

Demonstrative Pronouns

This, That,

These, Those

This vs These

- are used to point to something or someone that is near you.

This is

- is used to point to something or someone that is singular.

This is a flower.

These are

- is used to point to something or someone that is plural.

These are dogs.

That's vs Those are

- are used to point to something or someone that is far from you.

That's

- is used to point to something or someone that is singular.

That is a dog.

Those are

- is used to point to someone or something that is plural.
-

Those are flowers.

This

These

That

Those

Write this is, these are, that's, those are to complete the sentence.

a sandwich.

a banana.

sandwiches.

bananas.

Write this is, these are, that's, those are to complete the sentence.

books.

a pencil.

pencils.

a book.

my book.

my books.

my friend.

my friends.

Let

us

try

Write this is or these are.

~~This is~~ my pencil.

~~These are~~ my shoes.

~~This is~~ her house.

~~These are~~ her toys.

~~These are~~ our snacks.

6. This is his water.

7. This is Anna's bag.

8. These are Tom's chocolates.

9. These are my stickers.

10. This is our house.

Write that's or those are.

Those are the computers in the computer room.

That's the canteen.

That's music room.

Those are books from the library

That's the assembly hall.

6. ~~Those are~~ my books on the floor.

7. ~~That's~~ her friend.

8. ~~Those are~~ the pencils I borrowed.

9. ~~Those are~~ our cookies.

10. ~~That's~~ her bike.