Grammar present simple + and -

3.1 Look at four things people say about Britain and the British. Do you think are true or not true? Then read the text and check your answers

Four foreigners who live in Britain talk about the things people say about the British.....

British people drink tea at 5.00. Kati from Hungary

It's true that British people drink a lot of tea ( and coffee) but they don't drink tea at a special time, I work for a British company here and my boss drinks tea all the time

It rains a lot. Nicalai from Russia

It rains a lot, but doesn't rain every day. Be careful because the weather changes quickly. I always take an umbrella when I go out

British people like animals. Norma from Mexico

I have a lot of friends here and they all have a dog or a cat. One family that I know has two dogs and five cats. British people love animals!

The food in Britain isn't very good. Hasan from Turkey

The restaurants are quite expensive but they are great, and the food is good in a lot of pubs, too. I share a flat with a Scottish boy, and he cooks every night. He watches all the cooking programmes on TV and makes great curries!

3.2 Answer the questions with a partner

1. Look at the highlighted verbs . Why do you some verbs ends in -s
2. Write the he / she / it form of these verbs

Reading and Speaking

5.1 Look at the photos. In which one can you see.....?

a cash machine ( ATM in American English)

a cup of coffee

a zebra crossing

a driver

a chemist

a cyclist

a waiter

a pedestrian

Starbucks, ☀️ summer,
and other things I ❤️ love about Britain

Mark Vanhoenacker, an American Journalist who lives in London, says the UK's not just OK. - it's paradise. These are some of his reasons.....

Walking

Britain isn't a good place for cyclists. But for pedestrian it is wonderful. When you walk on a zebra crossing, all the drivers stop.

Drivers

The British drivers are very polite when they drive. They don't hoot, and they are patient with other drivers. They always say thank you when you let them pass

Boots the Chemists

Chemists in the UK are wonderful, friendly shops and completely different from US pharmacies. Boots sells everything you want , not just medicine, and the shop assistants give you good advice

No ID Cards

Britain is one of the only places in the world where people don't have ID cards. In the US you need ID when you buy drink, go to a club, use a credit card, or take an intercity train

Summers

I love summers! A good summer day in Britain is dry and warm , but not very hot

Starbucks

Starbucks isn't British, of course, but I prefer the Starbucks in Britain. They are nice, friendly places where people read the newspaper and drink good coffee. And the waiters don't write your name on the cups- I feel stupid in America when the waiter call- Mark? , your tall cappuccino with extra chocolate

5.2 2.7 ))) Read and listen to the article. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Say why the F ones are false.

1. Britain is a good country for cyclists and pedestrians.
- 2.1 It's expensive to use ATMS in Britain.
3. British drivers are nice to other drivers.
4. Boots the Chemist only has medicine.
5. In Britain people don't have ID cards.
6. Summers in Britain are very hot.
7. In Starbucks in Britain waiters don't use your first name.

5.3 Underline these verbs in the text. What do they mean?

walk pay drive sell give need buy use prefer feel call

5.4 Look at each paragraph again . Say if it's the same or different in your country or city

Naples isn't a good place for cyclists or pedestrians, because people drive very fast

Useful words: Why? and because

Use because to answer the question Why?

Why isn't Naples a good place for cyclists?

Because people drive very fast.

B. Have a nice meal and make new friends

C. Yes we can

D. Shopping is so easy

Things I love about the US

Sarah Araf is British but she lives in Ohio, in the US. Here are some things she loves about living there.

1 _____

In the US, the customer is really important. When you walk into a store, the staff greet you with a smile and ask "How are you?". The customer is always right too. If you have a problem with something, you take it back and they solve the problem quickly. You don't need to complain. You don't even need to have the receipt

2. _____

I love real American coffee shops. Not chains like Costa and Starbucks, but those old-fashioned places where the waitresses come to your table and call you 'honey' . You pay a dollar for coffee, and you can drink as much as you like. You can stay as long as you like. You can sit there all day and read a book for the price of a cup of coffee

3. _____

Eating out here isn't expensive as in the UK, so we go out quite a lot. People are very friendly here too. When you go to a bar or a restaurant, you often have a conversation with the people at the next table. It's really nice

4. _____

Everyone is so optimistic here! They believe that everything is possible if you work hard. If you say ' We can't do that' they say, ' Why not? ' !
