

SUBCULTURE IN GREECE

MADE BY ANNA TAZOVA GROUP 212

A subculture is a group of people with different beliefs and behaviors that separate them from the larger culture they belong to. One example of a subculture is the Greek fraternity and sorority community, which is found at many colleges and universities across the country.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

The distinguishing features:

- tight bond between each other;
- life-long commitment;
- host many unique parties, mixers, and events;
- distinguish by the clothing they wear;

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Their values:

- family;
- academics;
- service;
- leadership;

ΚΑΨ

ΑΦΑ

ΔΣΘ

ΑΚΑ

ΙΦΘ

ΩΨΦ

ΦΒΣ

ΣΓΡ

ΖΦΒ