Reading

- 2 a) Read the first two exchanges in the dialogue. Where are Bill and Lucy? What are they talking about? What do you think they will do?

Bill: Good morning, Lucy.

Lucy: Good morning, Bill. Where are Tony and Steve?

Bill: They're sailing with their father. Will you have breakfast with me?

Lucy: Yes, sure! Now, what are your plans for today?

Bill: Well, it's difficult. There's so much choice here! What about you?

Lucy: I think I'll try scuba diving with my dad.

Bill: That sounds good. I think I'll try jet skiing. Then, I'll probably go swimming with my parents this afternoon. Do you want to come?

Lucy: Actually, I'd rather not. I'm sure I'll be tired after scuba diving!

Bill: Don't worry! I'll swim and you can just sunbathe!

Lucy: Oh ... OK then.

Listen to the dialogue Ex. 2, p. 118 and answer the questions:

- Where are Bill and Lucy? (place)
- They are in ...
- What are they talking about?
- They are talking about ...
- What do they think they will do?
- Lucy will...and Bill will...

Make up a dialogue, using new words:

A: I think (sunbathing ...) is (tiring...).

B: Really? I find it dangerous...
