or impose on others your tastes and liking
- Respect people based on seniority Be tolerant and discrete to other individual
- Be punctual.

INTIMATE SPACE
(0.5m)

PERSONAL SPACE
(1,2m)

SOCIAL SPACE
(3,0m)

VARIOUS FORMS OF HANDSHAKES

PERFECT HANDSHAKE

GLOVE HANDSHAKE

DEAD-FISH HANDSHAKE

PUMPER HANDSHAKE

FRAGRANT HANDSHAKE

SANITARY HANDSHAKE

BONE-CRUSHER HANDSHAKE