Jeopardy

Terms	Teacher roles	Corrections	Lesson plan	Aids
$100	$100	$100	$100	$100
$200	$200	$200	$200	$200
$300	$300	$300	$300	$300
$400	$400	$400	$400	$400
$500	$500	$500	$500	$500

1 - $100

- The ability to do something without making mistakes

- accuracy

1 - $200

- the things that a teacher uses in a class, e.g. handouts, pictures, flashcards, etc.

- aids

1 - $300

- teacher would like to improve in his/her teaching

- Personal aim

1 - $400

- A game played by two or more players on a board using dice

- Board game

1 - $500

- What's TTT?

- Teacher Talking Time

2 - $100

The teacher puts the students into groups of three for role-play

manager

2 - $200

The teacher asks students to brainstorm crime vocabulary to identify gaps in their knowledge

diagnostician

2 - $300

The teacher brings to the class a range of videos which students can borrow

Provider

2 - $400

The teacher prompts a shy student to participate

manager

2 - $500

The teacher speaks kindly to a child who is crying

parent

3 - $100

- What's wrong?

He wore a coat black

- Wrong word order

3 - $200

- What's wrong?

He hurt one of his foot fingers

- Wrong vocabulary

3 - $300

- What's wrong?

I live in very cheap flat near the school

- Word missing

3 - $400

She arrived to the station early

■ Wrong preposition

3 - $500

- What's wrong?

This is a picture of my uncles sister

- Wrong punctuation

4 - $100

- What is it?

To try different correction techniques

- Personal aim

4 - $200

- What is it?

  To develop peer correction skills

- Subsidiary aim

4 - $300

- What is it?

  To write more clearly on the board

- Personal aim

4 - $400

- What is it?

Students might not want to talk about their childhood during the lead-in stage

- Anticipated problems

4 - $500

- What is it?

Students copy down the new words from the board

- Procedure

5 - $100

- To give learners listening practice with visual context

- video

5 - $200

- To note down new vocabulary items through out the lesson

- Whiteboard/blackboard

5 - $300

- To bring small things from the worldoutside into the class

- realia

5 - $400

- To remind learners about pronunciation

- Phonemic chart

5 - $500

- Researching for a project

- Internet/encyclopedia/library