Almost all people are fond of travelling. It is very interesting to see new places, another towns and countries. People may travel either for pleasure or on business. There are various methods of travelling.

Travelling by plane

For me there is nothing like travel by air; it is more comfortable, more convenient and, of course, far quicker than any other method. There is none of the dust and dirt of a railway or car journey, none of the trouble of changing from train to steamer and then to another train.

Travelling by train

With a train you have speed, comfort and pleasure combined. From the comfortable seat of a railway carriage you have a splendid view of the whole country-side. If you are hungry, you can have a meal in the dining-car; and if a journey is a long one you can have a wonderful bed in a sleeper.

Travelling by ship

Travelling by ship is also very popular now. It is very pleasant to feel the deck of the ship under the feet, to see the rise and fall of the waves, to feel the fresh sea wind blowing in the face and hear the cry of the seagulls.

Travelling by car

Many people like to traveling by car. It is interesting too, because you can see many filings in a short time, you can stop when and where you like, you do not have to buy tickets or carry your suitcases.

Hiking and Hitch-hiking

A very popular method of travelling is hiking. It is travelling on foot. Walking tours are very interesting. Hitch-hiking is a very popular method of travelling among young people. But it is not so popular in our country as abroad.

Dear Jane

I am going to tell you about my last journey. I was ready to travel to Paris when one day I was knocked down by a car and broke my arm. But I decided to go anyway.

My Dad promised to give a ride to the station, which was far from our house.

To make things worse our car began to jerk as we had run out of petrol.

We finally got to the station at three minutes to seven. I kissed my father goodbye and jumped on the train. But as soon as I reach the next station I realized that I had got to the wrong train.

Hope your holidays were better than mine.

Yesterday I decided

to have a look round the shops and I bought some souvenirs. Today I've been to a couple of very interesting art galleries.

On my way back to the hotel I discovered a really fascinating market. I'm afraid I've spent too much money.

Tomorrow I am going to see London from London Eye. I was told the view from it is unforgettable.

Finally, I should say that London is fantastic. I've taken a lot of photos. You'll see them when I get back home.

See you later.

We planned to set

off very early to catch the 7 a. m. train. In the morning the car couldn't start. When we finally left it was 6.30. My dad is a very slow driver and I asked him to speed up. When we were doing 120 km/h the police stopped us. We had to pay a rather heavy fine.

Dear Nick

F

I've been in London for almost a week now and I'm having a great time. I spend the first few days going sightseeing - Houses of Parliament, the Tower, Buckingham Palace and all the usual attractions.
