

The background features a central rectangular area of plain, aged, light-brown paper. This central area is framed by ornate, dark brown floral and leaf patterns in the top-left and bottom-right corners, and by a similar, though less distinct, pattern along the bottom edge. The overall appearance is that of a vintage book cover or endpaper.

Monuments of the First World War

Mother Bulgaria

- A monument erected in honor of the soldiers who died in four wars -
Russian-Turkish
1877-1878,
Serbo-Bulgarian 1885,
First Balkan 1912-1913.
and the First World War of 1914-1918

25

In the crypt at the foot of the memorial, an eternal flame burns, on it there is a standing statue on the high pedestal, crownedly crowned, symbolizing Mother Bulgaria, holding an olive branch in its left hand - a symbol of peace, in the right hand of the statue - a national banner. Below the circle are four figures of soldiers - soldiers and officers.

Church of the Icon of the Mother of God

now a nonexistent Orthodox church on the Royal village Brothers Cemetery of Russian soldiers who died in the First World War of 1914-1918 in the city of Pushkin in the immediate vicinity of the Kazan cemetery. On the site of the church was planned the erection of a stone church according to the project of 1916.

Menena Gate

a monument in the Belgian city of Ypres, dedicated to the memory of soldiers and officers of the Entente troops who died in the battles of World War I near this city and whose bodies were not found. The project of the monument to the work of Reginald Bloomfield, the monument is built on the resources of the government of Great Britain. The opening of the monument took place on July 24, 1927.

located in New Delhi monument in memory of the Indian soldiers who died in the Anglo-Afghan wars and during the First World War. It was erected according to the Edwin Lachens project and was inaugurated in 1931. At the foot of the arch burns eternal fire.
On the arch itself, more than 90,000 warrior names are carved.

Warriors of the First World War"

August 1, 2014 in the national horse park "Rus" Leninsky district of the Moscow region was the solemn opening of the obelisk timed to the 100th anniversary of the outbreak of World War I.

Муниципальное Управление
культуры, спорта, туризма
и молодежной политики
г. Пятигорска
представляет
на конкурс
программу мероприятий
к 100-летию
Великой Победы
в Великой Отечественной
войне

The base of the obelisk is decorated with the image of the St. George cross of four degrees, which is the main military award of the Russian Empire.

Thank you for attention!

Stepanova Uliana

8B

Bibliography:

1. <https://ru.wikipedia.org>