

Fina takes a leading role in world sports.

- It is the international Swimming federation which brings together most of the national swimming federations.

- Held under the auspices of the FIBA world Championship in water sports

- other international events, the last of which took place in 2015 in my home city of Kazan and became one the best.

