

North Kazakhstan region. Petropavlovsk.

Flag

Emblem

Administrative division

North Kazakhstan region is one of 14 regions within Kazakhstan, the population of the region is about 597 thousand inhabitants. Area 97 993 km. The region is divided into 13 districts, the regional center is the city of Petropavlovsk.

The number of cities - 5. The number of settlements - 11.
The number of rural districts - 204.

Areas:

Aiyrtau district, Akzhar district, District Magzhana Zhumabayeva, Esil district, Zhambyl district, Kyzylzhar district, Mamlyut district, District Shal akina, Akkayyn district, Tayinshinsky district, Timiryazevsky district, Ualihanovsky district, District them Gabita Musrepova

Akim of the region:

Aksakalov Kumar Irgibaevich

Land relief

The North Kazakhstan region (North Kazakhstan) is located in the north of Kazakhstan, and in physico-geographical relations it occupies the southern part of the West-Siberian plain and part of the Kazakh steppes. There are many lakeside slopes on the relief, interchangeable slopes, slopes and slopes.

West-Siberian plain

Climate and inland water

The weather is suddenly continental. The winter is frosty and chronic (more than 5 months), with little snow, dew which is dry in summer. The average January temperature is $-18,5^{\circ}\text{C}$, $-19,5^{\circ}\text{C}$, July $+18,8^{\circ}\text{C}$, $+19,5^{\circ}\text{C}$. North-Kazakhstan region has more than 1000 lakes, most notably in the north-west. Most of them dry up temporarily. Freshwater lakes dominate. The largest: Chagallatu, North and South Kalk, Tarankol, Munkker.

Economic

The northern economic region has a significant industrial potential associated with both the resources and the benefits of the economic and geographic location. It concentrates more than 90% of the proven reserves of iron ore and bauxite of Kazakhstan. About 35% of coal, more than 30% of zirconium, 25% of uranium, 15% of gold are mined here. The region is characterized by mining, non-ferrous metallurgy, chemical production, food industry, it has engineering enterprises, large farms grow grain crops.

attractions and monuments

The house of the merchant Yuzefovich, located in the city of Petropavlovsk along the street of the 314th Infantry Division, is the most remarkable and inimitable creation of the wooden folk architecture of the pre-revolutionary Petropavlovsk. The

attractions and monuments

The museum complex "Residence Abylay Khan", located in the central part of Petropavlovsk, is one of the cultural attractions of the city. The museum is dedicated to the outstanding statesman in the history of the Kazakh statehood - Abylay Khan

attractions and monuments

One of the cultural attractions of the city of Petropavlovsk is the North Kazakhstan Regional Philharmonic. The philharmonic society was founded at the end of 1965 on the basis of the concert and pop bureau of the city's Palace of Culture. The regional philharmonic society is an independent creative organization. The philharmonic society arranges concert programs with the participation of its own and third-party teams.

attractions and monuments

The Regional Museum of Fine Arts in the city of Petropavlovsk was opened in 1989. The museum is located in a building that in 1982 received the status of a historical and cultural monument of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The museum was opened on the basis of the department of visual arts of the local museum of local history and local lore.

attractions and monuments

The Kazakh Music and Drama Theater named after Sabit Mukanov in Petropavlovsk was founded in 2000. Orazaly Akzharkyn-Sarsenbek became the first director and founder of the theater. For a short time, well-known theatrical figures were invited to the theater, for example, Honored Art Workers of the Republic of Kazakhstan - B. Preobrazhensky, M. Ospanov, J. Hadzhiev and others.

attractions and monuments

The Karasai Memorial and Agyntai Batyr Memorial is located in the central part of the Kazakh city of Petropavlovsk, on the square opposite the Russian Drama Theater. Not far from the memorial are also the Petropavlovsk Telecentre, the museum complex "Abylay Khan Residence" and the Humanitarian-Technical College.

Thank you for attention!

