

Phrasal Verbs - HOBBIES

to start a hobby

to participate

to join

to do exercises

to leave home

to try to persuade

to relax

to stop giving attention to

to relax

to stay at home

приклеить

take

join

sign

work

go

приклеить

work

chill

wind

switch

stay

Mike works out in the gym two or three times a week.

I'm not very good at football – I only took it up recently.

She goes out partying with her friends every weekend.

We only need one more player for this game - can you persuade your friend to join in?

John signed up for the soccer team this year.

I'm working on my father to persuade him to take me to the party.

Let's stay in tonight and watch a movie.

Lie down, chill out, make yourself at home.

If he gets bored, he just switches off and looks out the window.

The stressfulness of the job makes it hard to wind down on the weekends.

Phrasal Verbs - HOBBIES

Phrasal Verbs - HOBBIES

I want
to take up

I want
to take
up

I'm not very good at football – I only started it recently.

John joined the soccer team this ~~year~~ We only need one more player for this game - can you persuade your friend to participate?

Mike attends the gym two or three times a week.

She leaves for partying with her friends every weekend.

I'm trying to persuade my father to persuade him to take me to the party.

Let's stay in tonight and watch a movie.

Lie down, chill out, make yourself at home.

If he gets bored, he just switches off and looks out the window.

The stressfulness of the job makes it hard to wind down on the weekends.

Phrasal Verbs – HOBBIES - keys

to start a hobby
to participate
to join
to do exercises
to leave home

to try to persuade
to relax
to stop giving attention to
to relax
to stay at home

u

h

u

h

h

приклеить

tak

e

join

sig

n

wor

k

g

o

Copyright © 2020 by Smirnova

o

h

dow

n

in

приклеить

wor

k

chill

win

d

switc

n

stay