

My future profession

Automation fitter

Group 042

Why I have chosen this profession

- Because it is easy to find a job in this specialty. My profession is demand always and everywhere. It is well-paid,if you know foreign languages .

Who is automation fitter

- is a versatile specialist working for the maintenance, repair and operation of various control equipment and automatic control systems.

Duties in manufacturing :

- ❖ - High-quality and timely execution of the duties
- ❖ - Meet the requirements of technological regulations (flow charts, and other normative - technical documentation), rules and regulations for safety in the work
- ❖ - Execution of orders, orders for the company, instructions and orders of the section chief (deputy head of the department), master control equipment, LPA
- ❖ - Compliance with labor and executive discipline, work
- ❖ - Compliance with rules and regulations on safety, industrial sanitation, fire safety requirements for environmental protection

Duties in manufacturing :

- ❖ - Compliance with labor and executive discipline, work rules
- ❖ - Compliance with rules and regulations on safety, industrial sanitation, fire safety requirements for environmental protection

Professional holidays

- professional holiday for representatives of this profession is Energy and World Metrology Day.
- Energy Day is celebrated in Russia each year on December 22. Interestingly, this festival falls on the shortest daylight of the year - the winter solstice.
- World Metrology Day is celebrated every year on May 20 - the day of the signing of the Metre Convention, which became the basis of an intergovernmental international organization of weights and measures.

We are the best automation fitters