1

If he __had studied__ (study) enough, he could have passed the test.
If I _____were_____ (be) you, I would never talk to him again.

2

She would have been in Paris now,
if there __had been__ (be) no delay.

4

If I see him today, I ___will tell___ (tell) him to bring my books back.

What would you do,

5

if you _____ saw _____ (see) a snake in your bed?

If he hadn't broken (not / break) his right leg, 6 he could have played football this evening.

If water is heated up to 100 centigrade, it boils (boil).

8

If my mom saw us together,
she ___would kill___ (kill) you with a shotgun.

She may forgive you,
if you __go__ (go) and __talk__ (talk) to her.

10

If he hadn't smoked too much, he _____ would be _____ (be) alive now.

11

If you _____do_____ (do) it again,
I'll have to call the police!

Where would you like to live,

If you _____ had _____ (have) the chance to choose?

If I ___were___ (be) you, I would fly to Paris now.

If they hadn't drunk (not / drink) so much, they wouldn't have had that terrible accident.

If she hadn't fallen off the bike, she wouldn't have met (not / meet) her future husband.

If you put some water into a freezer,
it _____ freezes _____ (freeze).

They'll buy me a pair of sneakers,
if they _____go_____ (go) shopping today.

18

If you had put some sun cream on, your shoulders ___wouldn't be___ (not / be) so sun burnt now.