

Kyiv is the capital of Ukraine

Kyiv - the capital of Ukraine

City of Heroes, one of the largest and oldest cities in Europe. Located in the middle reaches of the Dnieper River in northern Dnieper. Political, social and economic, transport and educational and scientific center. A separate administrative unit within Ukraine and the administrative center of the Kiev region. The regional center of Kyiv-Svyatoshinsky district. Administrative of the Kiev area not included. Location central authorities of Ukraine, foreign missions, headquarters of most companies and associations operating in Ukraine.

The main attributes of the city

Landmarks in Kiev

Presidential Administration building

This is a majestic structure

House with Chimeras

Today the house is located in the center of Kyiv, close to the Palace of the President of Ukraine

Monument to Bogdan Khmelnytsky

Installed it in honor of Hetman Bohdan Khmelnytsky, who entered the history of Ukraine as an outstanding military leader, statesman

St. Sophia Cathedral

This is the main religious building of Kievan Rus from the reign of Yaroslav the Wise (1019-1054 biennium)

just under its walls gathered Kiev Veche.

Kyivo-Pecherska Lavra

Kiev-Pechersk Lavra
Holy Dormition
found on the right bank of the Dnieper, at high Dnieper hills.
The first monks who settled in the current Lavra, settled in caves - and from there came the name of the monastery

Golden Gate

monument fortification construction of 12 century

The presentation was prepared by student of B - 151 Katia Ostapenko