

Kazan innovative university named after V.G. Timiryasov

Kazan innovative University is among the 100 best universities in the country and was awarded the gold medal "European quality". The College of Kazan innovative University named after V. G. Timiryasov (IEMML) took the third position in the ranking of the best non-state educational institutions of Russia, training programs of secondary professional education (SPE).

Nizhnekamsk branch of Kazan innovative university

The number of teaching staff is 43 people

There are 3 faculties (psychological, economic and law) and two departments (linguistic and technology of catering products).

In each sphere of training lessons are equipped with modern multimedia technology classrooms.

For foreign languages study the language laboratories equipped with modern linguistic equipment and audiovisual didactic tools are used.

The total Fund of the scientific library of the Nizhnekamsk branch of the University is about 165 thousand copies of educational and scientific publications, reference books, industry periodicals.

The readers of the library have unlimited access to the resources of the Electronic library system of the Virtual reading room and the full-text database of theses of the Russian state library, to the Universal reference and information full-text database of periodicals.

The “Linguistics“ involves training in profiles:

- 1) “Theory and methods of teaching foreign languages and cultures“ (qualification “Linguist. Teacher“)
- 2) “Translation and translation studies“ qualification (qualification “Linguist. Translator.”)»

Students took part in the international seminar «Innovations in EFL: Methods, Assessment and Reflection»»»

In April 2016 Nizhnekamsk branch of the Kazan innovative University was visited by a young lecturer from the University Talsi (USA) Morgan Briana Richardson.

KIU students worked at the international linguistic camp in the summer of 2016 as counselors and methodists.

On February 2017 there took place the meeting with students of the branch of the Higher school of teacher's training of the University of Reims in Chaumont (France).

On October 2018 Sophia Arwae, the teacher of English from the Kamnoetvidya Science Academy (Taiwan) visited our university.

The celebration of the Catholic Christmas at the Department is traditional.

Students of the Linguistic Department take part in various competitions

