

International tourists in USA
Florida

The state of Florida is located on the peninsula of the same name, and it is the most southeastern US state. Another name for Florida is "Sunny State". This is the most popular winter destination, the edge of oranges, beaches and theme parks with a worldwide reputation - such as Disney World and Universal Studios.

The west coast of Florida, washed by the Gulf of Mexico, stretches for 1000 km. The eastern coast is 660 km long and is washed by the Atlantic Ocean. Each coast has its own specifics: east - a paradise for fans of surfing, the western is perfect for families, including small children.

Florida is divided into four regions. The first one is the Florida "frying pan handle", "panhandl", where the state capital and Pensacola are located, the famous military pilots base. In North Florida, cosmopolitan and vibrant Jacksonville dominates; The college town of Gainesville and the historic St. Augustine are also of interest here. Central Florida is the world capital of theme parks, where, in addition to the above, the Kennedy Space Center, the Cyprus Gardens, the international Speedway of Daytona and SeaWorld. Well, finally, South Florida - this is Miami, the Everglades marshes and the beautiful Florida Keys.

The most popular beach resort of the state, of course, is Miami. In addition, many tourists, especially families with children, come to Florida to visit Orlando with Disney World parks, Sea World, Wet and Wild, Universal Studios, Islands of Adventure, Discovery Cove and Busch Gardens.

Also of interest are the Space Exposition in the Center. Kennedy, Gatorland's land of alligators in Orlando, the Salvador Dalí Museum in the center of St. Petersburg (the largest collection of Dali's works outside Europe), the Sunshine Skyway Bridge, the longest cable-stayed bridge in the world, the Indian reservations of Seminole and Miccosukee.

On the island of Key Largo, 90 minutes from Miami in the Florida Keys archipelago, lies the first underwater park in the USA - John Pennekamp Coral Reef State Park. In December 2010 he celebrates his 50th anniversary. Here you can see a 3-meter bronze sculpture of Christ weighing 1.8 tons, at a depth of 6 meters under the water (a copy of the statue of the same name, which is located in the Mediterranean Sea near the Italian Genoa).

Over time, the city of Miami has turned into almost a continuous chain of resort towns stretching along the beautiful sandy beaches of the eastern coast of Florida and has become a kind of suburban resort, where residents of New York and other cities come even for the weekend.
