

Ancient Egypt

Who is the leader of our school?

Who is the leader of our country?

What rights do we have as American citizens?

- Right to go to school
- Right to vote for our President instead of it being chosen for us
- Right to pick whatever job we want to do

Pharaoh

Vizier, senior officials, high priests and nobles

Scribes

Skilled artisans and craftspeople

Peasant farmers and workers

Servants and slaves

The Egyptian People

- People at the top (government and royal family) lived in palaces and ate fine food
- People in the middle (craft workers and scribes) were well respected and often rich
- Most Egyptians were at the bottom and were poor and had to work very hard

Rights of Ancient Egyptians

- Most Egyptians didn't have many rights!
- Most people did not go to school.
- Egyptians served the wants of the pharaoh and did whatever he or she wanted them to do!

How could you become a pharaoh?

- Usually, it runs in the family
- The son of the current pharaoh would become pharaoh once his father died
- Women were pharaohs too!
- Pharaohs were thought of as gods

Painting of Cleopatra

King Tut

- Became pharaoh when he was only 9 years old!
- Died when he was 18 years old
- His tomb was discovered in 1922 along with toys from his childhood, perfumes, and jewelry
- The discovery of his tomb is so important because it was one of the only tombs that hasn't been touched by robbers –everything was how it was when he was buried (for the most part)!

