Searching for Solutions to Induced Seismicity

A sharp rise in seismic events in some areas of the United States where oil and gas production is booming is leading regulators and the industry to examine whether the two are related.

Who We Are

SPE is the largest individual member organization serving managers, engineers, scientists and other professionals worldwide in the upstream segment of the oil and gas industry.

The screenshot shows the SPE website interface. At the top right is the SPE International logo and the name of the West-Kazakhstan Agrarian-Technical University. Below the logo is a navigation bar with the following items: Membership, Events, Publications, Training, and Resources. The 'Membership' item is circled in red, and a red arrow points down to a 'Join SPE' link, also circled in red. Below the navigation bar, the 'Join SPE' link leads to a page with several options: 'Renew Your Membership', 'Membership Costs', and 'Update Your Profile'. To the right of these options are three columns of links: 'SERVICES' (Member Benefits, Membership Directory, New Member Resources, SPE Connect), 'PROFESSIONALS' (Awards, Sections), and 'SPE PROGRAMS' (Distinguished Lecturer, Volunteer, eMentoring, SPE Foundation). Below these columns is a link for 'STUDENTS' (Scholarships, Paper Contests, Student Chapters, All in Students »). At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled 'All Membership »'. Below this, there are several news items: 'SPE Announces 2014 Section Excellence Award Winners', 'New SPE Technical Report Available for Comment', and 'All SPE news'. A date '27-29 OCT 2014' is visible at the bottom left. A large article titled 'Searching for Solutions to Induced Seismicity' is featured in the center, with a sub-headline 'A sharp rise in seismic events in some areas of the United States where oil and gas production is booming is leading regulators and the industry to examine whether the two are related.' A date '9 SEP 2014' is visible at the bottom center. A blue box on the right contains the text 'worldwide in the upstream segment of the oil and gas industry.' and a link 'More about SPE'. At the bottom right, the word 'Energy' is visible.

You must complete the entire process, including payment, for your membership to be processed. The SPE membership year is January through December. Members joining after 1 September pay for next year's dues and receive the remaining months of the current year at no additional cost. Please note that 5% of your dues is allocated to your subscription to the Journal of Petroleum Technology and is not deductible or refundable. SPE membership dues and fees are nonrefundable and nontransferable.
