

Attractions
the novokuzneck

Tomilov David PR-15

Symbolizes the a hard time from 1941 to 1945.
The center of a wreath is symbolic platform with eternal fire, which was lit on Jubilee melting KMK.

“Fame Wreath”

www.rutraveller.ru/AlexP74

Are annually held events dedicated to the Victory Day

Boulevard Heroes

ANDREY DORONCHENKO <http://photo.doronchenko.ru> phone: +78059937009

In the center of the square is a bust of Nicholas Yermakov. This sculpture is was mounted on the charities money that have donated people of the city.

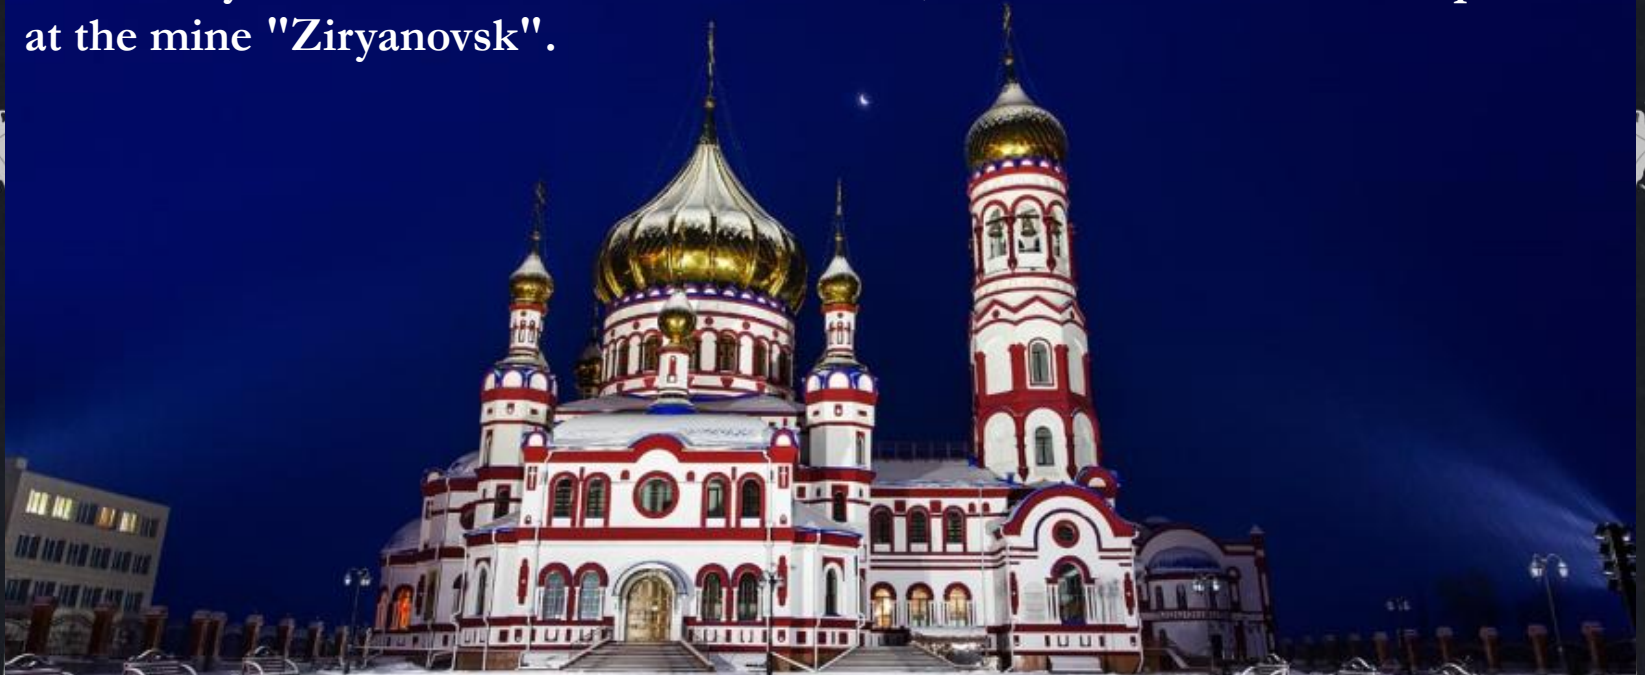

Square named N.S. Ermakova

Novokuznetsk Drama Theater was founded in November 1933. At first he housed the in a wooden building. And in 1963 was built a new modern building, it is how we can see it now. The theater is located in the very center of the city, near the Theatre Square. This is one of the oldest theaters in the Kuzbass.

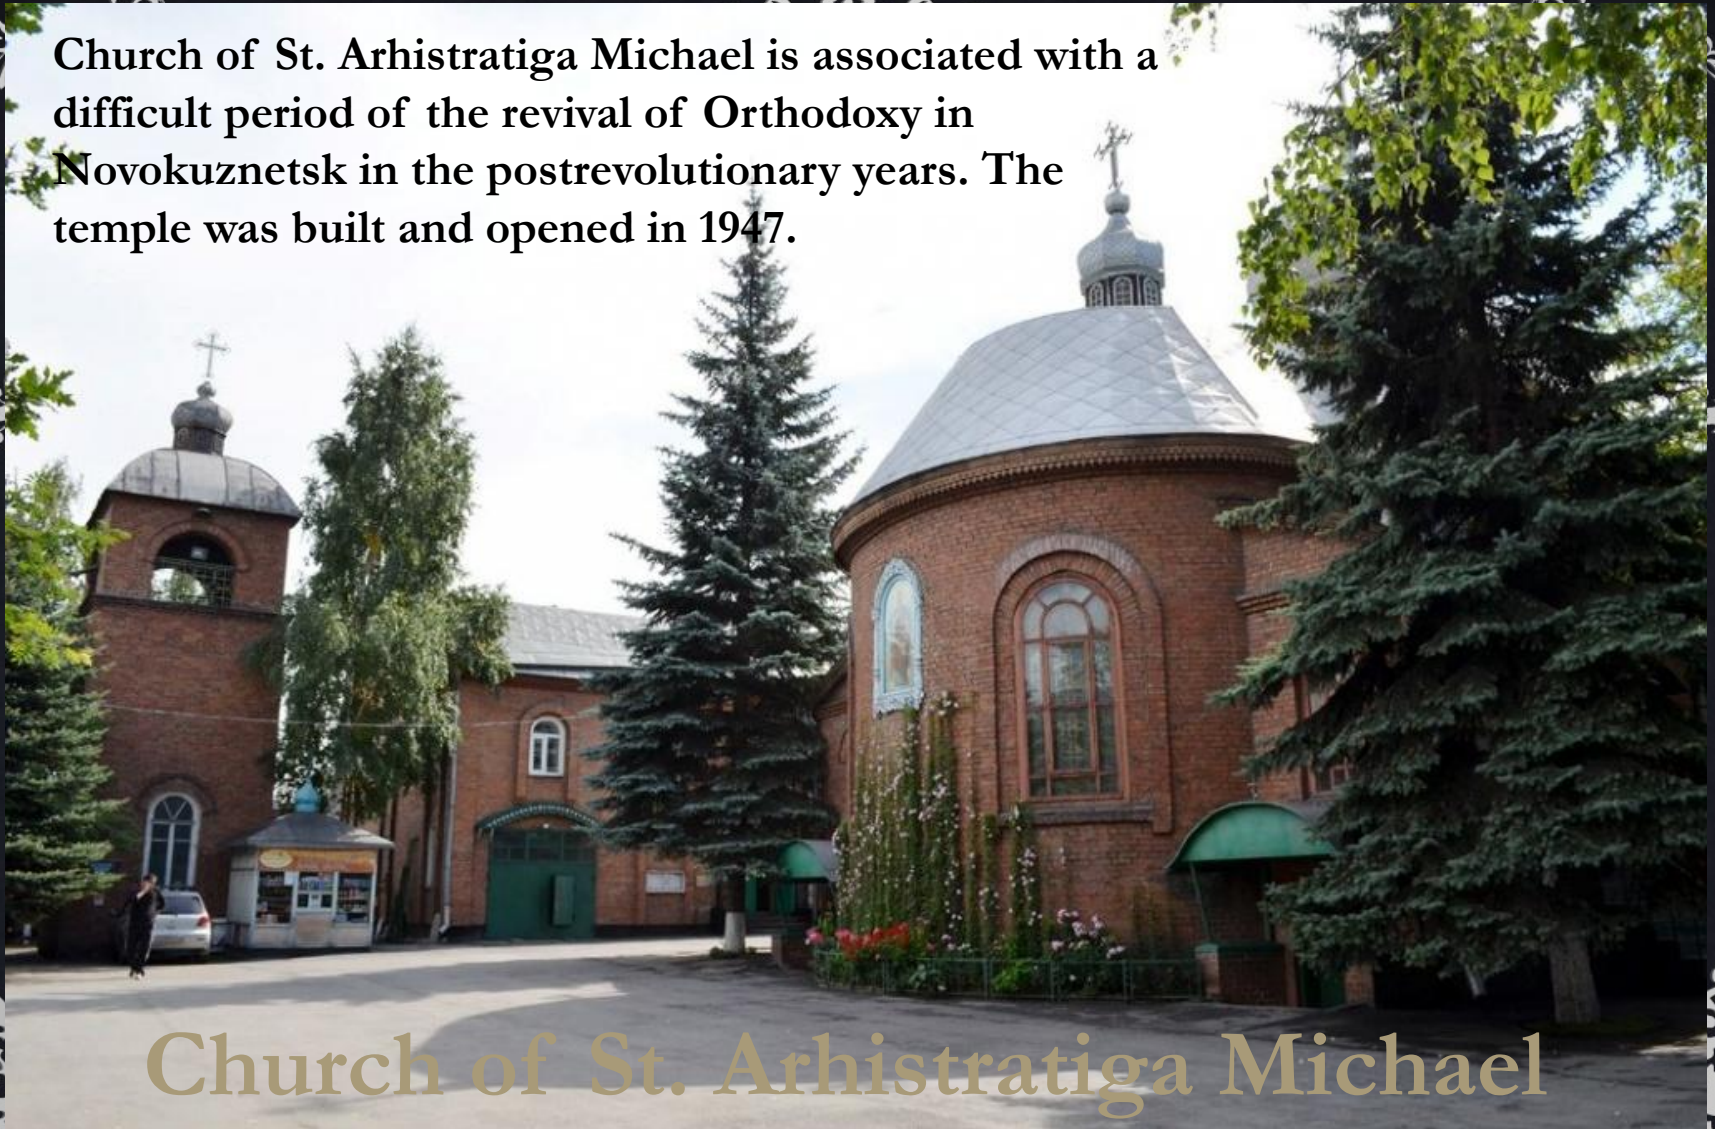

Drama Theater

Cathedral the Nativity of Christ is located in Novokuznetsk, in Ordzhonikidze district, on the street Ziryanovsk. It is the largest cathedral in the Kuzbass and the metropolis belongs to the Russian of the Orthodox Church and was built in memory of 67 of miners who died in 1997, as a result of methane explosion at the mine "Ziryanovsk".

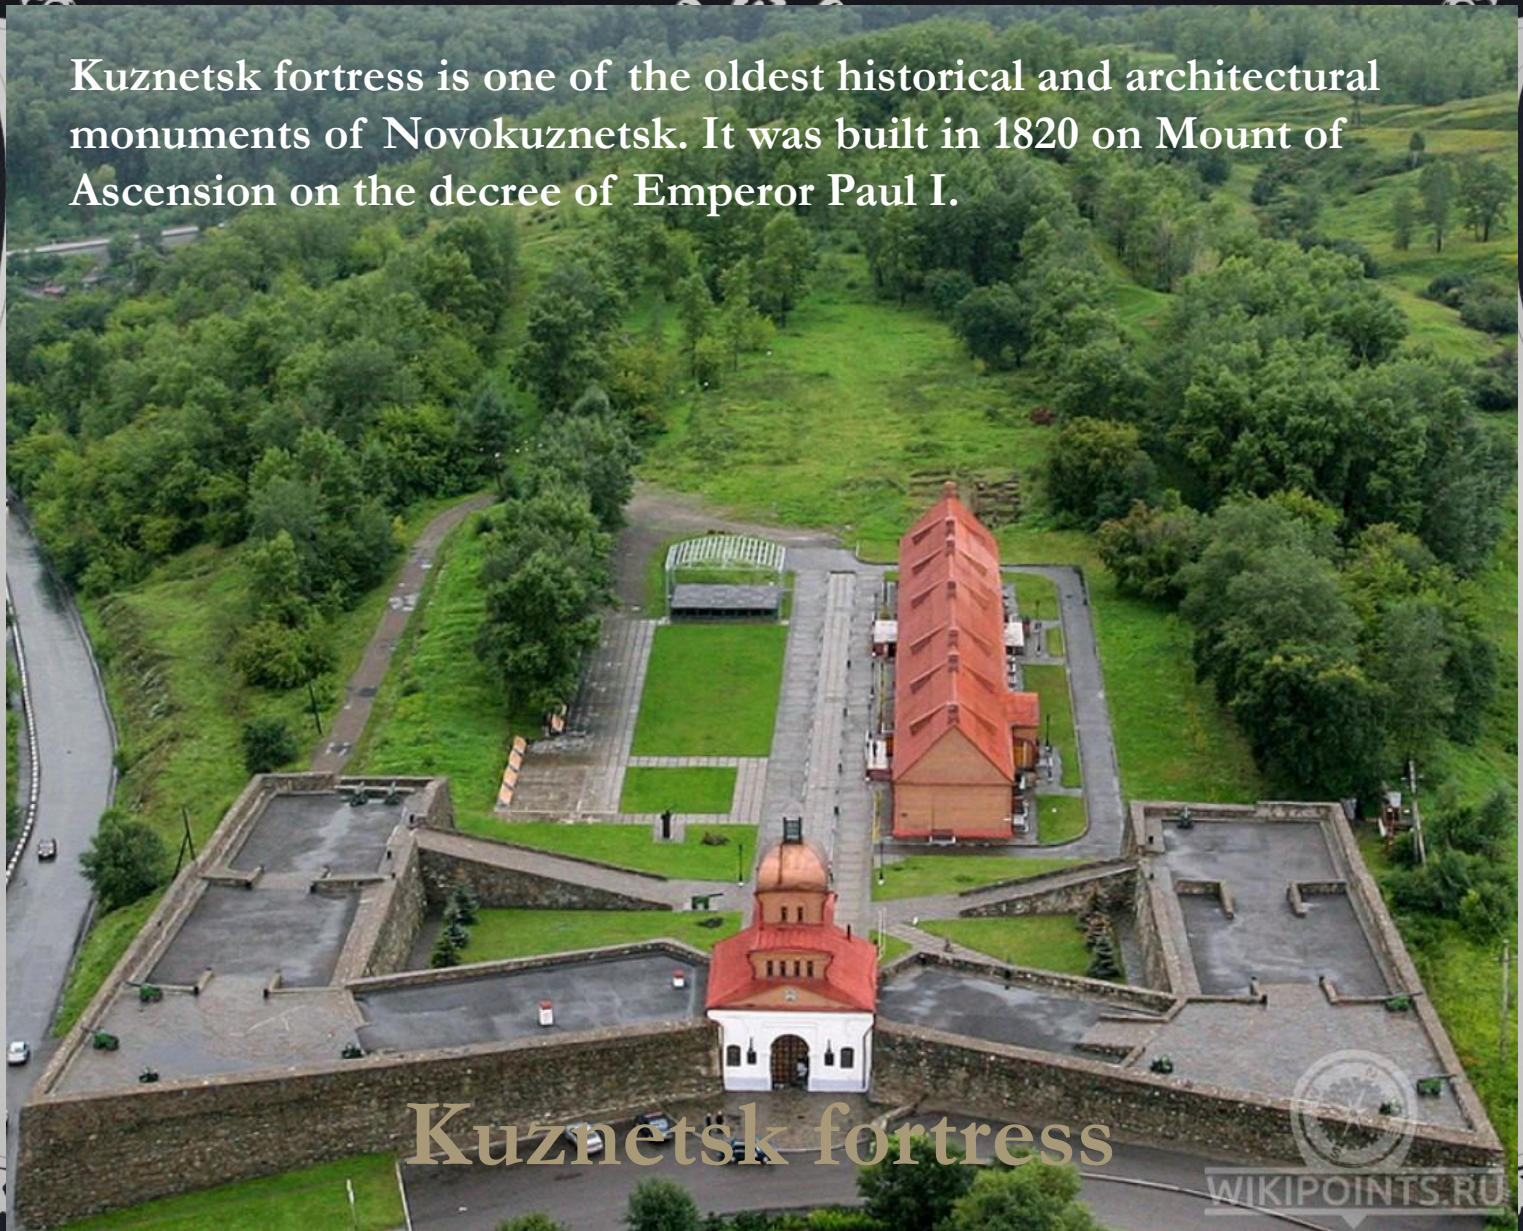

Cathedral of the Nativity of Christ

Church of St. Arhistratiga Michael is associated with a difficult period of the revival of Orthodoxy in Novokuznetsk in the postrevolutionary years. The temple was built and opened in 1947.

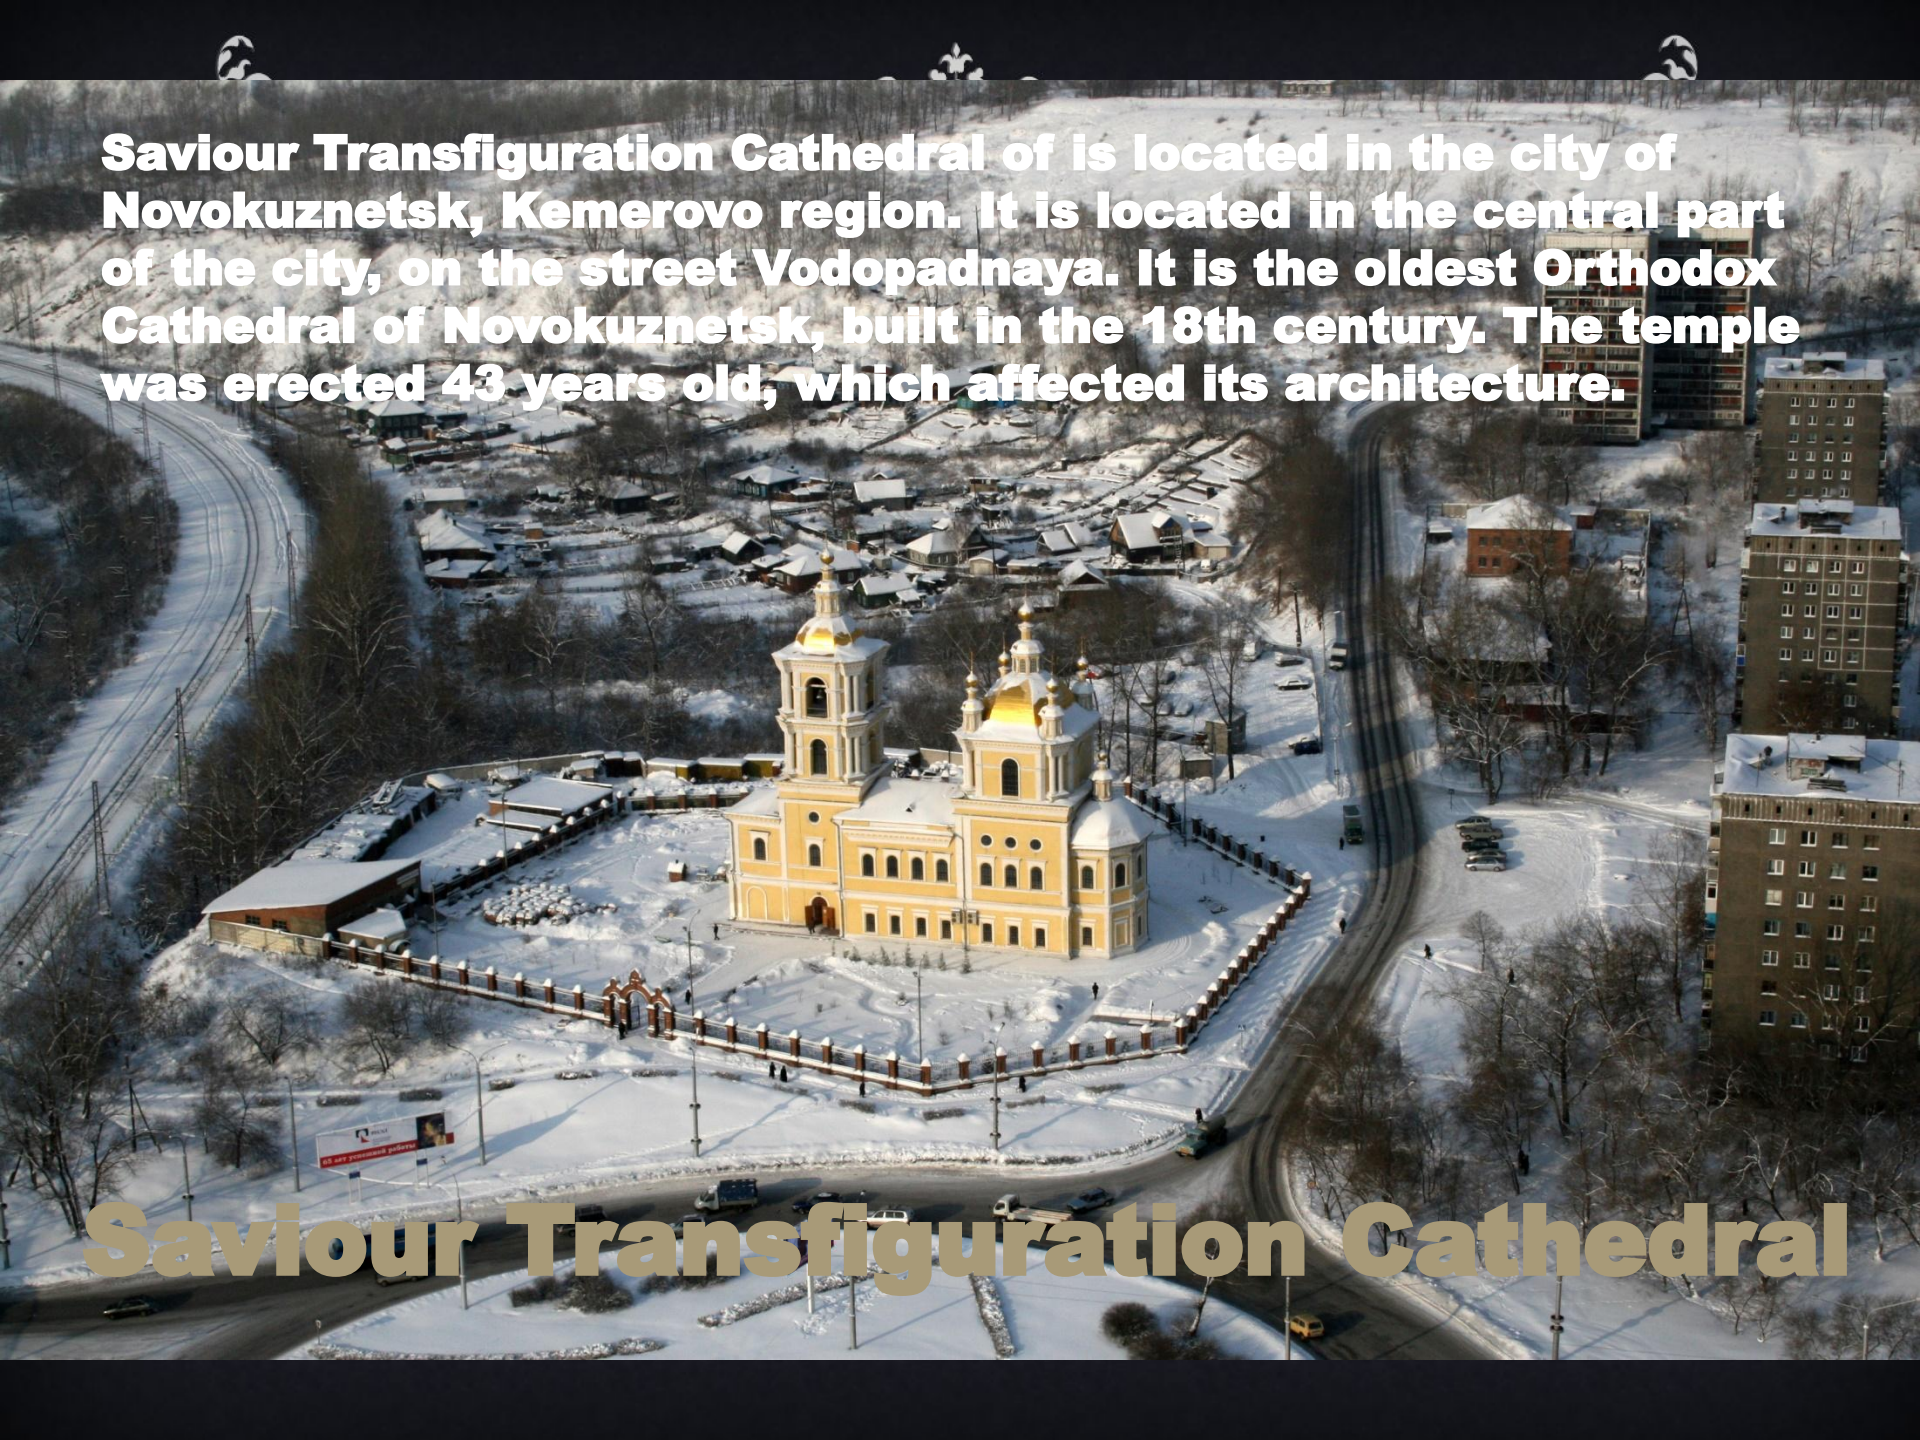

Church of St. Arhistratiga Michael

Kuznetsk fortress is one of the oldest historical and architectural monuments of Novokuznetsk. It was built in 1820 on Mount of Ascension on the decree of Emperor Paul I.

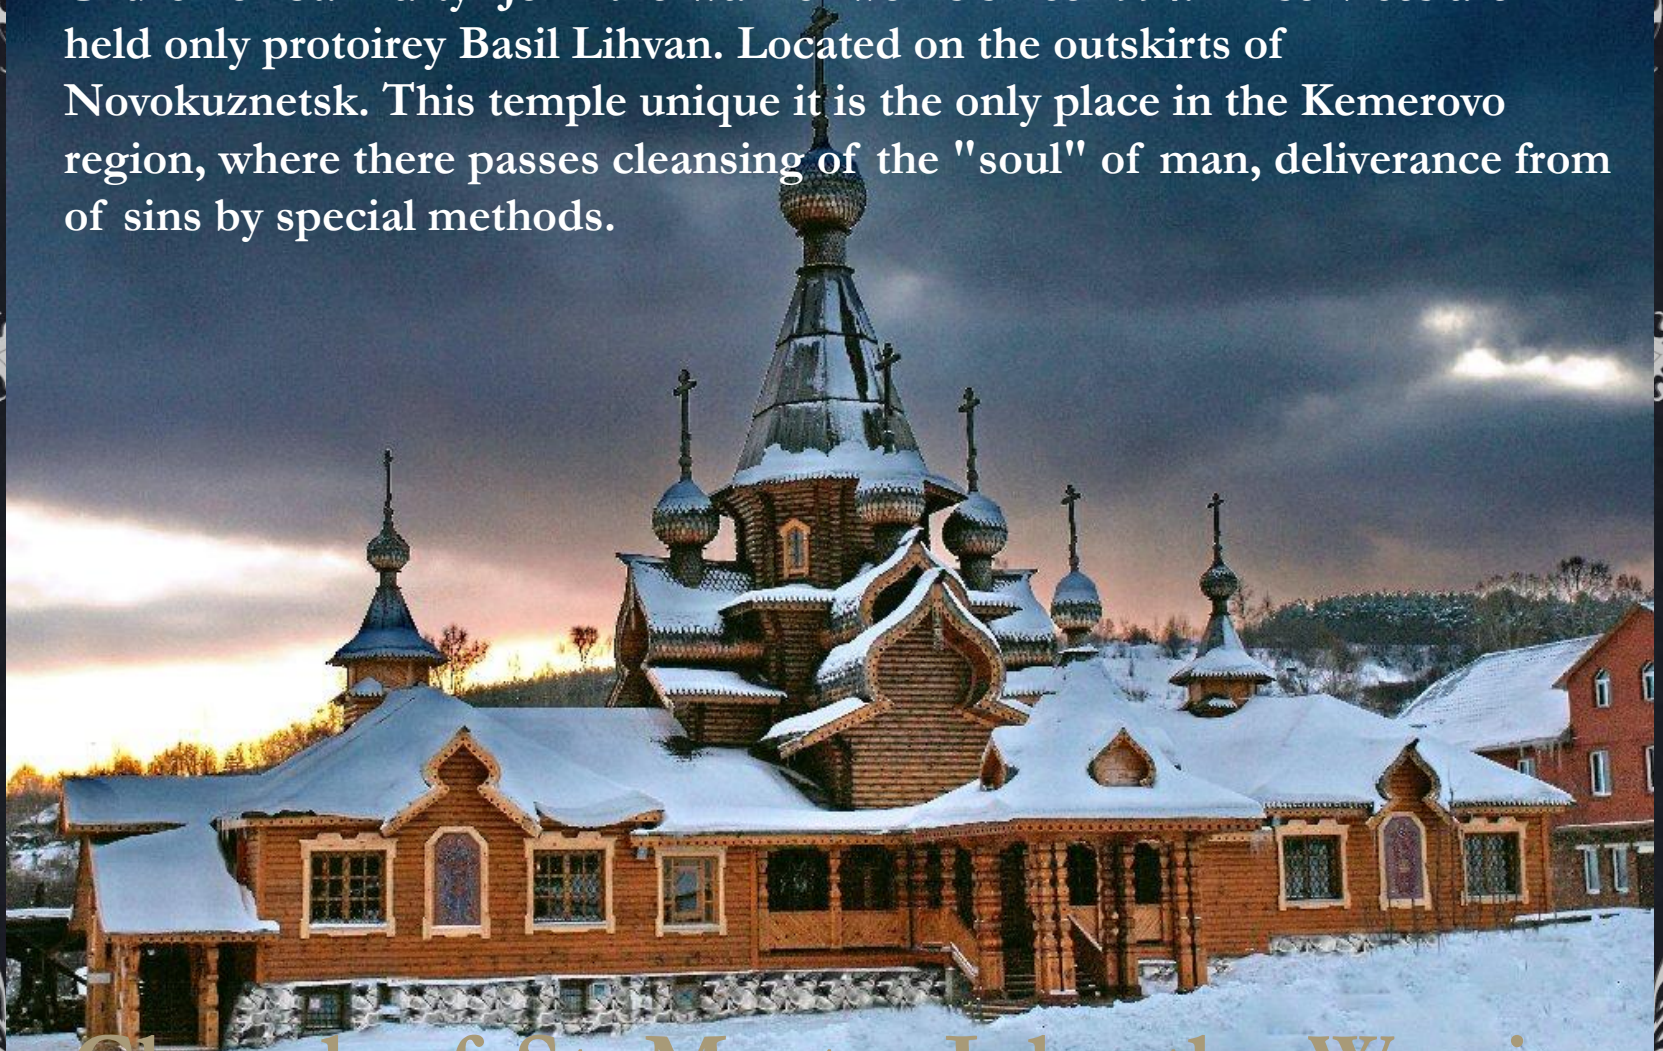

Kuznetsk fortress

Saviour Transfiguration Cathedral of is located in the city of Novokuznetsk, Kemerovo region. It is located in the central part of the city, on the street Vodopadnaya. It is the oldest Orthodox Cathedral of Novokuznetsk, built in the 18th century. The temple was erected 43 years old, which affected its architecture.

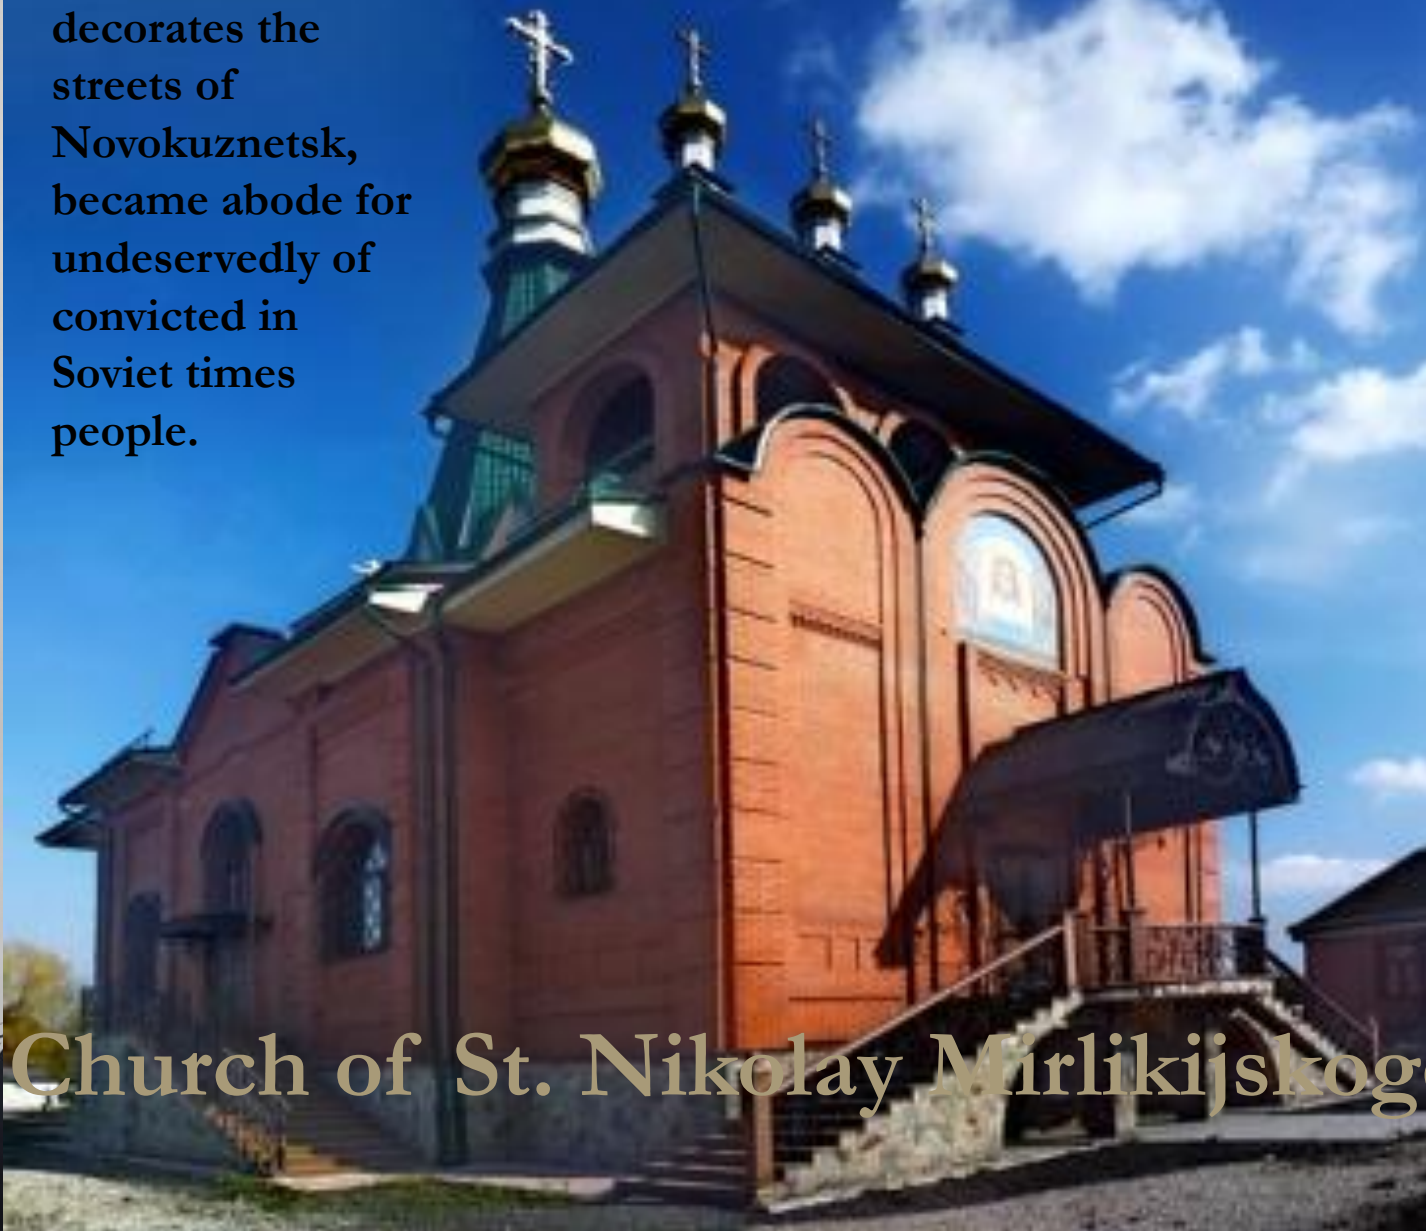

Saviour Transfiguration Cathedral

Church of St. Martyr John the Warrior works since 1994. All services are held only protoirey Basil Lihvan. Located on the outskirts of Novokuznetsk. This temple unique it is the only place in the Kemerovo region, where there passes cleansing of the "soul" of man, deliverance from of sins by special methods.

Church of St. Martyr John the Warrior

The old Temple for 60 years decorates the streets of Novokuznetsk, became abode for undeservedly of convicted in Soviet times people.

Church of St. Nikolay Mirlikijskogo

The basis of the composition a copper kopeck has been laid, which is minted in Russia in the early 17th century.

Monument kopeck

Monument "Black Tulip" is set in one of the squares of Novokuznetsk in honor of inhabitants the city who were killed in armed conflicts in "hot spots". The idea of creating his first emerged after the end of war in Afghanistan, and then for quite a long period of the initial project was modified several times. It was installed in the summer of 2007.

Monument "Black Tulip"

Devil's Bridge in Novokuznetsk is its unofficial attraction. The bridge is very popular among the citizens, and especially newlyweds that come hither to hang a lock. Devil's Bridge is located near else by attractions of one of the Kuznetsk ground - Kuznetsk fortress. This place is famous for in that the it is possible to observe the waterfalls

Thank you for attention

