

The political system of Russia.

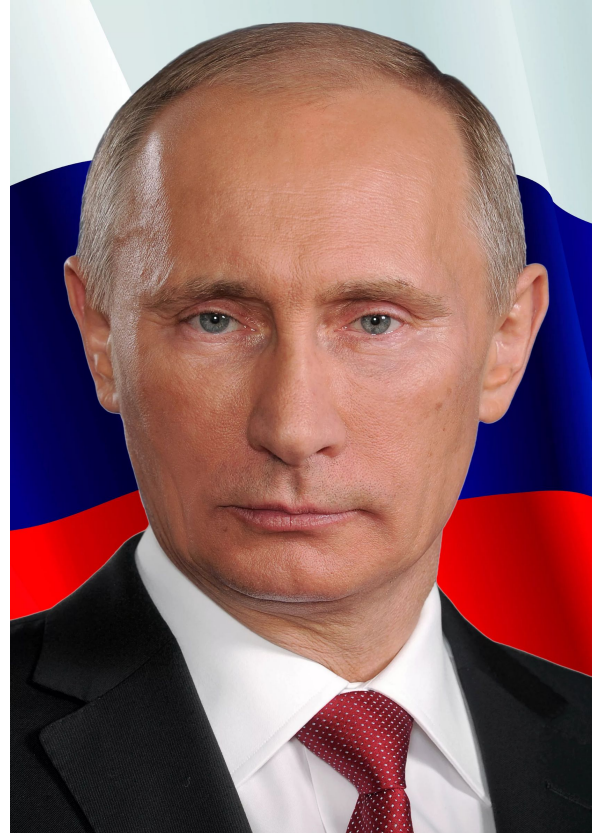

Мария, Дарья, Диана, Анна. 10Б

The President of Russia

State power in Russia is exercised by the President, the Federal Assembly, the Government and the courts. The President is at the summit of the system of state power.

Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin
- The President of Russia.

The Federal Government.

The Federal Government is the executive branch of power in Russia. It consists of The Chairman of the government and the ministers.

Functions

The Federal Government disposes of property of state, it has full power to enforce legality rights and freedom of all citizens. According to the Constitution, the Federal Government makes decrees and follows it's fulfillment.

The Election of the Government

The Chairman of the Government is elected by the President of Russia with agreement of the Duma. The ministers are elected by the President with agreement of the Chairman. There are 32 ministers in our Government.

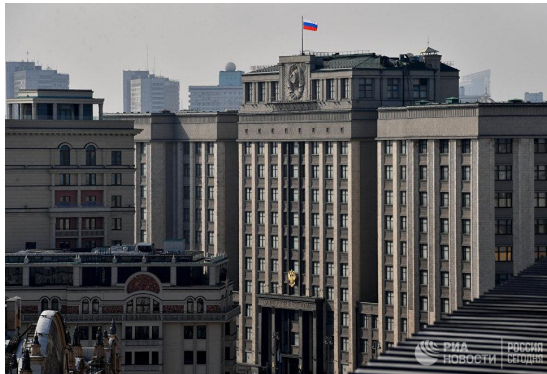

The Federal Assembly

The Federal Assembly represents the Legislative branch of power. It consists of two chambers: the Federation Council and the Duma.

The Duma

- The Duma consists of 450 deputies.
- Half is elected by people and the other part consists of deputies appointed by their parties
- Elected for 5 years

The Federation Council

- The Federation Council consist of 170 deputies.
- Two representatives are nominated from every subject of Russia.
- Hasn't fixed period of functioning.

Judicial System

Constitutional
Court

Supreme Court

The Court of General Jurisdiction

Supreme
Arbitration
Court

Military
Court

