Oxford universities

Oxford University
is one of the two oldest, most prestigious and
most aristocratic
British universities.
It was created in 1176. The university has about 20,000
students.

Oxford consists of 38 self-governing colleges: 28 colleges for men, 5 colleges for women, 5 colleges for both men and women. Each college has its own hall, chapel and library.

All the students wear long black gowns and students' caps. Without his or her gown no student is allowed to call on a tutor, to have dinner in the college dining-room or attend a lecture.

This hall is the setting for some of the scenes in the Harry Potter films.
