

Museums of London

Tower Bridge

- Tower Bridge is one of London's best-known sights. It has got the distinctive twin drawbridges with Gothic (style) towers over River Thames near the Tower of London. The bridge was built in the late 19th century.

The Tower of London

- The Tower of London is an ancient fortress to the east of the City of London. It is formerly a place where the king and queen lived. Then it was a prison for important people. Now it is a museum and a place where the crown jewels are kept.

Ravens

- The ravens are another famous sight. The legend says that without them the Tower will fall.

Beefeater

- Beefeater is the person who gives them food.

Marble Arch

Marble Arch

- Marble Arch is a triumphal arch in London originally built in 1828 to form the main entrance to Buckingham Palace. It was found to be too narrow for the royal carriage. It is situated in the north-east of Hyde Park.

The Viking Centre

York is a beautiful city. A lot of tourists visit it. It is very popular. It has the Viking Centre. The Vikings came there a thousand years ago. Then they made the city. The Viking Centre has a lot of Vikings' things and a lot of scenes of their life

Canterbury Tales

- Canterbury is one of the ten most famous cities in Britain. It is not far from London. Here is the Museum of Canterbury Tales. It is the most interesting museum.