

Audrey Kathleen Ruston

For beautiful eyes, look for the good in others; for beautiful lips, speak only words of kindness; and for poise, walk with the knowledge that you are never alone.

Audrey Hepburn born in 1929 on 4th of may in Brussels, Belgium.

Also she spent her childhood between Belgium, England, and the Netherlands. She was famous British actress, model and humanitarian.

When she was 16 she parents divorced and she with her mother lived in Arnhem. Then II World War was started. That period of time was the hardest in her life because she had to change her name, experienced hunger bur despite this, she said that she could find some light moments of time.

The background of the slide features a repeating pattern of stylized, ornate floral and paisley motifs in a light gray color. These motifs are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with each motif resembling a complex, symmetrical design that incorporates various floral elements and swirling patterns. The overall aesthetic is decorative and artistic, typical of a vintage or bohemian style.

Her way to career started when she study to ballet, but because of tall growth and underweight she must leave ballet. Her teacher said that she could reach great heights in cinema. Glory came to her after movie “Roman holidays” for which she received Oscar. She stayed the most famous and successful for a long time.

Because of her feeling of thanks she dedicated life to humanitarian work especially in UNICEF. She visited different countries and tried to solve social problems in poor countries.

Frequent trips facilitated to deterioration of health and later doctors discovered an appendiceal cancer. She died on 20th January in 1993 (aged 63) in Switzerland.
