

The competition for English language «Learn to win»

Tourist Tatarstan

Sitdikova Gulnara
Republic of Tatarstan
МБОУ «Кутлу-Букашская
СОШ»
Teacher:
Salakhiev Bafis Nakifovich

Kazan-the capital of Republic Tatarstan.
There are many interesting places
and showplace in Kazan.

Kazan Kremlin

The main and most visited attraction of Kazan is the Kazan Kremlin.

On the territory of the ancient fortress there are many attractions: ancient towers and cathedrals, the most famous mosque in Russia and Europe, historical and memorial buildings, museums and galleries, viewing platforms.

The Monument To Musa Jalil

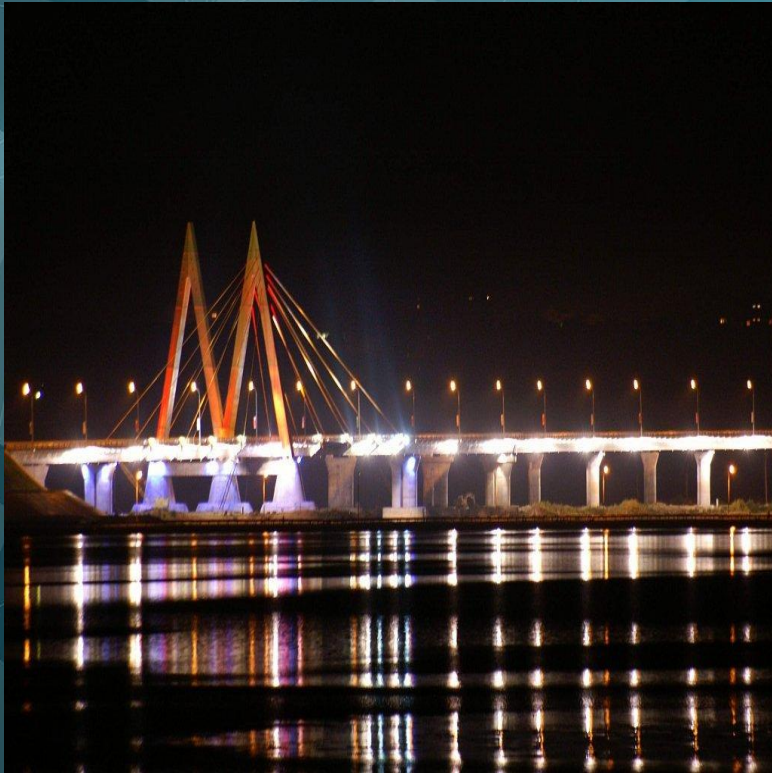

Monument dedicated to the revered national hero, poet Musa Jalil.

All tourists visiting Kazan come to this memorial place. Musa Jalil is a great poet, which Tatarstan and all Russia are proud of.

The monument was installed recently, in 1966 on the square on May 1.

Millennium bridge in Kazan

The modern bridge over the Kazanka river is more than one and a half kilometers long. The maximum height of the structure above water is 64 meters. Each side has three lanes and one footpath. The bridge was built by the Millennium of Kazan in 2005.

Millennium bridge is a modern attraction of the city, especially it is beautiful at night sightseeing tours of Kazan, as it has a spectacular lighting.

Bauman street

The main walking alley the city, where all the tourist routes lead. It turned into a pedestrian street in 1986. The alley starts at the Kazan Kremlin and stretches through the city center for 4 km.

On Bauman street there are many historical buildings, monuments, museums, theater, countless cafes and souvenir shops.

Many interesting places and historical monuments of Tatarstan are located in Elabuga.

The house-Museum of Ivan Shishkin.

House-Museum of Ivan Shishkin-the only one in Russia, it is located in a mansion built in 1836 in 1850.the house was badly damaged by fire, but it was restored and significantly expanded — so it took a modern look. Near the house there is a monument to Ivan Shishkin, established here in 1991, and a little further-a natural attraction of Elabuga, recreation Area Shishkin ponds.

Regional complex of the Elabuga

Elabuga local history complex was opened in August 2007 in honor of the 1000th anniversary of the city. Today it occupies a building in the historic centre of the city — a monument of architecture of the 19th century, the former house of the merchant of Nikolaev.

Kazanskaya street

One of the Central streets, passes through the old town, where concentrated mainly low-rise houses, many old manors and monuments. Although the street is a roadway, but it is the main route for hiking.

