

MOVIES AND TV-SHOWS

What famous movies/cartoons are these quotes from?

'I'll be back!'

'Hakuna matata'

'Elementary, my dear Watson'

'-Where to, Miss? - To the stars.'

'Yippee ki yay, motherfucker'

'May the force be with you'

'Run, forest, run!'

'You know nothing, Jon Snow'

What's your favorite movie genre and why?
Are there any genres that you don't like?

Do you have a favorite movie that you have seen more than once?

What is the worst movie you have ever seen?

Why did you dislike it?

Do you have a favorite actor/actress (movie director)? Can you tell a few facts about him/her?

Is it easy to tell the difference between American and European movies? What are the differences?

Do you cry when you watch sad movies?
What was the last movie that made you cry?

Which is more important, acting or special effects?

Interesting Movie Facts

India's movie industry, Bollywood, is the largest in the world producing over eight hundred movies a year. Hollywood only produces half of this number in a year.

Actress Michelle Pfeiffer was the first choice to play Clarice Starling in the movie "Silence of the Lambs". She turned down the role because she found it too scary.

The Story of Mulan had been told in China for almost 1,500 years before Disney decided to make it into an animated movie.

The sketch that Jack drew of Rose wearing the famous necklace in the blockbuster movie "Titanic" was really drawn by director James Cameron. The hands that we see drawing the sketch are really Cameron's. Cameron was also responsible for all the other sketches that were in Jack's sketchbook.

In the 1960 movie "Psycho" by Alfred Hitchcock, chocolate syrup was used to show the blood in the shower scene.

King Kong was Adolf Hitler's favorite movie.

For the 1939 movie "Gone With the Wind" 1,400 actresses were interviewed to play the part of Scarlett O'Hara.

Do you often watch TV-shows? What are your favorite ones?

0-DAY
DATE
PRESENT BY

- Do you ever watch movies or TV-shows in English?
- Do you watch them with subtitles?
- What impact, if any, do you think subtitling movies has on language learning?

Idioms

To be in the limelight

Popcorn movie

Chick Flick

Get the show on the road

Are movies good for us?

What are the positive effects of them?

