WHAT IS KIKORIKI?

In the vibrant world of KikoRiki, there is always something to discover while having fun along the way. Set in a fairy-tale landscape of meadows, mountains and more, KikoRiki's stories highlight cooperation, creativity, core values, support and communication. Each character complements other's unique personalities: never belittling or insulting, but instead accepting each other for who they are.

Every episode contains a new adventure and a finished story. Each begins with an issue, problem or question. Each character approaches the situation from a different perspective to play to their strengths and help to solve the issue, problem or question.

Let's talk about characters. When translating from Russian into English, the translators changed the names of the characters. Try to guess by the description who it is.

BARRY

Barry is a funny and simple guy, kind, with an unusual past. He does not speak much and is able to accomplish a great deal in very little time. He is considerate, kind-hearted and keeps his cool in tough situations and while everyone else is busy arguing or fussing around, he quietly resolves the problems. Barry is very practical; he does not waste words and does everything decently and in good time. He treats kids with endless warmth and care.
