

WASHINGTON D.C

WASHINGTON, D.C.

District of Columbia in 1790 to establish a new capital which they named under their first president.

Washington D.C has been The United States capital city since 1800 when the government moved from Philadelphia. Washington D.C is more than a city but less than a state. It's on the Potomac river and was built according to a plan by the

POTOMAC RIVER

The Potomac River runs along the eastern coast of the USA, and is about 462 kms long. It flows southeast from the Appalachians through the District of Columbia into Chesapeake Bay. It is the natural border between Virginia and the official residence and principal workplace of the president of the USA. It is located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. It was built between 1792 and 1800. It has been the residence of every US president since John Adams, the 2nd

THE WHITE HOUSE

THE CAPITOL

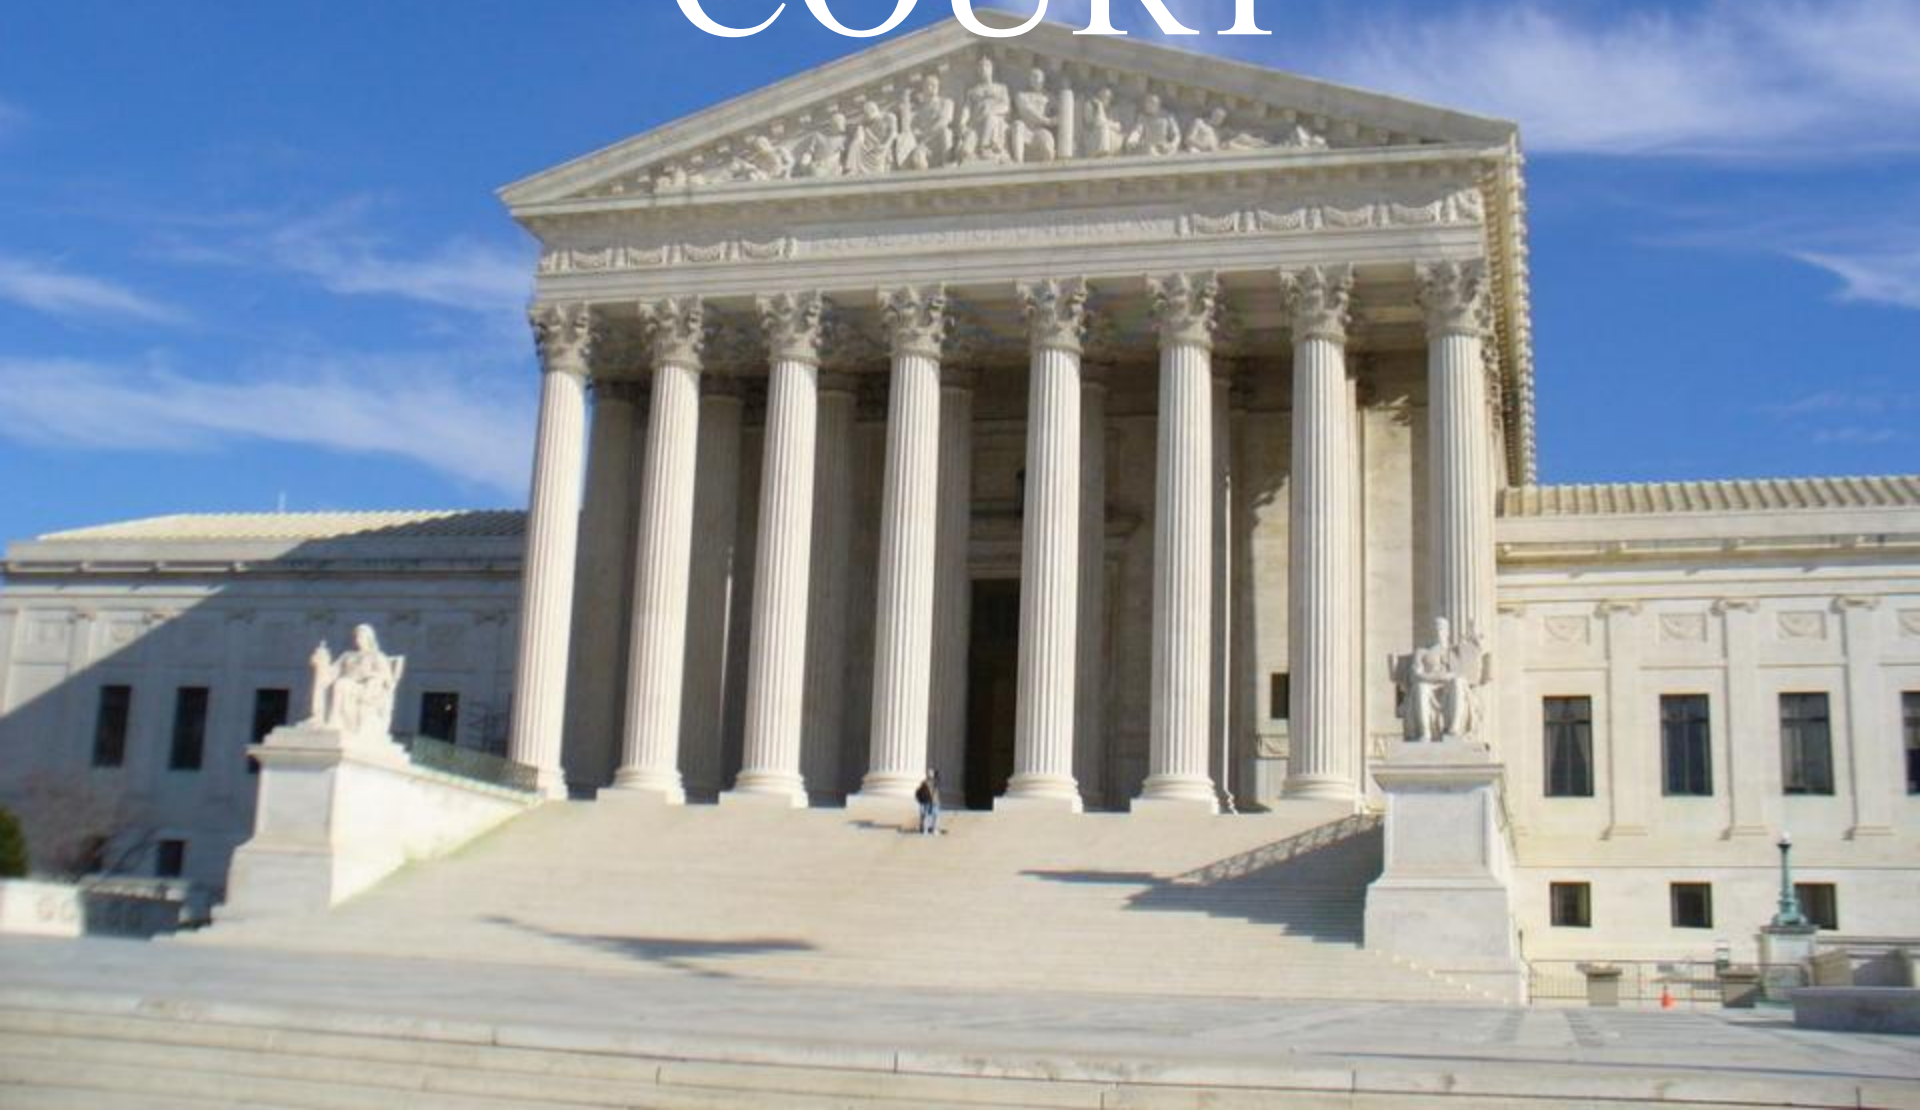

Capitol is the meeting place of the United States Congress, the legislature of the Federal government of the United States composed of the Senate and the house of representatives. It is a bicameral legislature.

Located in Washington, D.C., it sits atop Capitol Hill.

THE SUPREME COURT

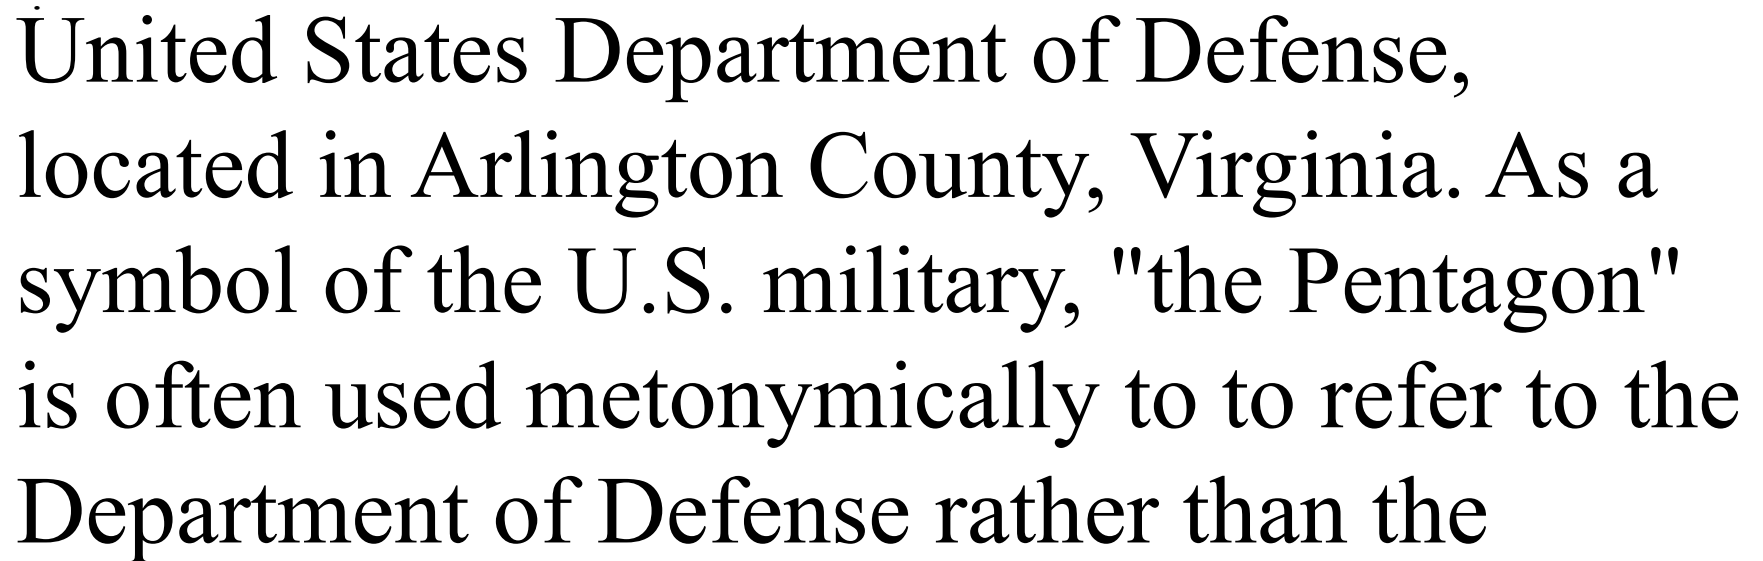

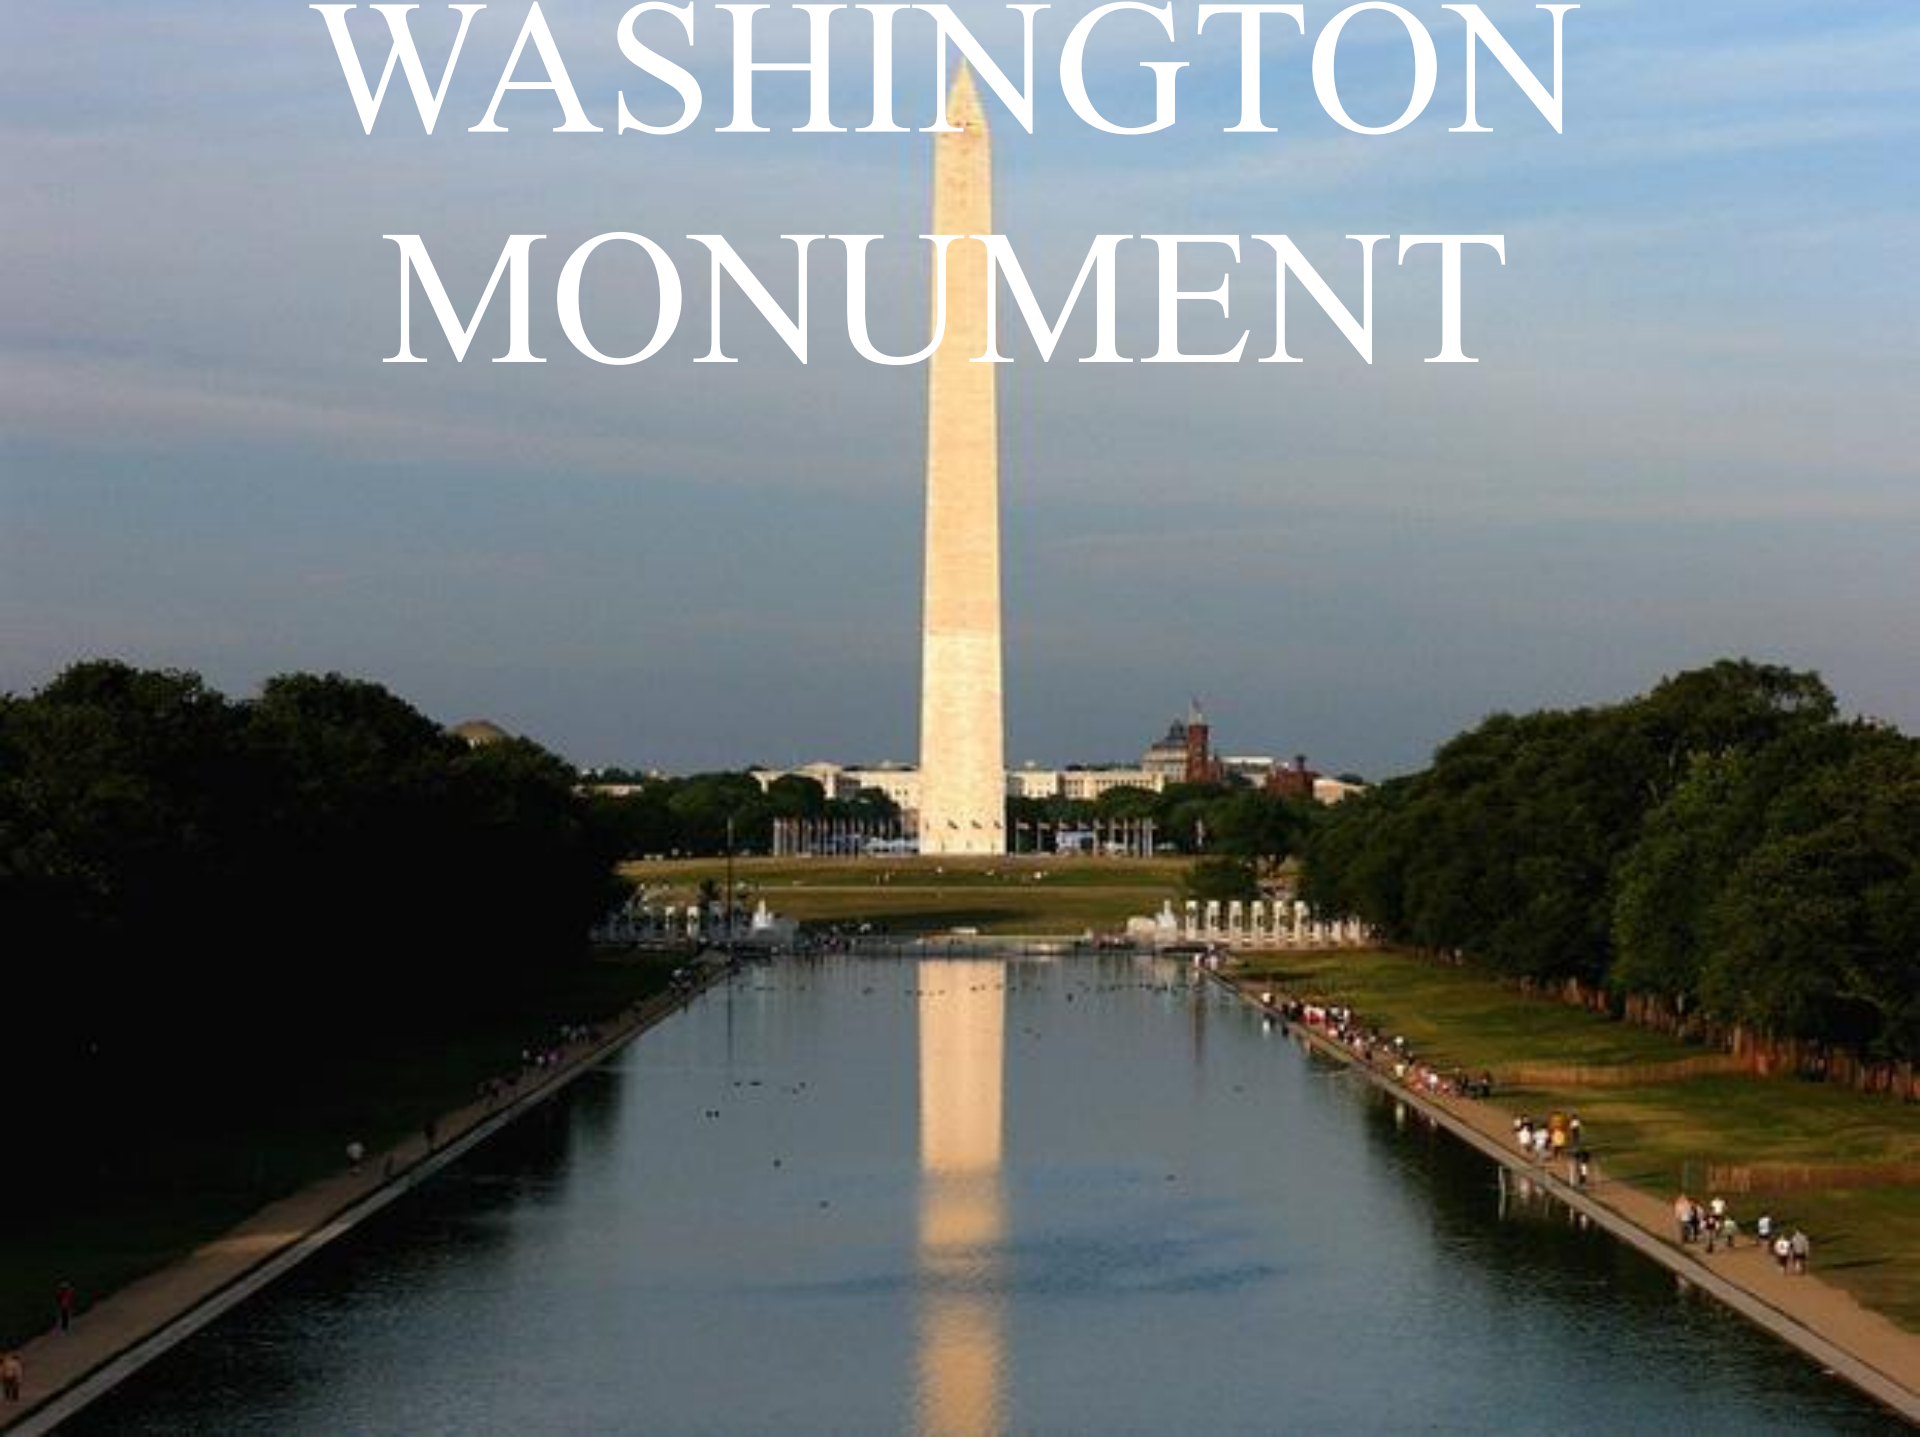

The Supreme Court of the United States is the highest judicial body in the United States, and leads the federal judiciary. It consists of the Chief Justice of the United States and eight Associate Justices, who are nominated by the President.

THE PENTAGON

WASHINGTON MONUMENT

near the west end of the National Mall in Washington, D.C., built to commemorate the first U.S. president, General George Washington. The monument, made of marble, granite, and sandstone, is both the world's tallest stone structure and the world's tallest obelisk (169.294 m high).

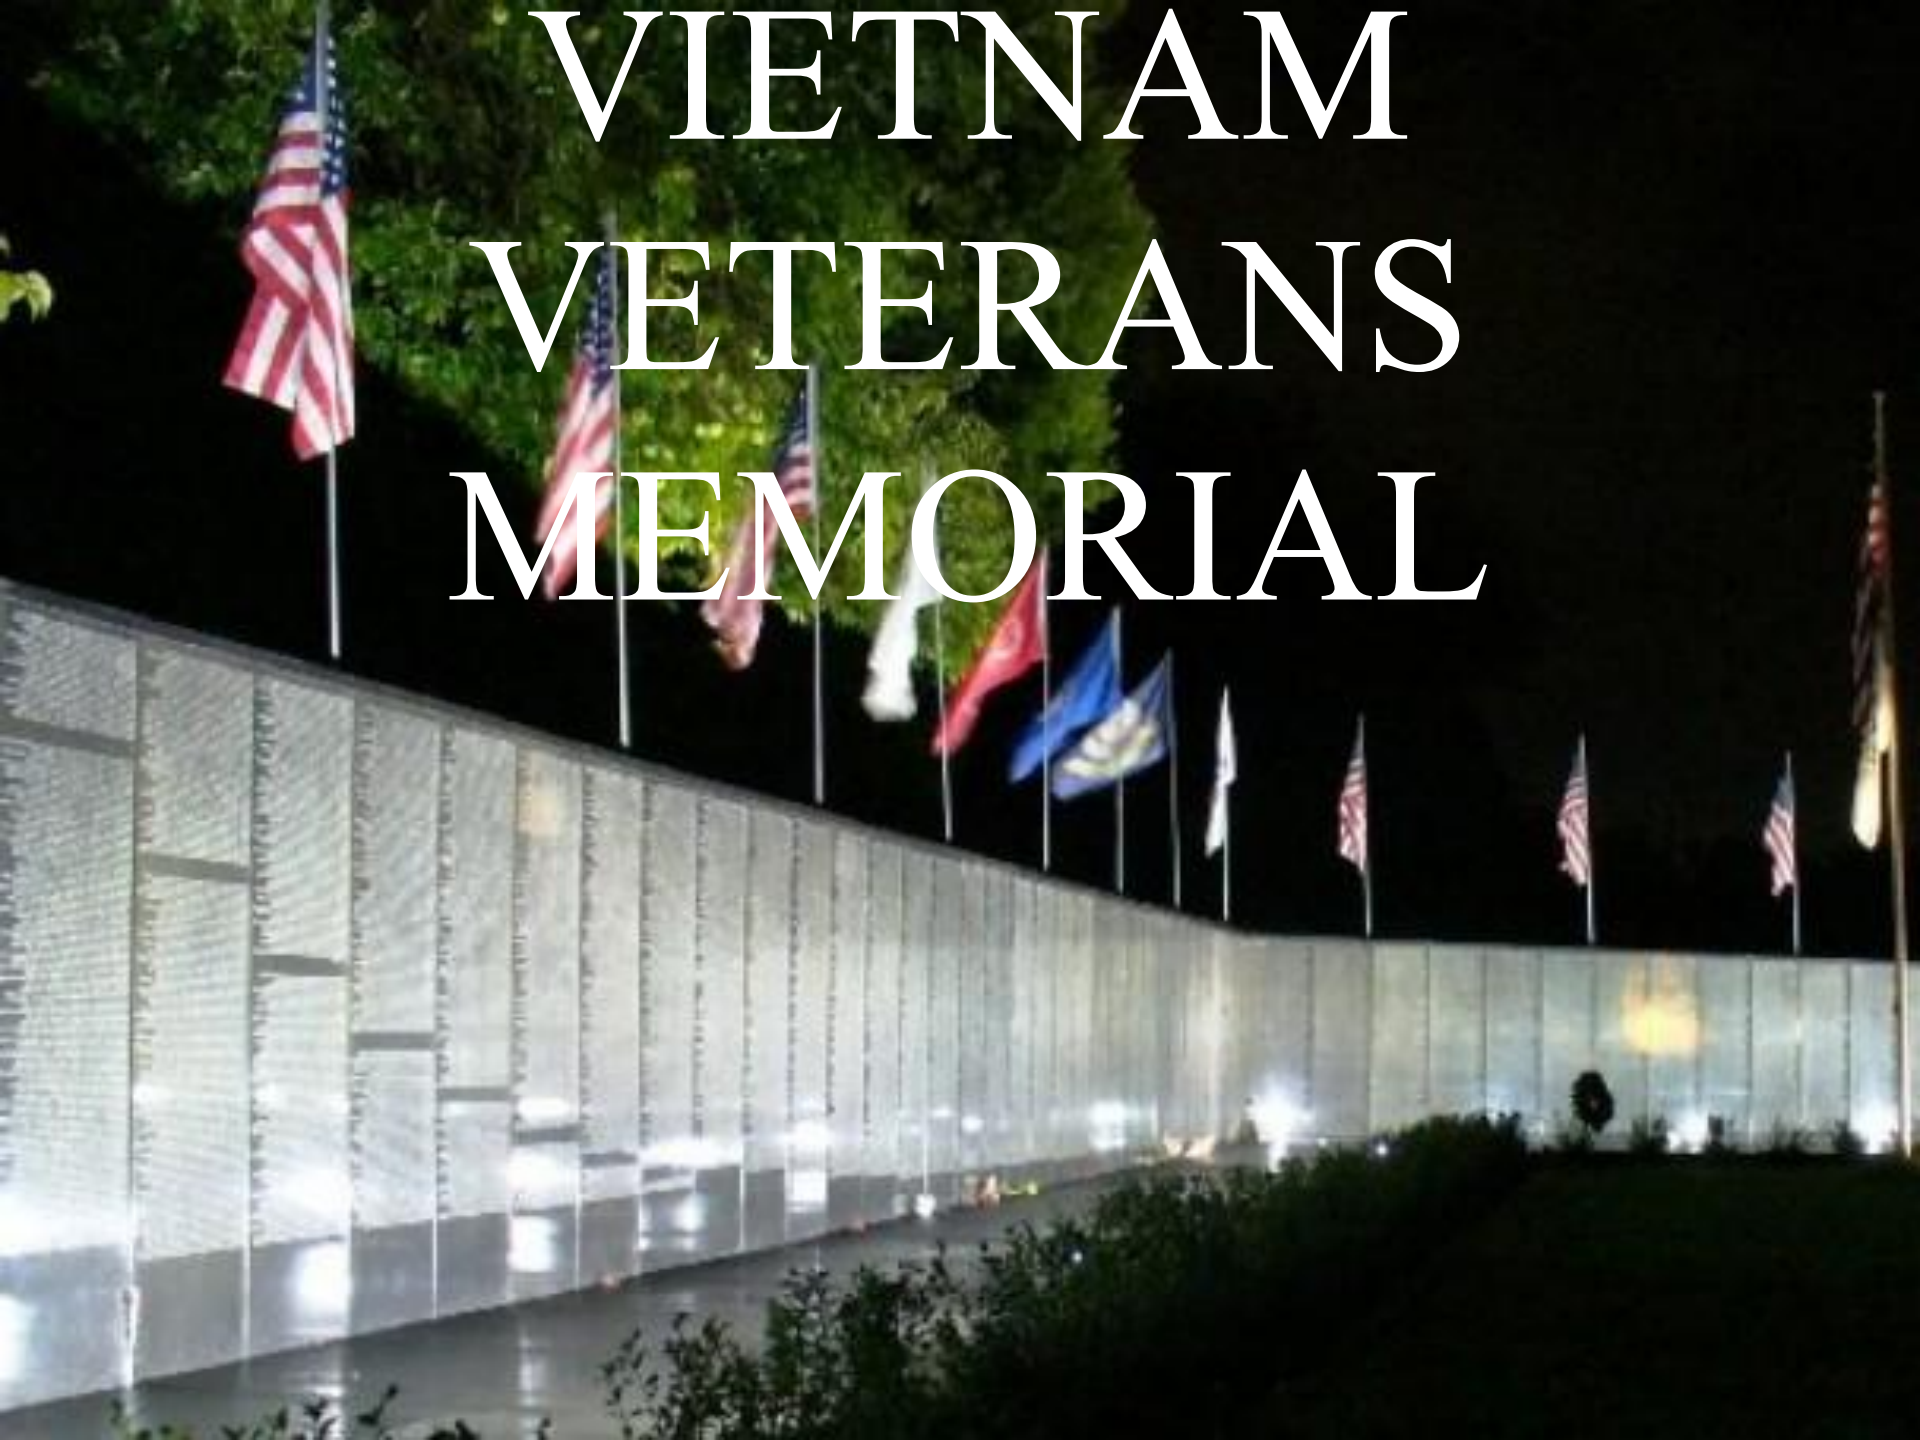

ORD'S THEATER

used for various stage performances beginning in the 1860s. It is also the site of the assassination of U.S. President Abraham Lincoln on April 14, 1865. After being shot, the fatally wounded president was carried across the street to the Petersen

VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL

The Vietnam Veterans Memorial is a national memorial in Washington, D.C. It honors U.S. service members of the U.S. armed forces who fought in the Vietnam War. The main part of the memorial was completed in 1982.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S MEMORIAL

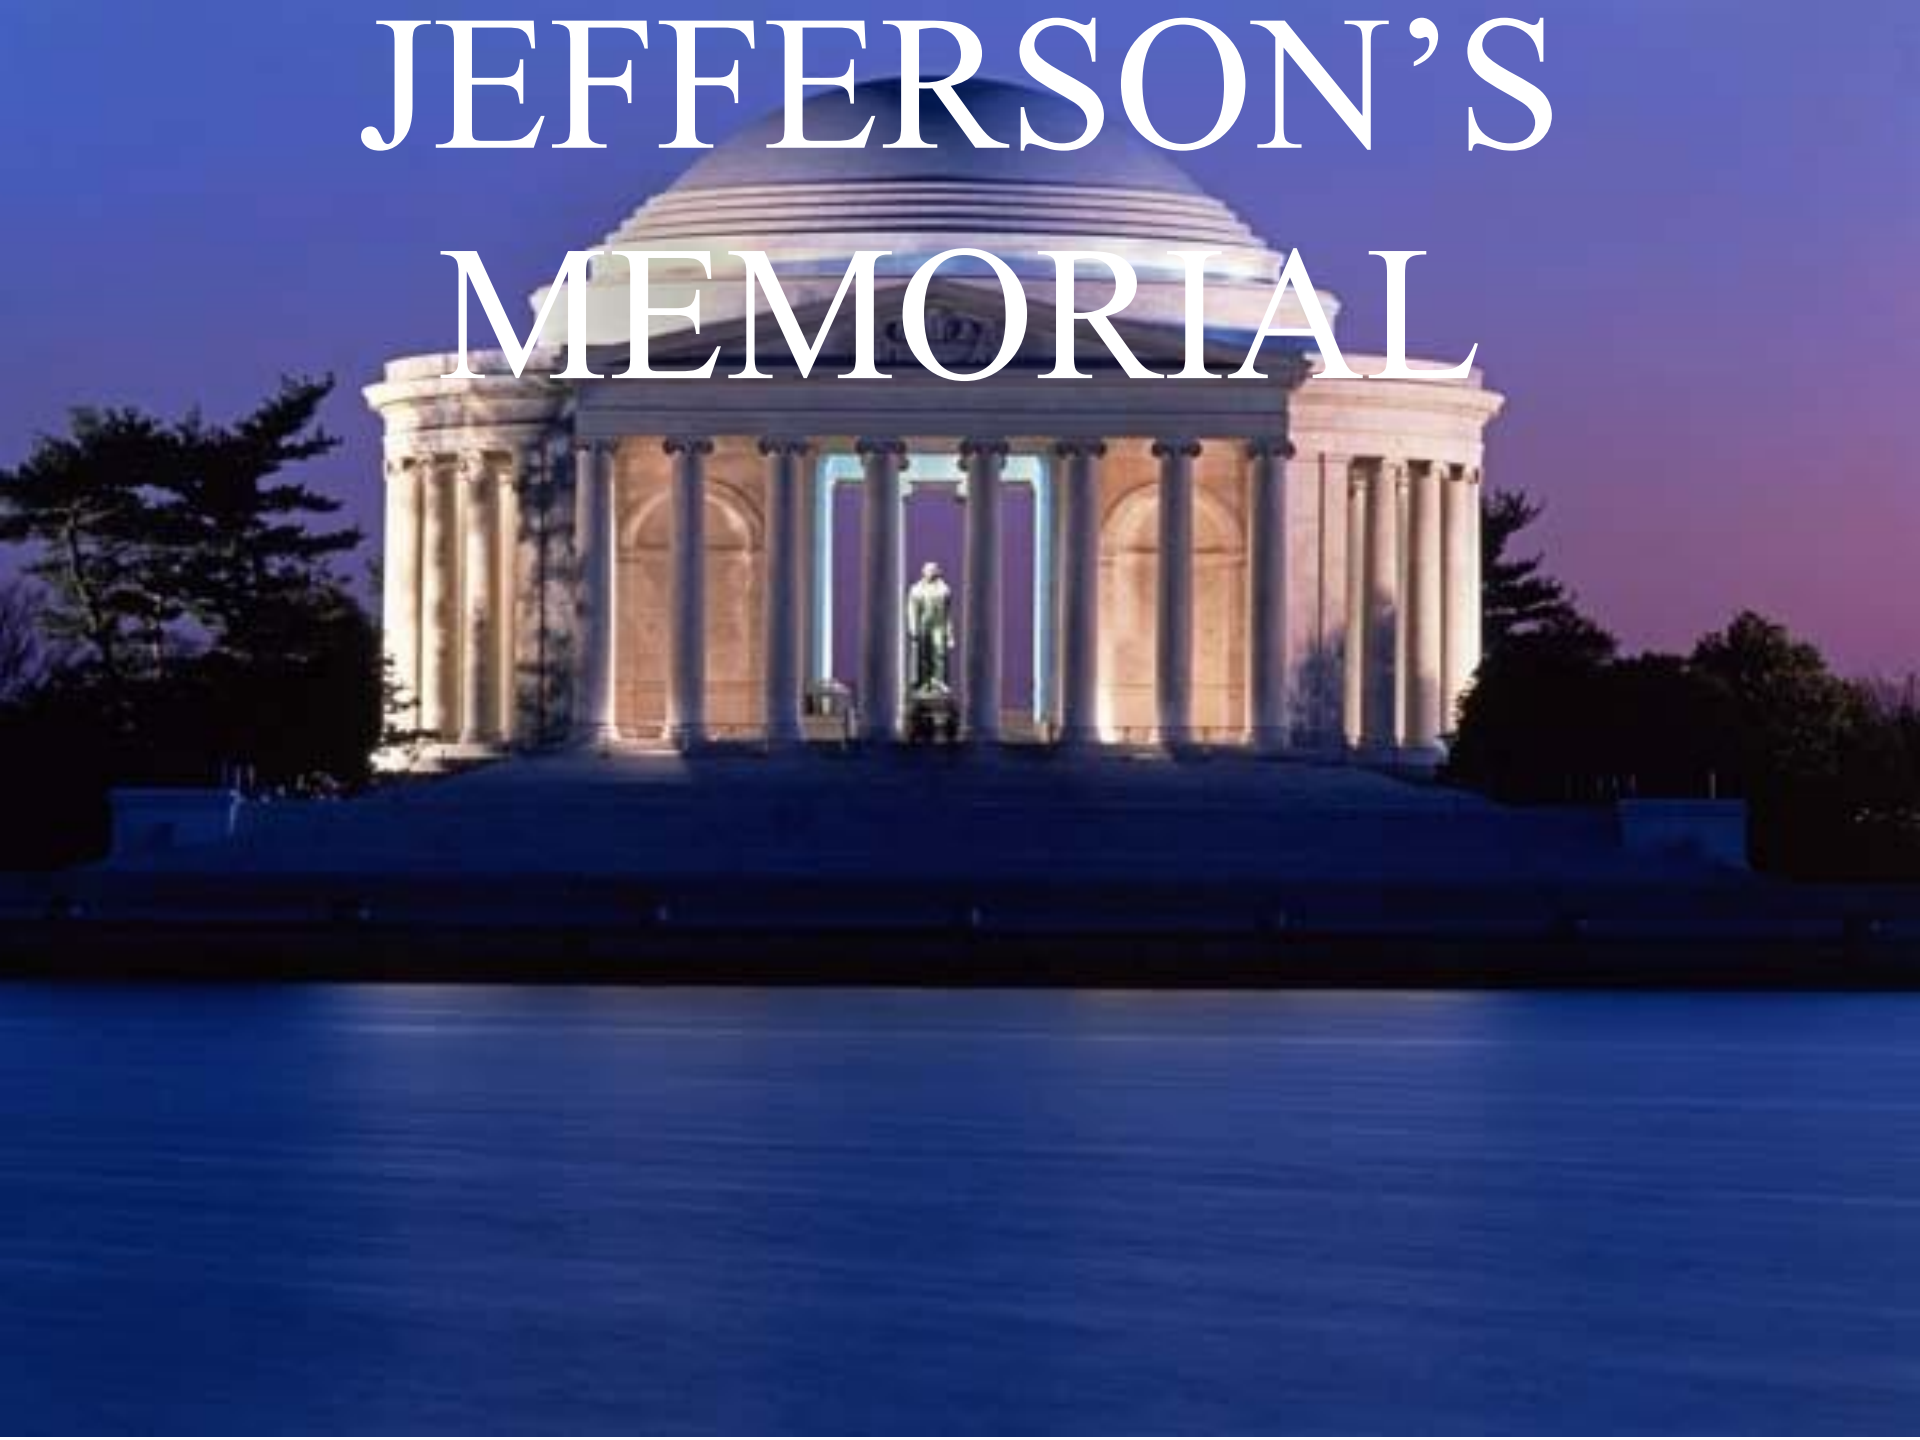

American memorial built to honor the 16th President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln. It is located on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. and was dedicated on May 30, 1922. The building is in the form of a Greek Doric temple and contains a large seated sculpture of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial has been the site of many famous speeches, including Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" in 1963.

The memorial

JEFFERSON'S MEMORIAL

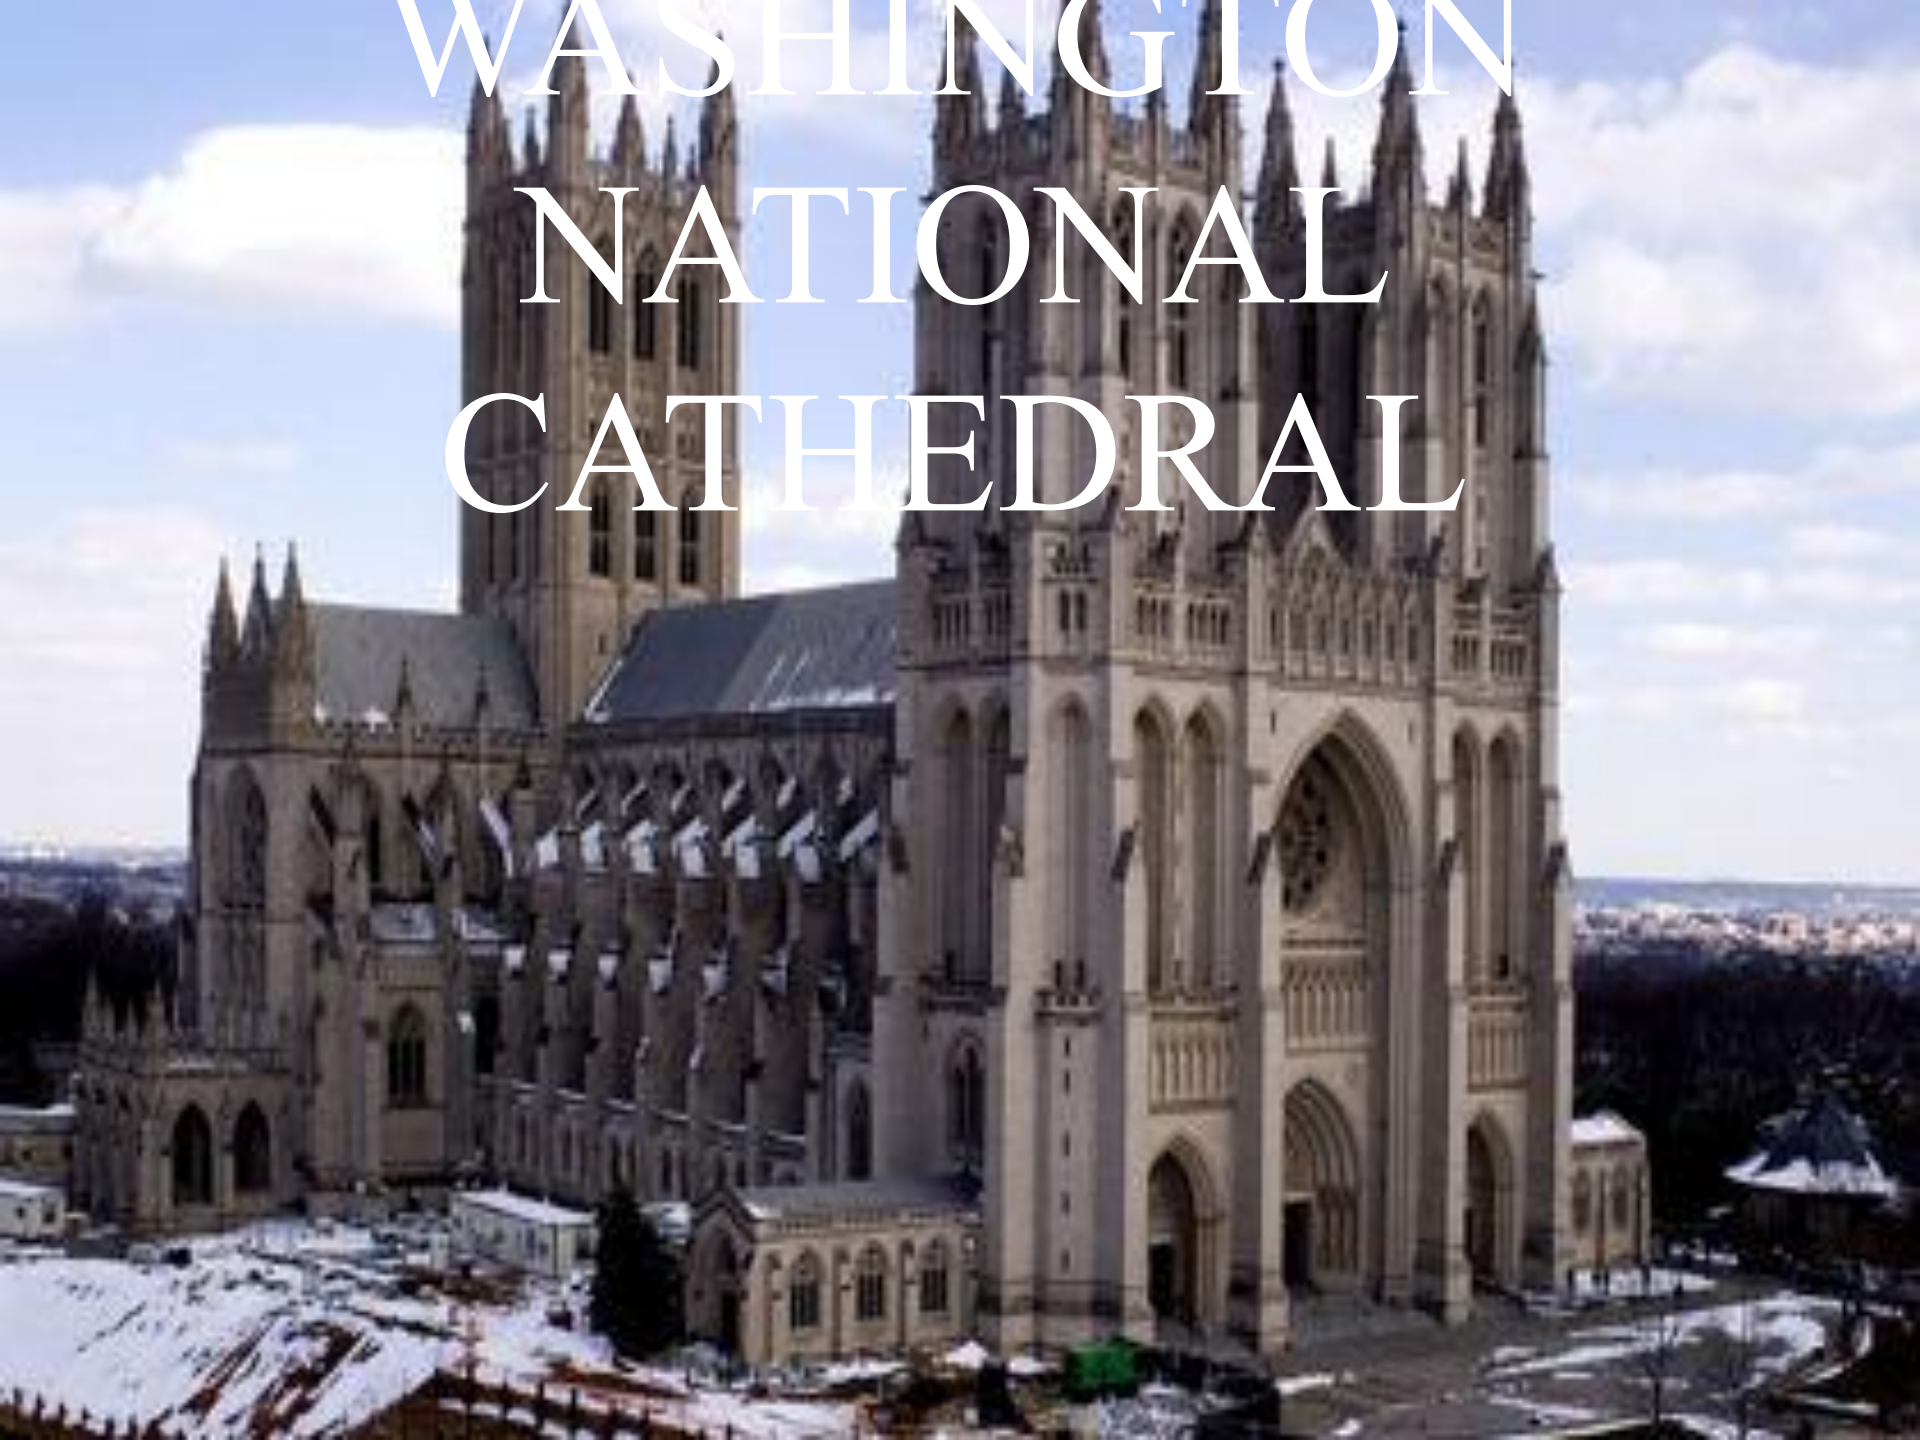

Jefferson Memorial is a presidential memorial in Washington, D.C. that is dedicated to Thomas Jefferson, an American Founding Father and the third president of the United States.

Construction began in 1939, the building was completed in 1943, and the bronze statue of Jefferson was added in 1947.

WASHINGTON NATIONAL CATHEDRAL

The Washington National Cathedral, officially named the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, is a cathedral of the Episcopal Church located in Washington, D.C. Construction

Theodore Roosevelt began on September 29, 1907, and ended 83 years later when the last finial was placed in the presence of President

<http://en.wikipedia.org>