

The Russian history

*The estate museum of Alexandr
Suvorov Konchanskø - Suvorovskøe village
Novgorod region*

The presentation was made by Irina Ivanova, a pupil of the 3rd form, school № 413, Petrodvorcoviy district, St. Petersburg.

There is Konchansko – Suvorovskoe village in 35 kilometres from the city Borovichi. There is the estate museum of Alexandr Suvorov. Lets go there.

So, here we are in this historical place. It is the only museum of Suvorov, relating about Suvorov's domestic life. Estate includes the park and reconstructed buildings. The museum was opened October 25, 1942.

The monument to Alexandr Suvorov
Sculptor - N. Rukavishnikov

In the building of former church there is an exposition relating about the Swiss campaign of Suvorov in 1799.

*The house of Alexander Suvorov – the museum and the inside furniture.
Among the exhibits there are real things from the Suvorov's estate, the furniture of the Suvorov epoch and the copies of the general Suvorov's belongings .*

Continuing excursion in the park

The kitchen outbuilding

The coach house

Very beautiful places

The pond in the park and the building of the former primary school

That is how potato came in Russia

There is a Suvorov summer cottage on the hill Dubiha, and also there are 4 oaks, planted by general Suvorov in 1798.

St. Aleksandr Nevskiy church in the park

The village Konchansko - Suvorovskoe culture centre

The view on the Konchansko – Suvorovskoe village from the hill Dubiha

Used materials from the site :
<http://www.museum.ru/M669> and creative mission in Konchanskø - Suvorovskøe in the summer 2017.

Thank you for you attention!