

My last shopping

- My last shopping was at supermarket. I usually do my shopping on Saturday.

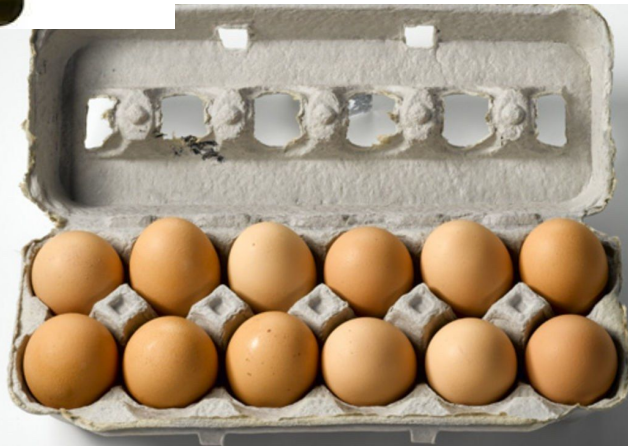

This was my shopping list

- I always try to write a shopping list of things I need to buy because I can forget something or buy something that I don't need.

- I was walking around the supermarket trying to find the things I need. I took the basket. I was going to make pancakes so at the beginning I put a heavy white cloth bag of flour in the basket. Next I took a dozen eggs and a big plastic bottle of olive oil.

When I was looking for milk I couldn't find any so an assistant told me that they had run out of milk. So I decided to drop in the dairy which is near my house and buy a small card carton of milk. Also I took a small white plastic bottle of yoghurt, an inexpensive large yellow cardboard box of tea bags and an unusual transparent glass bottle of coffee.

- I took a big oval brown bread on the shelf.
- Then I put a plastic bottle of lemonade in my wire basket.
- In the end I took a large bunch of good fresh yellow bananas and a bunch of small green grapes.

- At the end of the shopping I paid cash. I was given my change and my receipt.
